WELCOME TO OUR VISITORS

Archbishop Mitchell T. Rozanski and the people of the Archdiocese of St. Louis welcome you and hope that your time in our Mother Church may be an opportunity to share our faith and joy in Jesus Christ.

Please enjoy the beauty of this building dedicated to the glory of God and built for the inspiration of all who enter. Public tours of the Cathedral led by volunteer guides are available by appointment, as is access to the Cathedral Gift Shop.

All visitors who are not of the Catholic faith are welcome to join us in prayer, but not to receive Holy Communion. Reception of Holy Communion is a sign of unity of faith and full membership in the Catholic community. Together let us pray for the eventual unity of all believers.

If you desire to become a member of the Catholic Church or to become a member of the Cathedral Basilica Parish, please complete a registration card, available at the entrances the church.

All contributions to the Cathedral Basilica parish, ministries, and maintenance are sincerely appreciated.

FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

One of our parishioners, Richelle Weisbrod, passed away this past week after a long battle with cancer and she is survived by her devoted husband, Michael. They are both long-time parishioners and involved in the life of the parish. They are always ready to assist, whether on Parish Council, helping to prepare a parish dinner, or bringing communion to the homebound. There will be a Funeral Mass on Saturday, July 17, at 10:00 am in the Cathedral Basilica. I would kindly ask you to please keep Michael and their daughter in your prayers as they mourn this difficult loss.

Fortunately, the pandemic situation continues to improve. Accordingly, as of July 1, Archbishop Mitchell Rozanski is lifting the dispensation from the obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and Holydays of Obligation. Parishioners who are sick, homebound, immuno-compromised and gravely concerned for their health are dispensed from the obligation to attend Mass, which has always been the case in normal times. The Archbishop's video message about the "return to Mass" may be viewed on the Archdiocesan website: www.archstl.org.

Divine Law, given through the Ten Commandments, obliges us to keep holy the Sabbath. Sunday, of course, is the Christian Sabbath, commemorating the Resurrection of Jesus from the dead at Easter. The Mass is the perfect act of worship, given to us by Christ Himself at the Last Supper as the perpetual memorial of his loving sacrifice on the cross on our behalf. It is "the source and summit of the Christian life" (Catholic Catechism, #1324). Our parish community - the Mystical Body of Christ, the Church - gathers together each week to celebrate our communion with Christ and each other. As the sacred author of the Epistle to the Hebrews wrote: "We should not stay away from the assembly." (Heb 10:25) The Catholic Catechism points out how essential the Eucharist is to our personal relationship with Christ. "The more we share the life of Christ and progress in His friendship, the more difficult it is to break away from Him by mortal sin." (#1395)

As part of our welcoming back parishioners, the Parish Council is sponsoring Donut Sunday this Sunday, June 20, following the 8:00 am and 10:00 am Masses. Donuts will be served outside Boland Hall, with plenty of room for everyone to feel comfortable with social distancing. Many thanks to our Parish Council for sponsoring this event.

ARCHBISHOP'S COLUMN

Your gifts are given to you for service to the world

John the Baptist used his rare gift to bring people to the Lord

ARCHBISHOP

SERVE THE LORD
WITH GLADNESS

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

We celebrate a remarkable feast this week: the nativity of St. John the Baptist.

The Church only celebrates three births in her liturgical calendar: the birth of Jesus (Dec. 25), the birth of Mary (Sept. 8), and the birth of John the Baptist (June 24). Why?

We celebrate the birth of Jesus because He was God incarnate. We celebrate the birth of Mary because she was conceived without sin. We celebrate the birth of John because he was sanctified in the womb by the Holy Spirit. (See Luke 1:15: “He will be filled with the Holy Spirit, even from his mother’s womb.”) We celebrate them because all three were born without sin, and that is a rare grace.

We can see that natural talents are distributed unevenly in the world. God’s graces are distributed unevenly as well. John the Baptist received a special grace. So did Abraham, David, Jeremiah and many others throughout salvation history. The election of Israel as God’s chosen people is a case in point. God gives gifts to some people that He does not give to others. That raises a natural question: “How is that fair?”

On one level the answer is: it isn’t, if by “fair” you mean “everyone gets the same thing.”

But if you think about salvation history, there’s a deeper and better answer: those gifts are not given for the individual, but for service to the world.

All through salvation history God gives gifts to the world through individuals — not to the individual for the individual, but to the world through the individual. God didn’t just give a rare gift to John the Baptist for John’s glorification. In giving him a gift, He also asked him to perform a service. John was to “turn many of the children of Israel to the Lord” and to “prepare a people fit for the Lord” (Luke 1:16-17). What really would have been unfair was for John to hide his gift, fail to develop it or fail to use it in service to the world.

If we ponder some of the approaches people take to the unequal distribution of gifts — both natural talents and supernatural graces — we can see that it’s easy to get the issue wrong and hard to get it right.

One approach is to fail to develop the gifts because that would highlight their inequality. But that approach — highlighted in C.S. Lewis’ essay “Screwtape Proposes a Toast” — also deprives the world of the service that’s meant to come from the gifts.

