FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Last Sunday, we welcomed those throughout the Archdiocese who are to be received into the Catholic Church at Easter. I am so proud to relate to you that the Cathedral Basilica has 26 men and women who will be with us for the Easter Vigil. By comparison, the Cathedral Basilica has one of the largest groups in the Archdiocese. The preparation for these men and women now intensifies, and I ask that you remember them in your prayers.

This past week we completed the installation of four new Automatic External Defibrillators (AED) in the Cathedral Basilica. Defibrillators are devices that restore a normal heartbeat by sending an electric pulse or shock to the heart. They are normally used to restore the heart's beating if it suddenly stops. You will find these at the stairwells to the men and women's restrooms, and at the two entrances to the main sacristy. I would highly encourage you to familiarize yourself with the location of the AED's in the event of an emergency.

In addition, we are also in the process of training our staff in CPR. So far, we have 6 staff members certified by the American Red Cross. We will be holding another session to certify as many staff members as we can.

As many of you know, we suspended the reception of the Precious Blood at Mass when the outbreak of the Coronavirus occurred. In addition to this step, we are also taking extra precautions by purifying all vessels with soap and hot water before and after all Masses. All Holy Water fonts are cleaned and sanitized each week. There are other precautions we may need to take in the future, and these may impact the worship of our parishioners and visitors.

If things progress as expected, we will feel the Coronavirus in the St. Louis area. As a parish, we must look out for each other and, most especially, our elderly parishioners and those who live alone. If you know someone living alone, please reach out to them and check in on them. At present, I know that there is a lot of anxiety out there, and knowing that someone is there and someone cares can undoubtedly help to calm.

Let us not forget to pray for those affected by the outbreak. I also want to assure you that the priests of the Cathedral Parish will continue to provide all the sacraments and offer Mass for all the faithful.

ARCHBISHOP'S COLUMN

BEFORE THE CROSS | God doesn't overlook our sins, because He wants to heal us

He is always ready to forgive our sins by going to the heart of them and doing something about them

Does God overlook our sins?

That's a complex theological question. Let's start closer to home: Do we want God to overlook our sins?

It's easy to understand how the answer is yes. We want God's forgiveness. In this sense, we echo the Psalmist's cry: "Lord, do not deal with us according to our sins."

In order to understand how the answer is no, imagine going to a doctor. Do we want her to overlook our sickness? Imagine consulting with a coach. Do we want him to overlook our weaknesses as an athlete? Imagine asking a teacher for help. Do we want her to overlook the shortcomings of the paper we're writing?

No, in every case we want them to look squarely at our problems. Only by not overlooking them, in that sense, can they help us.

Fortunately, the readings this week tell us God fulfills both parts of our hope: God both does and does not overlook our sins.

In what sense does God not overlook our sins? We hear it in Psalm 50 as God addresses Israel: "When you do these things, shall I be deaf to it? ... I will correct you by drawing them up before your eyes." God doesn't ignore Israel's sins. In fact, this is why God sent prophets to Israel. He is ready and willing to pardon their sins. But He's not going to do it by pretending the sins don't exist.

Jesus provides another example in His approach to the Pharisees in Matthew 23. He says: "They preach but they do not practice. They tie up heavy burdens hard to carry and lay them on people's shoulders, but they will not lift a finger to move them. All their works are performed to be seen" and so on. Jesus does not ignore the Pharisees' faults. Rather, He trains His attention on them and names them for what they are.

In fact, this is true all through the Gospels. It's how Jesus approaches the man born blind, and the woman at the well who has had five husbands, and the prideful request of James and John to sit at His right and left, and the bickering of the disciples over who is the greatest. Whether the problem is physical, moral, or spiritual, Jesus doesn't ignore it. He goes after it — sometimes gently, sometimes sharply. He doesn't overlook problems precisely because He wants to heal them.

This is the very reason Jesus took on flesh and died on the Cross. He didn't overlook our sins. Rather, He looked squarely at them so He could go to the heart of them and do something about them.

Of course, God does overlook our sins in the sense of being willing to forgive them. We hear that when the Psalmist says: "The Lord is kind and merciful ... He pardons all your iniquities, He heals all your ills ... Not according to our sins does He deal with us." (Psalm 103) We hear it when the prophet Micah describes God as the one who removes guilt and pardons sins, who delights in clemency, who will have compassion on us, and who will cast into the depths of the sea all our sins (Micah 7). We see it in the ministry of Jesus.

What we hope for and who God is come together beautifully in the prophet Isaiah when he says: "Come now, let us set things right, says the Lord: though your sins be like scarlet, they may become white as snow; though they be crimson red, they may become white as wool" (Isaiah 1). God doesn't overlook our sins. Instead, God is able to transform them — to transform us — into something glorious. That's our deepest hope.

If you're struggling to get your Lent started, open yourself up to the God who both does and doesn't overlook our sins.

Archdiocesan Lenten Regulations

For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him.” (Jn 3:16-17)

The Church has always helped us fulfill these words of Jesus by prescribing very definite penance for all Catholics. Universal Lenten directions are printed here in order that we may be reminded of what is expected of all Catholics for all the days of Lent.

