WELCOME TO OUR VISITORS

Archbishop Mitchell T. Rozanski and the people of the Archdiocese of St. Louis welcome you and hope that your time in our Mother Church may be an opportunity to share our faith and joy in Jesus Christ.

Please enjoy the beauty of this building dedicated to the glory of God and built for the inspiration of all who enter.

Small public tours of the Cathedral led by volunteer guides are available by appointment, as is access to the Cathedral Gift Shop. Large public tours are not currently available, due to the difficulty of being able to adequately social distance larger groups.

All visitors who are not of the Catholic faith are welcome to join us in prayer, but not to receive Holy Communion. Reception of Holy Communion is a sign of unity of faith and full membership in the Catholic community. Together let us pray for the eventual unity of all believers.

If you desire to become a member of the Catholic Church or to become a member of the Cathedral Basilica Parish, please complete a registration card, available at the entrances the church.

All contributions to the Cathedral Basilica parish, ministries, and maintenance are sincerely appreciated.

FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Today, on the Solemnity of the Epiphany, the great light that radiates from the Cave of Bethlehem overwhelms all of mankind through the Magi from the East. In the first reading, taken from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah, the prophet sees the moment when the great light of God that seems powerless and incapable of protecting his people will rise to shine on all the earth so that the kings of nations bow before the LORD, coming from the ends of the earth to deposit their most precious treasures at his feet. And the heart of the people will tremble with joy.

Compared to this vision, the one the Evangelist Matthew presents to us appears poor and humble. It seems impossible for us to recognize in it the fulfilment of the Prophet Isaiah's words. In fact, those who arrived in Bethlehem were not the powerful and the kings of the earth, but the Magi, unknown men, perhaps regarded with suspicion and, in any case, not deemed worthy of special attention.

They had brought gold, incense and myrrh. These are certainly not gifts that correspond to basic, daily needs. At that moment, the Holy Family was in need of something very different from incense or myrrh, and not even the gold could have been of immediate use to them. But these gifts have a profound significance: they are an act of justice.

Not only did the Magi set out on their journey, but their actions started something new for they traced a new road, and a new light has come down on earth that has never faded. The light of Bethlehem continues to shine throughout the world.

Let us therefore ask him to give us a heart that is wise and innocent, that allows us to see the Star of his mercy, to proceed along his way, to find him and to be flooded with the great light and true joy that he brings to this world.

ARCHBISHOP'S COLUMN

By doing small things with faith, we let God work in us

ARCHBISHOP
ROZANSKI

Let's make a spiritual resolution for the New Year: to let the light of Christ grow in us, starting in small ways

SERVE THE LORD WITH GLADNESS

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

“The darkness is passing away, and the true light is already shining.”

This line from 1 John, which we read this week, describes the physical world in these late December days. It also sets out a spiritual challenge for us in the coming year.

Physically, the darkness of the night is growing shorter and the light of the day is already growing longer. Spiritually, having just celebrated Christmas and looking ahead to the New Year, God's word calls us to let the light of Christ grow and cast out any darkness inside of us, and then to shine through us into the darkness of the world.

This is interesting, though: Although the light is already growing, the coldest days of winter are still ahead of us. The dark days behind us have stockpiled a coldness that has a delayed effect. Correspondingly, while the light is already growing, the warmth that comes from it will be delayed as well. The results are sure; but they aren't immediate.

Let's turn to our spiritual condition: Each of us is an interplay of the light of Christ and the darkness of sin. How do we let the light of Christ grow in us?

We are — especially as the new year dawns — inclined to set an agenda, to make a list of things we should work on. There's something very good about that; there's also something entirely wrong-headed about it! When we set out to do the work ourselves, we bring the same broken tools, use the same broken methods, and produce the same broken results. What would it mean, instead, to let Jesus do the work? He is, after all, the Savior — not just a good example. That means He does the work precisely where we can't. The only catch is: we have to let Him do the work.

Here's a way to think about it. When Solomon built and dedicated the Temple in Jerusalem, God's glory came to dwell in it in a spectacular and overwhelming fashion. (See 1 Kings 8.) That temple was destroyed in the Exile. When it was rebuilt, God's glory did not come down upon it. This left the Jewish people waiting for the return of God's glory. This hope was fulfilled when Jesus was presented in the Temple as a baby. God's glory did re-enter the Temple, but in a new and surprising way — in a way that was, to human eyes, small.

