FORMED

PICK OF THE WEEK

Powers and Dominions

In all of God's creation we see such splendor, beauty, mystery, and wonder. Within this creation there are beings with intellect and free will: humans and angels. This film explores the spiritual world, that very real but unseen realm: God, the human soul, angels, demons (fallen angels), spiritual warfare, the reality of demonic possession and exorcism, the dangers of the new age movement and the occult, and much more.

FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Today the liturgy presents to us the Gospel parable of the two sons sent by their father to work in his vineyard. One of them immediately agrees to go but then does not; the other instead refuses but later repents and complies with his father's wishes. With this parable Jesus reaffirms his affection for sinners who convert and teaches us that humility is necessary in order to accept the gift of salvation.

St. Paul too, in the passage from his Letter to the Philippians, urges us to be humble: "Do nothing from selfishness or vainglory", he writes, "but... let each of you... in humility count others more important than yourselves" (Phil 2: 3). These are the same sentiments as those of Christ who, emptying himself of divine glory out of love for us, became a man and humbled himself even to dying on a Cross (cf. Phil 2: 5-8). The verb used means literally that he "emptied himself" and sheds clear light on the deep humility and infinite love of Jesus, the humble Servant.

Along with Saint Louis IX, the Archdiocese has two other patrons: Saint Rose Philippine Duchesne and Saint Vincent De Paul. On Saturday we celebrated the Feast of Saint Vincent, and it important to recall his life as it has great impact for us on how we are live ours. St. Vincent de Paul said: "What a joy it is to serve the person of Christ in his poor members!". And this he did with his entire life. Here are few more of St. Vincent's maxims that we may want to think about as we seek to grow in holiness:

The poor are your masters. You are the servant.

Humility is nothing but truth, and pride is nothing but lying.

Be careful to give no credit to yourself for anything; if you do, you are stealing from God, to whom alone every good thing is due.

The most powerful weapon to conquer the devil is humility. For, as he does not know at all how to employ it, neither does he know how to defend himself from it.

Go to the poor: you will find God.

We should spend as much time in thanking God for his benefits as we do in asking him for them.

Make it a practice to judge persons and things in the most favorable light at all times and under all circumstances.

Fear not; calm will follow the storm, and perhaps soon.

Virtue is not found in extremes, but in prudence, which I recommend as strongly as I can.

There is nothing good that does not meet with opposition, and it should not be valued any less because it encounters objections

ARCHBISHOP'S COLUMN

Turn to Jesus in faith, not in fear

Jesus doesn't promise to take away suffering,
but rather He assures us of His presence

ARCHBISHOP

SERVE THE LORD
WITH GLADNESS

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

A sense of isolation, and a sense of hope — it's one of the big spiritual battles of our day. In God's providence, the readings this week — which walk through the entire book of Job — speak right into that battle.

Remember the story: Job was physically afflicted, psychologically isolated and spiritually puzzled. Finally, overwhelmed by desolation, he called God to account: "Why is this happening to me?"

Part of the beauty of the book of Job is that he wasn't only speaking for himself. He also captured a moment in Israel's history where events didn't make sense to them either.

We can find — in Job and in Israel — a poignant echo of our experience of these past 6 months. Many people share the sense of affliction, isolation, and puzzlement: What's going on? How are we supposed to handle it?

It's interesting to note that the answer Job receives from God isn't really much of an explanation: "Because I'm God, and you're not." But it's important that we understand this in the broader context of salvation history: the real answer — God's truest, deepest answer to Job's question — wasn't available yet.

But, my brothers and sisters, that answer is available to us: Jesus Christ, crucified and risen.

On the cross, Jesus doesn't offer an explanation for why suffering happens. Nor does He promise to make it all go away. What He does promise is the assurance of His presence — that He can and will be with us in our every affliction.

What He offers is like what a parent offers in the midst of a storm: they don't make the storm go away, but their presence calms us in the midst of it.

St. Therese, the Little Flower, whose feast we celebrate Oct. 1 and whose life was far from easy, compares the afflictions in our lives to the boat that was being swamped by waves while Jesus slept. For her, it was enough to know that Jesus was in the boat. She didn't feel the need to wake Him. That calm assurance is part of what makes her a great saint!

Perhaps we're not such great saints. Maybe we feel the need to go and wake the master, as the apostles did. But at least we can learn this lesson from them: let's turn to Him in faith, rather than in fear.

So, just a word of encouragement this week. It's natural for us to feel a sense of affliction, isolation, and puzzlement. The great question is what we do with them. If we look to our own strength, we will inevitably experience a rising sense of anxiety mounting toward panic. But we can turn to Jesus in faith. We can turn to Him in prayer, in reading Scripture, in receiving the sacraments. We can turn to Him by serving those in need. When we turn to Jesus in the midst of affliction, isolation and puzzlement, we will experience a rising and abiding sense of hope — a hope that nothing in the world can take away.

