WELCOME TO OUR VISITORS

Archbishop Robert J. Carlson and the people of the Archdiocese of St. Louis welcome you and hope that your time in our Mother Church may be an opportunity to share our faith and joy in Jesus Christ.

Please enjoy the beauty of this building dedicated to the glory of God and built for the inspiration of all who enter.

Public tours are available with volunteer guides Monday through Friday. Tours are also available Sundays after 1:00 pm, unless pre-empted by an afternoon event.

All visitors who are not of the Catholic faith are welcome to join us in prayer but not to receive Holy Communion. Reception of Holy Communion is a sign of unity of faith and full membership in the Catholic community. Together let us pray for the eventual unity of all believers.

If you desire to become a member of the Catholic Church or to become a member of the Cathedral Basilica Parish, please complete a registration card, available at the entrances the church.

All contributions to the Cathedral Basilica ministries and maintenance are sincerely appreciated. Gift Shop and Museum open 10:00 am – 4:00 pm.

FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

This Sunday we celebrate the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. In submitting Himself humbly to the baptism of St. John the Baptist, however, Christ provided the example for the rest of us. If even He should be baptized, though He had no need of it, how much more should the rest of us be thankful for this sacrament, which frees us from the darkness of sin and incorporates us into the Church, the life of Christ on earth! His Baptism, therefore, was necessary--not for Him, but for us.

I hope that many of you were able to join us for the wonderful celebration for Father Joseph as he prepares to make the journey to Rome to begin his studies in Canon Law. It such an edifying scene to see the Cathedral so full with those who in one way or another were touched by the ministry of Father Joseph. From our young adult group Anima Christi to our Altar Servers he has impacted the life of our parish. You will still see Father around the parish from time to time as this will become his home when away from Rome.

We are embarking on a Stewardship Appeal. Last week you heard a little about it in the announcements at the end of Mass and hopefully received more information via mail that included a brochure regarding the appeal. The first and most important thing I want to express to all of you is gratitude. I am so grateful to be the Rector of the Cathedral Basilica Parish, and to have such a wonderful parish and generous parish community, not just in a monetary sense but also in giving of your time and service to others.

The goal of the appeal is to increase our giving in the areas of time, talent and treasure. I am asking you to join your fellow parishioners in prayerful consideration of how we might each grow in stewardship. The wonderful gathering for Father Joseph was purely a result of many people coming together to share their lives with one another.

This is an invitation for you to share your joy with your fellow members of the parish. As you think about your contributions to the parish, think about what God may be asking of you. How will you share the joy?

ARCHBISHOP'S COLUMN

BEFORE THE CROSS | Embrace those manifestations that come from God

God's manifestations, or epiphanies, deliver lessons in more than one way

We close up the Christmas season and move into Ordinary Time with a connected set of feasts. In the ancient Church the Epiphany commemorated three things: 1) The visit of the Magi, 2) the Baptism of the Lord and 3) the Wedding Feast at Cana.

Archbishop
Robert J. Carlson
Twitter: @abp_carlson

Why all three? Because the ancient Greek word epiphany meant “manifestation,” and these events were three key moments in which Christ's identity was publicly manifested: His first revelation to the Gentiles, His public revelation as beloved Son of the Father, and the first public sign He performed.

If you think in terms of what's called “the divine pedagogy” — God's way of teaching — it makes perfect sense. A good teacher doesn't deliver an important lesson only one time and in only one way. An important lesson is delivered more than once, and in more than one way.

God, the master teacher, does the same with us, not only in salvation history but also in our own lives. The beauty of nature and the power of human relationships point us to God. Scripture and the Sacraments teach us about God. Prayer draws us to God. Just as multiple epiphanies close the Christmas season so there are many epiphanies in our lives. God wants to give us multiple opportunities to learn about Him and draw close to Him.

But that doesn't mean “it's all good,” as people are fond of saying. It is, most decisively, not all good! There's an enemy at work in the world, too. That's why the apostle John warns us: “Do not trust every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they belong to God.”

Yes, there's a spirit of truth in the world, helping us to appreciate all the ways God manifests Himself to us. There's a spirit of deceit in the world, too, trying to twist every one of those epiphanies to a destructive end.

God put the natural goodness of food into the world, to help us long for the heavenly banquet; the enemy tries to twist that goodness for self-serving gluttony (sometimes the gluttony of quantity, sometimes the gluttony of quality). God put the natural goodness of human abilities into the world, that we might humbly acknowledge our gifts and use them to serve him and one another; the enemy tries to twist that goodness toward self-elevating and self-serving pride. God put the natural goodness of sexuality into the world, to teach us that we are made for communion; the enemy tries to twist that goodness for the self-satisfaction of lust.

