WELCOME TO OUR VISITORS

Archbishop Mitchell T. Rozanski and the people of the Archdiocese of St. Louis welcome you and hope that your time in our Mother Church may be an opportunity to share our faith and joy in Jesus Christ.

Please enjoy the beauty of this building dedicated to the glory of God and built for the inspiration of all who enter.

Small public tours of the Cathedral led by volunteer guides are available by appointment, as is access to the Cathedral Gift Shop. Large public tours are not currently available, due to the difficulty of being able to adequately social distance larger groups.

All visitors who are not of the Catholic faith are welcome to join us in prayer, but not to receive Holy Communion. Reception of Holy Communion is a sign of unity of faith and full membership in the Catholic community. Together let us pray for the eventual unity of all believers.

If you desire to become a member of the Catholic Church or to become a member of the Cathedral Basilica Parish, please complete a registration card, available at the entrances the church.

All contributions to the Cathedral Basilica parish, ministries, and maintenance are sincerely appreciated.

FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Next Friday, May 28, I will celebrate my 27th anniversary of Ordination to the Priesthood. It is hard to believe that the years have passed and seemingly so quickly. There are so many happy memories to recall during these years, and so many people that I have encountered. Many of those wonderful memories have been at the Cathedral Basilica Parish. My deep gratitude to you all for welcoming me, and providing me with so many memories.

Fra Angelico, the famous Dominican artist, is buried in the Church of Santa Maria Sopra Minerva in Rome. On his tomb, the following phrase, a hallmark of the saintly painter's life, is inscribed: Chi fa cose di Cristo, con Cristo deve stare sempre, which is translated, "He who does the things of Christ must remain with Christ always." I recall these words because, in the celebration of Mass, no one is "doing the things of Christ" more than we priests. It follows that we must "remain with Christ always", particularly through prayer and adoration where he is present, body and blood, soul and divinity, in the Sacrament of the Altar. These words are inspiring and also very challenging to me.

I also call them to mind as the Archbishop will ordain six men to the Order of Priesthood on the 29th of May. The Ordination will be a joyful moment for the Archdiocese of St. Louis and all are welcome to attend. Make sure you arrive early to the Cathedral as we are expecting a larger than normal gathering.

The Spirit descends again on today's Christians so that they may witness to the love of God for all. In the Letter to the Galatians, the apostle Paul exhorts the believers to walk by the Spirit, whose fruits are a blessing for the world: "By contrast, the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control" (Gal 5:22). The entire world needs fruit like this. Pentecost is the beginning of the Church, but also the beginning of a new world.

Early Alert for the Holiday

On Monday, May 31, our nation honors all men and women who have given their lives in the defense of our national freedoms. It seems appropriate for Catholics to remember these men and women by joining together in the celebration of the Lord, "who laid down His life that we may be free from sin & death." Please join us for Mass at 8:00 a.m. on Memorial Day.

ARCHBISHOP'S COLUMN

In which legacy were you born?

Eve, Mary can live in all of us, in different ways

ARCHBISHOP

SERVE THE LORD
WITH GLADNESS

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

“One and all were born in her.”

This quote from Psalm 87 originally refers to Jerusalem. Psalm 87 was especially dear to exiles and pilgrims. It expressed their deepest sense of themselves, and their hope for their children: to identify Jerusalem — the place where God dwells — as their home.

In St. Louis people ask: “Where did you go to school?” In ancient Judaism they asked: “Where were you born?” If you couldn’t be born in Jerusalem physically, at least it could be your spiritual home.

This Psalm and this sentiment are used this week in conjunction with the feast of Mary, Mother of the Church. This feast, instituted just a few years ago, is celebrated the day after Pentecost. The readings for the day help us to focus on Eve as “the mother of all the living,” and then on Mary as the mother of all those living in Christ.

