WELCOME TO OUR VISITORS

Archbishop Mitchell T. Rozanski and the people of the Archdiocese of St. Louis welcome you and hope that your time in our Mother Church may be an opportunity to share our faith and joy in Jesus Christ.

Please enjoy the beauty of this building dedicated to the glory of God and built for the inspiration of all who enter.

Small public tours of the Cathedral led by volunteer guides are available by appointment, as is access to the Cathedral Gift Shop. Large public tours are not currently available, due to the difficulty of being able to adequately social distance larger groups.

All visitors who are not of the Catholic faith are welcome to join us in prayer, but not to receive Holy Communion. Reception of Holy Communion is a sign of unity of faith and full membership in the Catholic community. Together let us pray for the eventual unity of all believers.

If you desire to become a member of the Catholic Church or to become a member of the Cathedral Basilica Parish, please complete a registration card, available at the entrances the church.

All contributions to the Cathedral Basilica parish, ministries, and maintenance are sincerely appreciated.

FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

This past week we hosted the funeral for Officer Rashard Lovelace of the St. Louis Metropolitan Police Department. Rashard died too young at the age of 31. He is survived by his wife of 2 years and three very young children, and a large extended family. I would kindly ask you to remember him and his family in your prayers as they endure this great loss.

In scripture, as Jesus was about to die, he speaks to Mary and his beloved disciple John: "Woman, behold your son." Then he says to John, "Behold your Mother." And from that hour the disciple took her into his home. (John 19:26-27). St. John takes Mary into his home, or into his care, as some translations put it, and from this time Jesus gives Mary to us as our mother and us to her as her children.

Mary is a great model and example for us and especially for parents who are watched by their children as their behavior is observed. Certainly, through her "yes" to the angel consenting God's plan, Mary is a great model of faith and trust in God. She believed and allowed God to work through her to change the course of human history. Mary said "yes" to the unknown and opened her very being to God's work in her life.

This was a life not free of pain and sorrow, as the seven sorrows of Mary attest. Woman of faith and courage that she was, she was able to face and persevere through these trials. Fr. Bertran Buby, SM, refers to Mary's "listening heart" in his writings. This is a great description of Mary's openness to God and how she reflected on the challenges of life in the context of discerning God's will.

So often in our lives, we feel the need to respond and react immediately without following the model Mary has given us through her "listening heart." All we have to do is take a look at various social media postings that display negative and destructive use of language, and we see us at our worst.

As we continue through the month of May and celebrate and honor Mary and her role in our faith history, we can also take time to reflect on how she is a model for us. Mary gives us a great example and witness of how to reflect upon and act on the movement of God in our lives

ARCHBISHOP'S COLUMN

The Holy Spirit is like an internal compass that orients us to God's grace

ARCHBISHOP

SERVE THE LORD
WITH GLADNESS

When we navigate by the invisible but real grace of the Holy Spirit, we become most truly ourselves in Christ

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

“We have never even heard that there is a Holy Spirit.”

This is what the disciples in Ephesus told St. Paul, when he asked them whether they had received the Holy Spirit. They believed in Jesus, but they only knew the baptism of John. Something important was missing in their lives!

I sometimes wonder if that describes a lot of us — not in terms of what we believe, but in terms of how we act. Do we conduct our daily lives as though “we have never even heard that there is a Holy Spirit”?

All week long, as we prepare for Pentecost, we hear the “farewell discourse” of Jesus. During His earthly life, the disciples navigated their daily lives by the external, physical presence of Jesus. At the Ascension, He will stop being present to them that way. When He sends the Holy Spirit, they’ll have to learn to navigate their daily lives by the internal, invisible presence of the Spirit.

That’s true for us as well. And it’s worth pondering how that internal navigation works.

Most of us have become so used to navigating by the GPS on our phones and in our cars that we’ve forgotten what it means to navigate by a compass — to have an instrument that, through an invisible but real force, can point us to true north. Navigating by a compass is very like what happens when we navigate our daily lives by the invisible but real grace of the Holy Spirit.

This is where our knowledge of the gifts and fruits of the Spirit becomes really important. The gifts and fruits are not just an abstract list to memorize — a hoop to jump through on the way to Confirmation. We memorize them because they’re meant to be a diagnostic and navigational tool, an internal compass that orients our daily lives according to God’s invisible grace.

Think of the works of the flesh that are listed by St. Paul in Galatians 5:19-21: “immorality, impurity, licentiousness, idolatry, sorcery, hatreds, rivalry, jealousy, outbursts of fury, acts of selfishness, dissensions, factions, occasions of envy, drinking bouts, orgies, and the like.” Just on a human level, those are a good navigational and diagnostic tool. If our life is characterized by these, we’re off course.

The fruits of the Holy Spirit, which he lists next (Galatians 5:22-23), are also a good diagnostic and navigational tool: “love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control.” When we learn to orient our lives by these fruits, we’re stepping beyond simple human wisdom. We’re beginning to navigate by the invisible and interior grace of the Holy Spirit. We can — and we need to — do that more deliberately.

St. Cyril of Jerusalem says that the Holy Spirit’s work in each person is like the work of water in different plants: it helps each to become itself more fully and beautifully. When we learn to navigate our daily lives by the invisible but real grace of the Holy Spirit, we become most truly ourselves in Christ, fulfill God’s designs for our lives, and enrich the lives of others. If, instead, we conduct our daily lives as though “we have never even heard that there is a Holy Spirit” we’re left to navigate by our own powers — which always has, and always will, make a mess of things.

Come, Holy Spirit!

A Thought on The Sanctity Of Life

“Everyone is in need of reassurance, and if we, who have touched ‘the Word of life’ (1 Jn 1:1) do not give it, who will? How beautiful it is to be Christians who offer consolation, who bear the burdens of others and who offer encouragement: messengers of life in a time of death!”