A Thought on The Sanctity Of Life

“Suicidal individuals—with or without a terminal illness—typically do not want to die... The patient requesting assisted suicide is often asking, ‘Does anyone want me to be alive, or care enough to talk me out of this request and support me through this difficult time?’”

*USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities
“Every Suicide is Tragic”*

Pro-Life Mass

Remember to join us at the Cathedral Basilica on the third Saturday of each month for a pro-life Mass at 8:00 a.m., followed with a rosary procession to Planned Parenthood at Boyle and Forest Park. The next Mass is scheduled for Saturday, October 17.

40 Days for Life

The Cathedral Basilica of St. Louis has adopted Sunday, October 4, from 12:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. as its part of the 40 Days for Life campaign, a campaign of prayer and fasting to end abortion and give peaceful witness to the dignity of all human life.

If you would like to participate in this invaluable ministry by signing up for a one-hour slot to quietly, peacefully pray outside of the abortion clinic, please email bryankirchoff@att.net with a preferred time.

Humility

A wise man once told me that humility is simply living in the truth, not being too prideful in our gifts but also not hiding them. In the Gospel today, Jesus shows us the importance of accepting our mistakes and choosing the right path, not remaining obstinate in our error. The Pharisees rejected John the Baptist even after they saw that people were following him because he was a righteous man. How often today do people engage in arguments just so that they can feel the “glory” of being “right?” People quibble today so often about trivial matters. Let’s reject this mentality and acknowledge our faults and mistakes and be humble in the sight of the Lord. He will lift us up and renew us (James 4:10).

Weekly Thoughts on Giving

"Do nothing out of selfishness; rather, humbly regard others as more important than yourselves..." (Phil 2:3)

Pride and ego are hard things to control. We see how others act or dress and think we are superior to them. We idolize our own self-image. But, if we truly believe everything is a gift from God, we recognize all the people that God has put into our lives as gifts! We are grateful for how they enrich our lives. Pray every day for the people in your life: your family, your friends, and those who make you angry.

For the Poor

On the first Sunday of every month, the Cathedral Parish collects foodstuffs and canned goods (non-perishable items only, please!) for delivery to food pantries in the area. Our next parish food drive will be held Sunday, October 4.

St. Patrick Casserole Program

Casseroles and other offerings collected by volunteers of the St. Patrick Casserole Program provides one week of dinners for the Women's Shelter, and one night of dinners for the Men's Alumni Club.

To promote social distancing and limit time away from home, Cathedral casserole organizers are hosting "touchless" drop-offs in the parish parking lot. Our next drop off is scheduled for Thursday, October 8, from noon until 1:00 p.m. If you are unable to make this new time, please call Skip or Nicki Batchelor at 916-834-4843 to make other arrangements.

Thank you for your continued support of this most worthy program!

St. Vincent de Paul Membership

Members of the Cathedral St. Vincent de Paul Society meet weekly. Members are committed to aiding fellow parishioners and neighbors with necessities such as food, clothing, utilities, and rent—all in the context of the Christian imperative. If interested in becoming a member or in learning more about the Society and our Conference, please leave a message on the SVDP HotLine at 314-373-8288.

You Can Help Carry the Burden

Our Parish is blessed with significant demographic diversity. While many of us live comfortably, a significant number within our Parish boundaries are not nearly so fortunate. The Poor Box, located near the main aisle in the rear of the church, is the primary source of funding for the assistance provided by the Cathedral Chapter of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul. Any help you can give is greatly appreciated.

Eyeglass Drive

"The Respectacle Project", an eyeglass recycling program, facilitates the redistribution of quality used eyeglasses to those in need both locally and abroad. Donations are typically accepted on the first Sunday of every month. Our next eyeglass drive will be held Sunday, October 4.

Infant Baptism

According to the mind of the Church, parents are obliged to see that infants are baptized within the first weeks after birth. As soon as possible after the birth, or even before it, parents should request the sacrament for their child and arrange to be properly instructed in preparation for it. If you are a registered parishioner who is or is about to become a parent or godparent, please contact the rectory at 314-373-8202 to schedule a baptism.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA)

Have you ever thought about becoming a Catholic? Do you know someone who might be interested in becoming Catholic? Are you interested in finding out more about the Catholic Church?

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (or RCIA) enables those who are interested in the Catholic faith to "find out what it is all about". Most often, people come because they are invited. Be the voice of Christ and offer the first invitation to someone you know who might be interested in the Catholic faith! RCIA is for persons who have never been baptized, were baptized in another Christian tradition, or were baptized Catholic but have never celebrated Confirmation or received First Communion.

The 2020-21 RCIA session has begun, but it's not too late to get involved! For more information or to register, contact Msgr. Breier at 314-373-8206.

Catholic Radio

Need help staying on the right path in an ever-changing world? Listening to Catholic programming on Covenant Network will help keep you focused on faith in your life.