It’s worth reflecting on the legacy of those two mothers: how each of us was born in Eve and the legacy of sin, and how each of us can be born in Mary and the legacy of grace. The question is: which of those legacies do we want to claim?

The legacy of Eve lives in all of us. We can truly say: “One and all were born in her.” This legacy is receptive to the suggestions of the enemy of human nature, who encourages us to be like God but apart from God. Looking around our culture we see many habits that are rooted in this legacy; people “play God” in all sorts of ways. When we do that, we claim Eve as our mother: “I was born in her.”

The legacy of Mary can live in us, as well. This legacy, by contrast, is receptive to the Holy Spirit, through whom God’s very life comes to dwell in us. That’s the paradox of the enemy’s temptation. There’s a kernel of truth in it: we’re meant to be like God! But we’re meant to be like God with God, and through God’s power, not apart from God. What Eve reached out to take for herself Mary received as a gift.

Looking around, we see people whose habits are rooted in this legacy. Mary carried the love of God in her womb, and brought Him forth for our salvation. Some people carry the love of God and the truth of the Gospel in their hearts, and bring them forth in their words and deeds for the benefit of others. When we do that, we claim Mary as our mother: “I was born in her.”

Looking back on the week behind us, where would we say we were born: in the legacy of Eve, or in the legacy of Mary? Looking to the week ahead, where do we want to be born?

Mary, mother of the Church, pray for us!

Requiescat in Pace

Please pray for the repose of the soul of parishioner Tom Jeffrey, beloved husband of Suzanne, who passed away this past Tuesday following a prolonged battle with cancer. Together, Tom and Suzanne have been the faces of welcome and hospitality for the Cathedral for many years, serving as Sunday and special event ushers, assisting with Parish Coffee and Donuts, and lending helping hands at most parish events and gatherings.

Arrangements for Tom's funeral are pending.

"Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them."

Glennon Sunday

SSM Health Cardinal Glennon Children's Hospital is the only free-standing Catholic pediatric hospital in the country. When SSM Health Cardinal Glennon opened its doors in 1956, a promise was made to the community that any child in need of care would be welcomed, whether their parents could afford to pay for care or not. That promise still holds true today. Many of you will remember the story of John Smith, a young man who fell through the ice of a frozen lake and was without a pulse for nearly an hour. His odds-defying recovery is the subject of the new movie, Breakthrough. Please help make miracles like John's possible by making a donation at Mass during Glennon Sunday weekend, June 1-2, or online at glennon.org. May God bless you for providing hope & healing to every child who walks through the doors at SSM Health Cardinal Glennon.

Daily Readings for the Week...

The readings are included each week so that the parishioners who are unable to join us for daily Mass will be able to consider and pray them in union with the whole Church.

Readings for the Week May 23, 2021 through May 30, 2021

Pro-Life Mass

Remember to join us at the Cathedral Basilica on the third Saturday of each month for a pro-life Mass at 8:00 a.m., followed with a rosary procession to Planned Parenthood at Boyle and Forest Park. The next Mass is scheduled for Saturday, June 19.

A Thought on The Sanctity Of Life

"The Lord says to us, 'Do not fear: I am with you' (Isaiah 41:10). He speaks these words not as one who merely observes our pain, but as one who experienced immense suffering. And the very wounds that bear witness to his suffering indicate the essence of our identity and worth: we are loved by God. Reflecting on the healed wounds of the Risen Christ, we see that even our most difficult trials can be the place where God manifests his victory. He makes all things beautiful. He makes all things new."

Pentecost - Gifts of the Holy Spirit

What an extraordinary event the first Pentecost was! Fortunately, it continues today as we experience the continued action of the Holy Spirit in prayer and the moments of daily life. We often refer to Pentecost as the birthday of the Church because it is the first moment when the Apostles formed a community of believers and, led by the Holy Spirit, began to invite others to become followers of Jesus Christ. How often we forget the power of the Sacrament of Confirmation that we have received. The Lord sends the gifts of the Holy Spirit into our hearts, giving us wisdom, knowledge, understanding, counsel, fortitude, piety, and fear of the Lord. These gifts are necessary for our salvation as they strengthen our virtues and facilitate our cooperation with the grace of God in our lives amid the trials we face daily. Saint John Paul II prayed daily for a greater outpouring of the gifts of the Holy Spirit.