1. Abstinence from meat (totally meatless days) is observed by all Catholics 14 years of age and older (no upper age limit) on Ash Wednesday and all Fridays of Lent.

2. Fasting is observed on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday by all Catholics between 18 and 59. Those who are bound by this eat only one full meal; two smaller meals are taken to maintain strength according to each one's needs.

3. Fasting on other weekdays of Lent is not obligatory but recommended most strongly; if fasting is not observed, some other form of self-denial is obligatory, not from Church direction but from Christ's command.

4. Prayer is especially necessary to maintain the perspective of penance and to keep the motivation spiritual. Some substantial time should be given to prayer each day.

5. Almsgiving or charity is necessary to maintain and intensify the movement of the soul away from self-centeredness. A substantial donation of monetary funds and/or time and/or personal effort should be given to those in need.

Lenten Message from Pope Francis

The 2020 Message of His Holiness Pope Francis for Lent is available for your prayerful consideration and response. Please visit the parish website at <http://cathedralstl.org/special-events>. During Lent, we pray with renewed fervor for ourselves, our families, and the Church; we hope this message provides inspiration in your spiritual preparation. Through the grace of Christ and the power of the Holy Spirit, may we all be agents of the Father's mercy!

Stations of the Cross

A privileged devotion most frequently prayed in a public service during Lent is the Stations of the Cross. For centuries pilgrimage to the holy places in Jerusalem and a walking the path of Christ's carrying the cross to Calvary has been an esteemed devotion and penitential practice. In similar fashion the faithful have prayed at home at fourteen "stations of the Cross" erected on the walls of their parish churches. Join us for this powerful devotional prayer every Friday evening of Lent at 7:00 p.m.

Operation Rice Bowl

The effort known as Operation Rice Bowl has become a regular feature of Lent in Catholic homes throughout the United States. Families reduce substantially one meal eaten together to a very simple fare like soup and bread, then donate the money saved to the "rice bowl". At the end of Lent, all the "rice bowl" funds are collected through the parish and forwarded to the poor through Catholic Relief Services. "Rice bowls", instructions, and Lenten Calendars are available on the tables at each entrance.

Lent and Confession

All Catholics associate Lent with the Sacrament of Penance, Reconciliation, and Confession. Sometimes we put off going to Confession until the last minute depriving ourselves of a much richer Lent; indeed, a much richer life. Everyone is urged to make their Lenten confession early, during the first weeks of Lent. In that way, the richness of God's mercy may develop the full root and stem in Lent to blossom into a hardy and brilliant Easter joy.

PRAY FOR THE SICK

It is our responsibility in the Lord to remember the sick, who are especially close to the Redeemer in their suffering.

A Thought on The Sanctity Of Life

"We are facing an enormous and dramatic clash between good and evil, death and life, the "culture of death" and the "culture of life". We find ourselves not only "faced with" but necessarily "in the midst of" this conflict: we are all involved and we all share in it, with the inescapable responsibility of choosing to be unconditionally pro-life".

Weekly Thoughts on Giving

"Go forth from the land of your kinsfolk and from your father's house to a land that I will show you." (Gn 12:1)

God calls all of us to leave behind our old ways and to follow Him, placing our complete trust in Him. Some of the old ways that we may have to struggle to leave behind might be materialism, selfishness, and greed. Yet God promises to show us a new land and a better way to live. Remember what St. Teresa of Calcutta said, "God does not call us to be successful, God calls us to be faithful."

Easter Memorial Flowers and Lilies

The beautiful Easter lilies and spring flowers that adorn our church are a special part of the celebration of Easter at the Cathedral Basilica of St. Louis. We invite parishioners to share in the experience through a memorial or thanksgiving gift by filling out the form below. Donations toward the cost of Easter flowers in the Church may be made in memory or honor of family members and friends. This is a wonderful way to remember loved ones, honor friends, and offer thanksgiving to God for prayers answered and blessings received. The suggested donation is $10.00 per remembrance. The names of all those being remembered will be printed in the parish bulletin on Easter Sunday and the week following Easter.

Please indicate in whose memory, or in whose honor, you wish the flowers to be dedicated. Completed forms and payment may be placed in an envelope and dropped into the weekend offertory baskets, OR mailed to: Cathedral Basilica of St. Louis, c/o Memorial Lilies, 4431 Lindell Blvd, Saint Louis, MO, 63108.

Redemptive Suffering

When St. Paul writes to Timothy that he should bear his share of hardship for the gospel with the strength that comes from God, he teaches us that Christian believers will face adversity and trials throughout their life. The Gospel is great news, but it certainly challenges us to achieve spiritual perfection and growth in becoming like Jesus Christ. Christ was transfigured in the presence of three apostles to show them that He came to transform suffering during earthly life, not to eliminate it altogether. During the season of Lent, how may Christ be calling us to sacrifice for His sake and bear our burdens and sufferings as He did? For more, visit archstl.org/live-the-faith.