The Ascension Evangelization

All of the Christian faithful, by virtue of their Baptism, are called by God to spread the Good News. Evangelization is not some exclusive mission that God has entrusted to a select few. Today we celebrate Christ's Ascension to the right hand of the Father; Christ has made captive our captivity (Ephesians 4:8). He calls us to walk in the freedom of the children of God, who joyfully announce to others the salvation He has won for us. Evangelization does not have to entail mission trips to foreign lands. It starts within our own minds and hearts. We can seek to learn more about our Catholic Faith and seek opportunities for catechesis and instruction. We can pray for guidance from the Holy Spirit each day. We can share the beautiful encounter we have had with the Lord with others through simple acts of charity and kindness. God is with us always!

Visit archstl.org/dynamic for more info.

The First Real Novena

The days between Ascension Thursday and Pentecost Sunday form the original novena in the life of the Church. The Scriptures state: “the apostles and the Lord’s own Mother with them” (Acts 1:14) waited in prayer and vigil for the promised gift of the Holy Spirit. In the liturgical calendar of the Church the days between Ascension and Pentecost are a time of special prayer for the gifts of the Spirit. The Gospel begins with the description of the Holy Spirit overshadowing Mary and so she conceives Christ Himself within her very flesh. Jesus begins His public ministry when at His baptism the Holy Spirit descends upon Him. On the first Easter Jesus breathes on His apostles, empowering them to do what only God can do: forgive sin. And the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles at Pentecost inaugurates the Church and our God-given mission: everyone has a personal vocation from God. All are encouraged to attend daily Mass from the traditional date of the feast of the Ascension (May 13, 2021) until the feast of Pentecost (May 23, 2021).

Infant Baptism

According to the mind of the Church, parents are obliged to see that infants are baptized within the first weeks after birth. As soon as possible after the birth, or even before it, parents should request the sacrament for their child and are to be properly instructed in preparation for it. Godparents are also encouraged to attend baptismal preparation before the child is born. If you are a registered parishioner who is or is about to become a parent or godparent, contact Laura Voegelie at 314-373-8202 to schedule a baptism or to register for baptismal preparation class.

You Can Help Carry the Burden

Our Parish is blessed with significant demographic diversity. While many of us live comfortably, a significant number within our Parish boundaries are not nearly so fortunate. The Poor Box, located near the main aisle in the rear of the church, is the primary source of funding for the assistance provided by the Cathedral Chapter of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul. Any help you can give is greatly appreciated.

Catholic Communications Campaign

The special collection for the 2021 Catholic Communications Campaign is this weekend, May 15-16, and coincides with World Communications Day. Half of all proceeds from this collection stays right here in our home diocese, providing much-needed support for the archdiocesan Office of Communications and Planning. The Office of Communications and Planning is made up of industry professionals offering a wide array of services to the various offices, ministries, parishes and schools of the archdiocese, helping our Church tell the stories of our vibrant faith communities--and of the dedicated individuals who shepherd and serve us.

Help the Office of Communications evolve and keep sharing the “good news” in the constantly changing digital world. Thank you in advance for your generosity to the Catholic Communications Campaign. You can give by using the envelopes in your monthly packet or online at archstl.org/CCC, where you can see examples of the work the Communications office has done.

May is Mary’s Month

In a longstanding tradition of the Church, May has been a time for attention to our devotion to Mary, our Blessed Mother. Because of Jesus' words from the Cross, "Son, behold your Mother," we know that it is His intention that we learn faith from the mind, heart, and hands of Mary. You are encouraged to look at the example, intercession, and encouragement Mary offers us in living for Christ. Especially this month, praying the rosary is a particularly appropriate daily devotion.

Early Alert for the Holiday

On Monday, May 31, our nation honors all men and women who have given their lives in the defense of our national freedoms. It seems appropriate for Catholics to remember these men and women by joining together in the celebration of the Lord, “who laid down His life that we may be free from sin & death.”

Join us for Mass at 8:00 a.m. on Memorial Day.

Eucharistic Exposition

The Blessed Sacrament, the very presence of Christ's body and blood in the Eucharist, is reserved in the tabernacle of the Blessed Sacrament Chapel to the east of the main sanctuary. At all hours the Cathedral is open, people may be found praying there before the Lord "face to face." Each Saturday afternoon, beginning at 3:30 p.m., the Eucharist is displayed for prayer and adoration in public exposition in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel for a holy hour. Following this holy hour, the Evening Prayer of the Church with Benediction is celebrated.

Additionally, the Blessed Sacrament is displayed for public adoration and prayer on the First Friday of the month. First Friday Adoration begins at approximately 8:30 a.m., following the completion of the 8:00 a.m. Mass, and concludes with Benediction at 11:45 a.m. Our next First Friday Adoration will be held Friday, June 4.

Weekly Thoughts on Giving

"Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God." – 1 Jn 4:15

How strong is your faith? When you have an opportunity to either defend or clarify a question about our Catholic faith, do you do it? Or, do you remain silent so that others don't think you are weird? Pray for the courage to be strong in all circumstances and to joyfully share your witness with others.

Hearing His Call

Every baptized person has a call directly from the Lord to His service. Our discipleship is a vocation to holiness and service of the Lord. Some of the baptized receive another call, one to the specific vocation of ordained priesthood or vowed religious life. Their response to that vocational invitation requires generosity and a life long commitment. Many young people are stepping forward to respond positively to that invitation; and many more are needed. For all of them, the support of family, friends, and fellow Catholics is needed. Prayer in support of young people's vocational response is an integral and necessary component of the daily regimen of prayer for each and every Catholic, a major part of discipleship for all.

Please pray our young people hear their call!
