FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Part of the ministry of the priests of the Cathedral Basilica is to provide Pastoral Care at Barnes Hospital and Children's Hospital whenever he Catholic priest, who works at the hospital, happens to be unavailable. This past Tuesday, I received a call to visit with a family at Children's Hospital because their 13 year old son was in the process of dying after a long illness. Moments like this are absolutely heart breaking.

In talking with the mother, she shared with me that a few days ago, when her son was alert, they were able to give him a small piece of a Host. She said as soon as he received it he had the biggest smile on his face. Moments like that remind me of how precious the gift of the Holy Eucharist is to us. My heart breaks for the family, but I was deeply edified by their strong faith, which I know will help them get through such a tragedy.

I hope that you had the opportunity to visit our All Saints Chapel to view the prayer area set up for our All Souls Novena. Our response to this new program was tremendous and it is quite moving to read the prayer intentions and view the loved ones who we are remembering in prayer.

I would like to share with you a few words from our Holy Father Pope Francis that are from a recent homily: "The Church is not the Church only for good people. Do we want to describe who belongs to the Church, to this feast? The sinners. All of us sinners are invited. At this point there is a community that has diverse gifts: one has the gift of prophecy, another of ministry, one teaching We all have qualities and strengths. But each of us brings to the feast a common gift.

Each of us is called to participate fully in the feast. Christian existence cannot be understood without this participation. 'I go to the feast, but I don't go beyond the antechamber, because I want to be only with the three or four people that I am familiar with' You can't do this in the Church! You either participate fully or you remain outside. You can't pick and choose: the Church is for everyone, beginning with those I've already mentioned, the most marginalized. It is everyone's Church!"

His words remind all of us that the Church is not made up of perfect people, but is made of imperfect people. Oftentimes we might forget this and think that we have to be perfect to be a part of the church. Or we think that others must be perfect as well to be with us at the Eucharistic Celebration. He reminds us all to be careful in our judgment of others and that the Church is for everyone, beginning with those who are most marginalized.

ARCHBISHOP'S COLUMN

Proclaim to the world the beauty and generosity of the faith

ARCHBISHOP
ROZANSKI

We are called to become a living proclamation of the Gospel to the world

SERVE THE LORD WITH GLADNESS

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

I have seen for myself the beauty of the faith as it's expressed in the Cathedral Basilica of Saint Louis.

I have seen for myself the generosity of faith expressed in your response to the Annual Catholic Appeal.

I think the time has come for us to discover, together, how that same faith, beauty, and generosity — evident in so many concrete expressions throughout the Archdiocese of St. Louis — can also be expressed through evangelization.

I don't claim to have a program for that. I don't think anyone does! But it's time for us to start thinking about and imagining how we can proclaim the Gospel to the world with the same generosity and beauty with which we have done other things.

The feast of the dedication of the Lateran Basilica on Nov. 9 offers an opportunity to think about it. The readings for the day mention "the temple" 12 times — a great symbolic biblical number. And if you read the Scriptures carefully, you can see a transformation in how the temple is presented. At first the temple is a building in Jerusalem. Then Jesus speaks of the temple of his body. And finally St. Paul says: "You are God's building ... You are God's temple." It's one reality, but it finds new and deeper expressions in salvation history. In a similar way, the one reality of faith that lies behind the beauty of the cathedral basilica and the generosity of the ACA can find a new expression in evangelization.

At the beginning of Mass, the book of Gospels is processed in. But at the end of the Mass it's not processed out. Why? Because having heard the Gospel, responded to it in faith and received Jesus in the Eucharist, we are called to bring the Gospel out with us, our words and deeds becoming a living proclamation of the Gospel to the world.

When it comes to our loved ones, we look for opportunities to express our affection for them. In a similar way, we need to begin to look for opportunities to proclaim the Gospel to the world.

There's no one way to do that. The saints we celebrate this week are a good example. St. Martin of Tours lived in the 300s in France, a Roman soldier born to pagan parents. St. Leo the Great lived in the 400s in Rome, when Roman culture was falling apart and the Church was divided by fundamental confusion. St. Josaphat lived in the 1500s in the Ukraine and Poland, and was martyred in the midst of religious division. St. Frances Cabrini lived in the 1800s and early 1900s, and was a U.S. immigrant who started schools, hospitals and orphanages for other immigrants. These saints lived in different places and times, and faced different issues; they all found a way to proclaim the Gospel. They invite us and challenge us to do the same.