He comes to the temple of our hearts in small ways, too. Don't underestimate the small! Read one chapter of Scripture a day — let the Word form your words. Take five minutes a day to talk to the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and listen to them — let that relationship be the theme of your day. When we do small things like this, we let God do the work in us. We let his light grow in us, and our darkness passes away.

The physical light is growing these days — gradually, imperceptibly, but nevertheless surely. And just as surely, the physical warmth of spring will follow.

Taking our cue from nature, we could make that our spiritual resolution for the New Year: to let the light of Christ grow in us, even if it's in small ways that are, at first, imperceptible to the outside world. If we do so, then, just as surely, the spiritual warmth will follow, both in us and through us.

A Thought on The Sanctity Of Life

“Through the Incarnation and birth of Christ, God reveals to us the dignity of all human life. Human life, as a gift of God, is sacred and inviolable. The Son of God has united himself with every human being and desires for us to share eternal life with him... Each of us is made in the image and likeness of God, and we reflect his glory in the world.”

Respect Life Memorial Mass

January 22 marks the 48th anniversary of the court decision that legalized abortion on demand throughout the entire nine months of pregnancy. On Saturday, January 16 at 10:00 a.m., all are invited to the celebration of the Annual Roe V. Wade Memorial Mass and Prayer Vigil to pray for the protection of all unborn children who are in danger of abortion; for wisdom, strength, and fortitude for their mothers and fathers; for the conversion of all those who participate in the abortion industry; and for parents, family members, and friend who have suffered as a result of an abortion experience, that they may find hope and healing.

Mass will be followed by a Rosary procession to the Planned Parenthood facility on Forest Park Ave. For more info, please contact the Archdiocesan Respect Life Apostolate at 314-792-7555.

Infant Baptism

According to the mind of the Church, parents are obliged to see that infants are baptized within the first weeks after birth. If you are a registered parishioner who is or is about to become a parent or godparent, please contact the parish office at 314-373-8202 to schedule a baptism.

Re-Gifting for Pro-Life

The Cathedral Pro-Life Ministry will be collecting two types of items this weekend to support expectant moms and babies: those new or like-new items you may have received during Christmas which can be “re-gifted” to the thrift shop at Our Lady's Inn, which can then generate revenue to support the Inn's mission, or baby supplies in original packaging, such as diapers, new bottles, and toys.

Please place donations in the drop boxes at the entrance of the church after any of the Masses.

STEWARDSHIP ALIVE!

The Gift of Music

As a parish, we are blessed in so many ways, but none quite so glorious as the music that fills our magnificent Cathedral Basilica each and every week. However, we are witness to the extraordinary talent and devotion that defines our music program even more so during the month of December. Under the direction and expertise of Dr. Horst Buchholz, Scott Kennebeck, Ben Blasingame, Burnell Hackmann, the staff of Cathedral Concerts, the combined choirs of the Cathedral and the Archdiocese, and the Archdiocesan Handbell Choir, the Cathedral Basilica was once again able to present the finest of Advent and Christmas music, inspiring and uplifting holiday spirits at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

As a parish, we express our gratitude to all who devote their time and talents to this ministry.

Weekly Thoughts on Giving

"And a voice came from the heavens, 'You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased.'" -Mk 1:11

Through our baptism, we too, are daughters and sons of God. We are disciples of Jesus. As true disciples we are called to actively participate in our Catholic faith, not just be mere bystanders. This means working in collaboration with the Holy Spirit and discerning how we are being asked to use our gifts. Using our gifts for the benefit of others and not just for our own interests and comfort.

Have You Considered Online Giving

On Line Giving is a secure and convenient web-based service to make your weekly or monthly contributions to Cathedral Parish from your computer, or lap top, or tablet. Simply access the Cathedral web site (www.cathedralstl.org) and click on the bright red DONATE button on the home page. Watch the 5 minute "Watch Help Video" and follow the easy instructions to set up your secure account and authorize your contributions to be automatically withdrawn from your bank account on the date you specify. All of information is encrypted and stored securely.

Anima Christi Young Adults

All young adults interested in growing the fellowship of our young adult community are invited to the next young adult gathering scheduled for Thursday, January 7. We begin with a Holy Hour in the church at 5:30 pm (enter through the west door by the playground), followed by Mass at 6:30 pm, and conclude with a dinner at 7:00 pm. Please join us, in full or in part, to deepen your relationship with Christ and with one another. For more information, please e-mail AnimaChristiStL@gmail.com.