Another approach is to put the gifts to use but for our own glorification. We see this in some athletes and actors whose attitude can be described as: “look at me!” It was a temptation for Israel in the Old Testament to see their election this way.

The best response is to recognize the gifts, develop them and put them to use for the good of others. We see this in sports when we see a good team player. It’s what we see in the saints as well.

John the Baptist received a rare privilege. He didn’t spend any time and energy bemoaning the unfairness of it. Instead, he spent all his time and energy putting it to work, serving others. We should follow his example.

Requiescat in Pace

Please pray for the repose of the soul of parishioner Richelle Weisbrod, beloved wife of Michael, who passed away last weekend following a prolonged battle with cancer.

The Weisbrod's are well-recognized at the parish, especially at the 8 am Mass: Richelle having served as a lector for many years at that Mass, and both Richelle & Michael serving as Eucharistic Ministers. Michael continues to serve the parish as coordinator for both the Ministry of Care for the Homebound and the Men of the Cathedral, as well as serving on the Parish Finance Committee and the Parish Council.

Richelle's Funeral Mass will be held at 10:00 am on Saturday, July 17, here at the Cathedral Basilica.

"Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them."

Father's Day Blessing

"God is the giver of all life human and divine. May He bless the fathers in our midst. They, with their wives, are the first teachers of their children in the ways of faith. May they also be the best of teachers bearing witness to the faith by what they say and do in Christ Jesus our Lord." With those words the Church blesses the new fathers of children during the baptism ceremony. But we echo those words today as we extend a blessing and our promise of prayer for all those who are fathers and who teach us in so many ways what God must be like. May God, the Father of all, bless you!

Daily Readings for the Week...

The readings are included each week so that the parishioners who are unable to join us for daily Mass will be able to consider and pray them in union with the whole Church.

Pro-Life Mass

Remember to join us at the Cathedral Basilica on the third Saturday of each month for a pro-life Mass at 8:00 a.m., followed with a rosary procession to Planned Parenthood at Boyle and Forest Park. The next Mass is scheduled for Saturday, July 17.

A Thought on The Sanctity Of Life

"Through our prayers and through the intercession of St. Joseph, patron of fathers, may fathers come to know the irreplaceable role they hold in the lives of their children, and the responsibility they share in welcoming God's gift of new life!

*Most Reverend Shelton J. Fabre
Bishop of Houma-Thibodaux
"Fathers' Irreplaceable Role in Welcoming Life"*

Special Blessing

On Tuesday, June 29, the Church celebrates the solemn Feast of Saints Peter and Paul, and is one of a few days on which the special privilege of plenary indulgence may be gained by those who join in Mass in a Basilica. Accordingly, a plenary indulgence is gained by joining us at one of the regularly scheduled Masses on this feast day along with fulfilling the usual conditions (sacramental confession, communion, and prayer for the intention of the Holy Father).

Sacred Heart Month

June has traditionally been the month devoted to a special attention to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Every Cathedral household is encouraged to develop a familial devotion to the Sacred Heart. This is a significant effort to instill in each member of the parish a new or deeper devotion to the "love of the Son of God" who has embraced His cross for our salvation.

Catholic Radio

"Summer time, when the livin' is easy." The schedule may look different, but the goal remains the same. Stay connected to the faith nourishing programming that Covenant Network provides daily and throughout the night by tuning into AM 1460 or 92.7 FM. Or listen on the Covenant Network app on your mobile device or on our website OurCatholicRadio.org.

Early Alert for National Holiday

On Sunday, July 4, our nation celebrates its birthday and marks the anniversary of the Declaration of Independence. We celebrate the political and social heritage which we have received from our founding fathers. At the heart of their expression of political independence from the colonial overlords from Europe was the acknowledgement that "unalienable rights to life and liberty" are the endowment we receive from our Creator, and not from any worldly power. We Catholics express our continued gratefulness to the Creator, whom we know as our heavenly Father, through the supreme expression of thanksgiving which is the Eucharist. Certainly then, Holy Mass on the holiday is the best "celebration" of our independence from this world's power and our dependence on God.

Because July 4th falls on Sunday this year, please join us on Monday, July 5, for a special Mass at 8:00 am to commemorate the national holiday. This will be the only Mass celebrated here at the Cathedral on July 5.

A Lasting Gift

Looking for a special gift to memorialize a loved one, or celebrate a birth or wedding? Consider a commemorative brick in the Cathedral Basilica Jubilee Prayer Garden! Contact the parish office at 314-373-8202 for more information.

Midweek Music Series

On the first Wednesday of each month, the Cathedral Basilica presents a "Midweek Music" organ recital. These recitals feature 20-30 minutes of sacred or classical music on our magnificent Cathedral organ.

All are invited to join us online or in-person for our next organ recital, which is scheduled for Wednesday, July 7, at 4:00pm.

STEWARDSHIP ALIVE!

Sacrament of Baptism

Congratulations to Finley James, son of parishioners Christopher and Erin, who was baptized in Christ here at the Cathedral Basilica last Sunday, June 13.

May the blessing of the Lord be always upon Fin, and may God watch over & cherish all children whom He has blessed with the grace of Baptism.