Visit archstl.org/dynamic for more info.

The Pentecost Sacrament

The Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation is not just a pre-Easter or Lenten preparation but a form of communion with the Risen Lord as the source of all mercy, life and Spirit. Through Pentecost and the Holy Trinity, we should come to the realization that Christ desires to breathe out his Spirit of holiness and life on us even now, since the gift of the Holy Spirit is the consequence of Christ's victory over sin and death.

To that end, confession is offered daily at 7:30 a.m., Monday through Friday, as well as on the weekend. A detailed schedule of all confession times can be found on the cover of this bulletin.

You Can Help Carry the Burden

Our Parish is blessed with significant demographic diversity. While many of us live comfortably, a significant number within our Parish boundaries are not nearly so fortunate. The Poor Box, located near the main aisle in the rear of the church, is the primary source of funding for the assistance provided by the Cathedral Chapter of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul. Any help you can give is greatly appreciated.

For the Poor

On the first Sunday of every month, the Cathedral Parish collects foodstuffs and canned goods (non-perishable items only, please!) for delivery to food pantries in the area. Our next parish food drive will be held Sunday, June 6.

Eyeglass Drive

"The Respectacle Project", an eyeglass recycling program, facilitates the redistribution of quality used eyeglasses to those in need both locally and abroad. Donations are typically accepted on the first Sunday of every month. Our next eyeglass drive will be held Sunday, June 6.

Infant Baptism

According to the mind of the Church, parents are obliged to see that infants are baptized within the first weeks after birth. If you are a registered parishioner who is or is about to become a parent, please contact the rectory at 314-373-8202 to schedule your infant's baptism and arrange for your own instruction in preparation for the sacrament.

Eucharistic Exposition

The Blessed Sacrament, the very presence of Christ's body and blood in the Eucharist, is reserved in the tabernacle of the Blessed Sacrament Chapel to the east of the main sanctuary. At all hours the Cathedral is open, people may be found praying there before the Lord "face to face." Each Saturday afternoon, beginning at 3:30 p.m., the Eucharist is displayed for prayer and adoration in public exposition in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel for a holy hour. Following this holy hour, the Evening Prayer of the Church with Benediction is celebrated.

Additionally, the Blessed Sacrament is displayed for public adoration and prayer on the First Friday of the month. First Friday Adoration begins at approximately 8:30 a.m., following the completion of the 8:00 a.m. Mass, and concludes with Benediction at 11:45 a.m. Our next First Friday Adoration will be held Friday, June 4.

STEWARDSHIP ALIVE!

Sacrament of Baptism

Congratulations to our recently baptized parishioner, Oscar Luis, son of Luis and Shari, who was baptized in Christ on May 9 here at the Cathedral Basilica.

May the blessing of the Lord be always upon Oscar, and may God watch over & cherish all children whom God has blessed with the grace of Baptism.

Anima Christi Young Adults

All young adults interested in growing the fellowship of our young adult community are invited to the next young adult gathering scheduled for Thursday, May 27. We begin with Adoration and confessions in the church at 6:30 pm (enter through the west door by the playground), followed by dinner in Boland Hall at 7:30 p.m. Please join us, in full or in part, to deepen your relationship with Christ and with one another. For additional information, please e-mail the group at AnimaChristiStL@gmail.com.

Cathedral Tours

Small tours of our beautiful church are once again being offered at various times by appointment during the week (pending other events). To book a tour, please visit our website to submit a "tour inquiry" form (<https://cathedralstl.org/tour-info>) or contact Susie Irons at 314-373-8205.