No single mosaic tile in the cathedral does great things on its own. It doesn't have to. But all of them together do something great, each making a contribution from its own place. Together they proclaim one great truth — the truth about Jesus Christ. Inspired by that example, may we learn to do the same in an equally beautiful way. That's a building project worthy of our time.

A Thought on The Sanctity Of Life

“We know earthly death is not the end, but rather the door through which we must pass to gain eternal life. Because of our belief and hope in the Resurrection, we can face death not with fear, but with preparation... We prepare for eternal life by choosing to love and follow God now, in our daily lives and decisions.”

Pro-Life Mass

Remember to join us at the Cathedral Basilica on the third Saturday of each month for a pro-life Mass at 8:00 a.m., followed with a rosary procession to Planned Parenthood at Boyle and Forest Park. The next Mass is scheduled for Saturday, November 21.

Mass Intentions

Specific Mass intentions for each scheduled Mass listed regularly in this bulletin are made by individual request. Every effort is made to accommodate times or dates as requested but when not possible, the intention will be kept as soon as there is an available opportunity. Requests for Mass intentions should be directed to the rectory by calling 314-373-8202.

Daily Readings for the Week...

The readings are included each week so that the parishioners who are unable to join us for daily Mass will be able to consider and pray them in union with the whole Church.

Vigilance

One of my struggles lately has been to live in the present moment and to be grateful for it with my whole heart, to embrace and cherish it as a gift from God. We constantly plan ahead for the future, which is necessary, but we often take it for granted. We never know how much time we will have on earth before God will call us home. Therefore, we must keep watch for the Lord in the present moment and live for Him. We can be like the wise virgins if we spend our time praying and cherishing moments with our friends and families. Think about how much time we waste playing video games, using social media excessively, and staring at screens. Let us re-prioritize and focus on the Lord at each moment so that we will be ready when He returns to call us home to the wedding feast of the Lamb (cf. Rev. 19:9).

Weekly Thoughts on Giving

"Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour." - Mt 25:13

Many of us have put off doing something because we think we are too busy. We've all said, "I'll do it later when I have time." Unfortunately, too many of us apply this attitude to our Faith. Jesus' call is urgent, in the here and now, in your current circumstances. Don't delay. How is God calling you to use your gifts today? None of us is guaranteed tomorrow.

Cathedral Tours

Small tours of our beautiful church are once again being offered at various times by appointment during the week (pending other events).

To book a tour, please visit our website to submit a "tour inquiry" form (<https://cathedralstl.org/tour-info>) or contact Susie at 314-373-8205.

Memorial Mass

The Memorial Mass for Steve Eckelkamp, parishioner and beloved husband of Cherie, is scheduled for Saturday, November 14, at 11:00 a.m. Steve passed away on May 3. The Memorial Mass will be livestreamed for those unable to attend in person.

"Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them."

Anima Christi Young Adults

All young adults interested in growing the fellowship of our young adult community are invited to the next young adult gathering scheduled for Thursday, November 12. We begin with Adoration and confessions in the church at 6:30 pm (enter through the west door by the playground), followed by dinner in Boland Hall at 7:30 p.m. Please join us, in full or in part, to deepen your relationship with Christ and with one another.

For additional information, please e-mail the group at AnimaChristiStL@gmail.com.

Infant Baptism

According to the mind of the Church, parents are obliged to see that infants are baptized within the first weeks after birth. As soon as possible after the birth, or even before it, parents should request the sacrament for their child and arrange to be properly instructed in preparation for it. If you are a registered parishioner who is or is about to become a parent or godparent, please contact the rectory at 314-373-8202 to schedule a baptism.

You Can Help Carry the Burden

Our Parish is blessed with significant demographic diversity. While many of us live comfortably, a significant number within our Parish boundaries are not nearly so fortunate. The Poor Box, located near the main aisle in the rear of the church, is the primary source of funding for the assistance provided by the Cathedral Chapter of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul. Any help you can give is greatly appreciated.