Because God is the master teacher, both history and our experience are full of epiphanies of God. Because the enemy is a master tempter, every one of God's gifts can be turned toward human destruction. Perhaps this coming year could be dedicated to deepening our power of discernment: to know and embrace all God's epiphanies more deeply, to know and reject all the enemy's temptations more quickly!

God bless you in this New Year.

Dynamic Catholic: Generosity

And a voice came from the heavens, saying, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased." God, Our Father, is so generous that he gave us his only son, whom he really loves, to us so that we can have eternal life with him in heaven. God really loves us, too! How are we responding to God's generosity? Do we just take this all for granted? Each week at Sunday Mass, we receive the greatest gift of all – the Holy Eucharist. The word Eucharist means "thanksgiving". Are we thankful for this precious gift? We show our gratitude for this gift by imitating how Jesus lived. The next time you receive the Holy Eucharist, remember that we are to reflect Jesus' love and mercy to others.

A Thought on The Sanctity Of Life

“An unexpected pregnancy can be a difficult and frightening time, and it’s important that your friend knows you are thinking of her and supporting her. ... don’t forget the most important thing is to pray. Even if it’s just a quick two-second prayer, prayer is the most effective way we can help. Pray for her, for her child, and for guidance in how you can give her the best possible support.”

Prayers for Christian Unity

The days between January 18 and January 25 have been kept for several generations as a period of special prayer for Christian Unity. The Lord Himself prayed during the Last Supper that "they all may be one, as we are one, Father. I pray that they may be one in us." Christ Himself reveals His desire for the unity of all Christianity. The Prayers for Christian Unity have brought about more than could have been anticipated even a generation ago, but real unity continues to beckon our continued prayer.

Come and Pray Lectio Divina

Lectio Divina is a reflective reading and meditation on specific Scripture passages. This centuries-old practice of prayer relies on the Holy Spirit to guide the heart to the deeper meaning that God wants to convey through his Word. A person reads a passage, pauses, and shares what word or thought touched their heart during the reading with others. As a group, we often read Scripture passages from the upcoming Sunday liturgy, greatly enhancing the Sunday Mass experience. Group meets Tuesdays, from 7-8:00 p.m. at the rectory. Contact Deacon John Stoverink at JohnStoverink@archstl.org for more info.

Anima Christi Young Adults

All young adults interested in growing the fellowship of our young adult community are invited to the next young adult gathering scheduled for Thursday, January 16. We begin with dinner at 6 pm in Boland Hall, followed by Holy Hour and confessions in the church at 7 pm (enter through the west door by the playground), and concluding back in Boland Hall with dessert and fellowship at 8 pm. Please join us, in full or in part, to deepen your relationship with Christ and with one another. For more information, please e-mail AnimaChristiStL@gmail.com.

Men of the Cathedral

“Let us then with confidence draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.” (Heb 4:16) What better way to begin the New Year, a new decade and live your faith by joining the Men of the Cathedral for Adoration and Dinner?

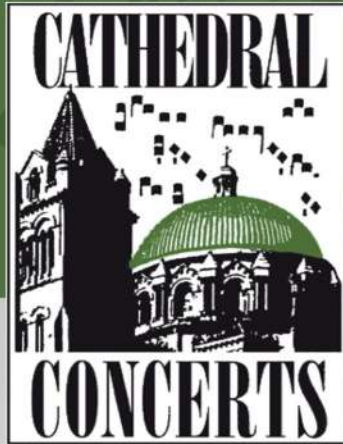

Our first evening of Adoration and Dinner in 2020 will be held on Tuesday, January 28, beginning with Adoration in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel at 6 PM and dinner at 6:30 PM in Boland Hall.

You are cordially invited to join this group of Catholic Men interested in deepening their faith with our Lord and their friendships with other like-minded men. Please encourage your friends and family members to join you. Please contact Michael Weisbrod at michael.weisbrod@rcfstl.org by January 27 to confirm your reservation! The suggested offering is $20 per person and includes dinner and drinks.

Weekly Thoughts on Giving

And a voice came from the heavens, saying, “This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased.” (Mt 3:17)

Two thoughts come to mind when reading this. First, God, Our Father, is so generous, that he gave his only son, whom he really loves, to us so that we can have eternal life with him in heaven. God, Our Creator, really loves us, too! Second, Jesus was obedient to his Father’s will, even to the point of death. This is a reminder that our own lives are pure gifts from God and meant to serve God and others.