The Gift That Has No Season

Over the years, it has been gifts left to the Cathedral Basilica in wills, bequests, and memorials that have largely enabled us to continue to operate as a place of worship and as a place to protect and teach our children. As we approach year end and consider the upcoming tax season, please remember the Cathedral Basilica Parish in your will or charitable giving plans. If you would like information about planned giving, please call 314-373-8231.

Mass for Social Justice

The Annual Archdiocesan Mass for Social Justice will be celebrated on Sunday, January 17, at 2:30 p.m., with Archbishop Rozanski as celebrant and homilist. For further information, please contact the St. Charles Lwanga Center at 314-367-7929.

Evangelization

The Gospel today is certainly appropriate for our reflections on evangelization. The wise men journey from the East to pay homage to the King of the World. They then return to their homeland. Evangelization follows a similar process. We must give our Lord homage and worship and journey to see Him and know Him better. Only then, after we have spent time in prayer and worship, can we share the fruits of our prayer with others. Evangelization is sharing our experience of Jesus Christ with others and guiding them into relationship of joy with Him as well. Consider how often you share the Good News of Christ with others in simple ways and in more bold ways. Would there be enough evidence in your home that you are Catholic and follow Jesus Christ?

Today, and on the first Sunday of every month, the Cathedral Parish collects foodstuffs and canned goods for delivery to local food pantries. Please place donations in the baskets near the sanctuary at the side aisles. Thank you for your generosity!

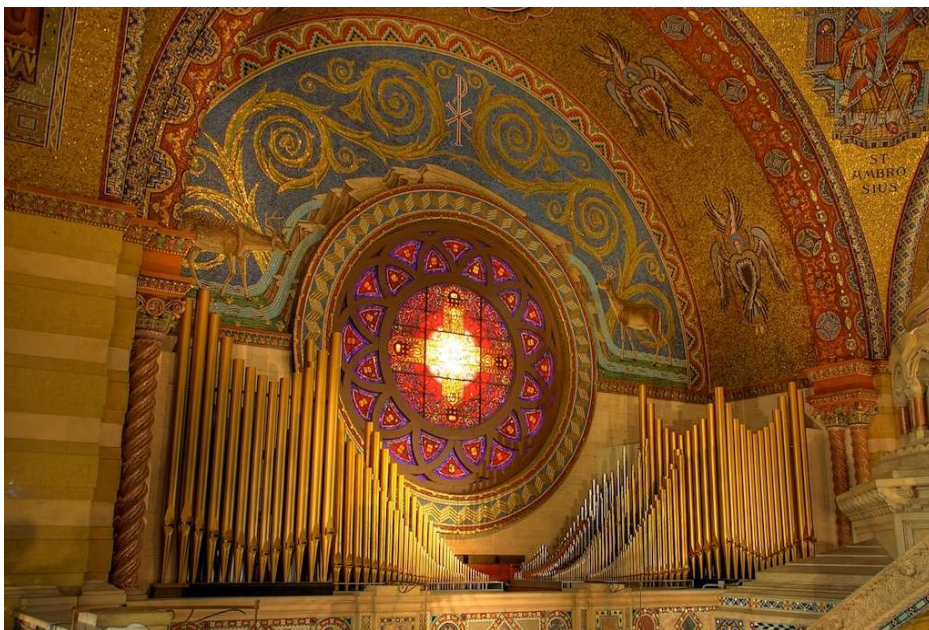

Eyeglass Drive

Today, and on the first Sunday of every month, "The Respectacle Project", an eyeglass recycling program, is accepting donations of quality used eyeglasses. Please place donations in the baskets near the sanctuary at the side aisles. Thank you!

Midweek Music Series

On the first Wednesday of each month, the Cathedral presents a "Midweek Music" organ recital. Please note a slight schedule change: our next Midweek Music is scheduled for Wednesday, January 6, at 4:00 p.m.

These recitals feature 20-30 minutes of music on our magnificent Cathedral organ. We invite you to join us online or in-person. Please note that the wearing of masks and other social distancing guidelines remain in effect for in-person attendance.

Christmas Memorial Poinsettias

May the beauty of these Memorial Poinsettias lift up our prayers this Christmas season as we acknowledge the gratitude we feel for loved ones, friends, and those whose lives are a particular blessing to us,
both living and deceased.