Infant Baptism

According to the mind of the Church, parents are obliged to see that infants are baptized within the first weeks after birth. If you are a registered parishioner who is or is about to become a parent, please contact the parish office at to schedule a baptism.

Anima Christi Young Adults

All young adults interested in growing the fellowship of our young adult community are invited to the next young adult gathering scheduled for Thursday, June 24. We begin with Adoration and confessions in the church at 6:30 pm (enter through the west door by the playground), followed by dinner in Boland Hall at 7:30 p.m. Please join us, in full or in part, to deepen your relationship with Christ and with one another. For additional information, please e-mail the group at AnimaChristiStL@gmail.com.

Men of the Cathedral

It is with joy that the Men of the Cathedral will gather for Adoration and Fellowship on Tuesday, June 29. We convene in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel at 6:00 pm for Adoration; confessions will also be heard during this time.

Following Adoration, dinner will be served in Boland Hall. An offering of $20 is suggested. As we launch into summer, we will have a special treat: a homemade BBQ dinner. To ensure enough food is prepared for all, please RSVP to Michael Weisbrod at michael.weisbrod@rcfstl.org or call 314-918-2893 no later than the Monday morning, June 28.

We look forward to seeing you and encourage you to invite your friends and family.

For the Poor

On the first Sunday of every month, the Cathedral Parish collects foodstuffs and canned goods (non-perishable items only, please!) for delivery to food pantries in the area. Our next parish food drive will be held Sunday, July 4.

Eyeglass Drive

"The Respectacle Project", an eyeglass recycling program, facilitates the redistribution of quality used eyeglasses to those in need both locally and abroad. Donations are typically accepted on the first Sunday of every month. Our next eyeglass drive will be held Sunday, July 4.

True Kingship

Jesus is a walking contradiction in many ways. He is the lion and the lamb, the victor and the victim, God's son and the carpenter's son. The nature of His kingship is also perplexing. He is the gentle and meek one who takes all of our sins, problems, afflictions, and weaknesses upon Himself as the suffering servant (Isaiah 53). Yet he is also the almighty God who has authority over the wind and the sea (Mark 4:39). Jesus shows us that we are never as powerful as He is but that we can share in His power by surrendering to His grace. Jesus gently invites us to follow Him and to cast all of our cares and burdens upon Him so that He may help us to bear them successfully.

Visit archstl.org/dynamic for more info.

Matthew 25 Come Alive

Often we find ourselves approached on the street with requests for assistance for food or a bus pass. In order to live Matthew 25, parishioners should consider carrying fast food gift cards and a book of bus tickets. That way, you can provide substantive assistance when asked, without resorting to cash. Also, encourage those seeking assistance to call 2-1-1, United Way's assistance hotline, or the Cathedral's SVDP HotLine at 314-373-8288.

You Can Help Carry the Burden

Our Parish is blessed with significant demographic diversity. While many of us live comfortably, a significant number within our Parish boundaries are not nearly so fortunate. The Poor Box, located near the main aisle in the rear of the church, is the primary source of funding for the assistance provided by the Cathedral Chapter of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul. Any help you can give is greatly appreciated.

Your Caution is Requested

A necessary caution is directed to all who visit the Cathedral Basilica: carefully avoid leaving purses, packages, computers, and other valuables on the car seats or otherwise in plain view when parked on the lot or surrounding streets, even for short periods. Lock belongings in the trunk out of sight. Everyone should exercise prudent responsibility.

LITURGICAL ETIQUETTE . . .

External gestures of reverence can become a witness to the truths of our faith. For this reason, we wish to remind our guests and parishioners of habits or practices which are not appropriate.

- The rule of fasting for an hour before one receives the Eucharist still holds, and thus makes the chewing of gum in church completely disrespectful and inappropriate.

- Although the Church does not require everyone to be dressed in their "Easter finest" every week for Mass, please remember that the way we dress for church is, oftentimes, a sign of how important the celebration of the Eucharist is to us. Overly revealing clothing or bare midriffs are never appropriate.

- Churches are meant to be sacred space, places where all can pray and worship. While a cordial greeting is never out of place, carrying on an audible and protracted conversation is never appropriate.

- External gestures of reverence can become a witness to the truths of our faith. The bow immediately before receiving Holy Communion should be done with the conscious recognition that it is the Lord Himself before Whom we bow. He is truly present in the Eucharist, in both the host and the cup, and the extension of the hands must acknowledge our acceptance of a gift, not a grabbing for something owed us. The hands are completely empty, extended in the gesture of acceptance. The Lord should not be just another item among keys or other personal items.

- Our spoken and sung responses at Mass are always meant to be done communally, with whatever abilities were bestowed on us by our Father. What is believed and held in our hearts ought to be expressed outwardly during the Mass in word and in music.

- Finally, out of respect and reverence for the presence of Christ in the Eucharist, arriving at Mass on time and remaining until the priest has recessed down the aisle is appropriate behavior. Leaving Mass early and disturbing the flow of communion in order to exit is never appropriate. Please place cell phones in the silent mode, and please remain in church till the end of Mass to be blessed and commissioned to go forth in Christ's name.