Men of the Cathedral

It is with joy that the Men of the Cathedral will resume Adoration on Tuesday, May 25, 2021.

Due to Covid 19 restrictions, Adoration will be moved from the Blessed Sacrament Chapel to the main nave of the Cathedral and social distancing practices will be followed. Adoration will begin at 6:00 PM and last one hour. Dinner will be served in Boland Hall immediately after Adoration. An offering of $20 is suggested. Please RSVP to Michael Weisbrod at michael.weisbrod@rcfstl.org or call 314-918-2893.

We look forward to welcoming you back and encourage you to invite your friends and family.

Weekly Thoughts on Giving

"There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone." – 1 Cor 12:4-6

All of us are blessed, regardless of our own individual circumstances. God has given each of us many gifts. How we use those gifts is our gift back to God. For God's plan to work, each must do what we are called to do. Guess what? We are not all called to do the same thing! For God's plan to work, you have to do what God is calling you to do and I have to do what God is calling me to do.

Hearing His Call

Every baptized person has a call directly from the Lord to His service. Our discipleship is a vocation to holiness and service of the Lord. Some of the baptized receive another call, one to the specific vocation of ordained priesthood or vowed religious life. Their response to that vocational invitation requires generosity and a life long commitment. Many young people are stepping forward to respond positively to that invitation; and many more are needed. For all of them, the support of family, friends, and fellow Catholics is needed. Prayer in support of young people's vocational response is an integral and necessary component of the daily regimen of prayer for each and every Catholic, a major part of discipleship for all.

Please pray our young people hear their call!

TRUE REFORMERS: EPISODE 3 ST. PHILIP NERI

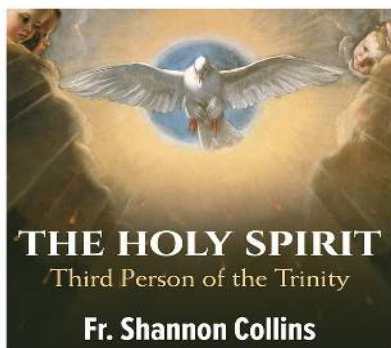

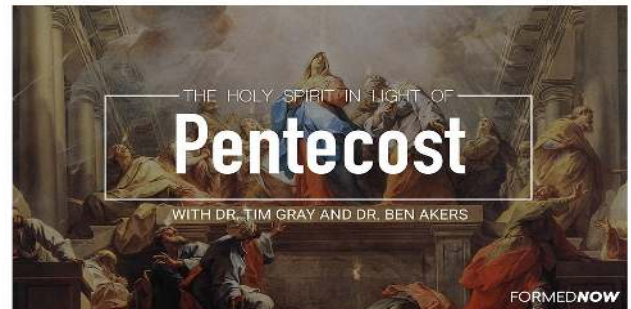

This week we celebrate St. Philip Neri, the Apostle of Rome. To a Rome ravaged by war and wearied by the decadence of the Renaissance popes, St. Philip Neri came as an unlikely reformer. Mystic, hermit, prankster, and effortless leader of men, Neri had a great sense of humor and an even greater heart.

FORMED NOW: THE HOLY SPIRIT IN LIGHT OF PENTECOST

This week we celebrate the Solemnity of Pentecost, often referred to as the birthday of the Church. Join Dr. Tim Gray and Dr. Ben Akers as they discuss Christ's sending of the Holy Spirit in this monumental event. After watching, you'll recognize the meaning of Pentecost for our lives today.

THE HOLY SPIRIT: THIRD PERSON OF THE TRINITY BY FR. SHANNON

In this captivating presentation, Fr. Shannon Collins discusses the essential character of the Holy Spirit and his role in salvation history. Drawing upon Scripture and Tradition, Fr. Collins explains the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit and how he works in the lives of believers and how this "sweet guest of our soul" seeks to bring us closer to divine life.
