WELCOME TO OUR VISITORS

Archbishop Mitchell T. Rozanski and the people of the Archdiocese of St. Louis welcome you and hope that your time in our Mother Church may be an opportunity to share our faith and joy in Jesus Christ.

Please enjoy the beauty of this building dedicated to the glory of God and built for the inspiration of all who enter. Public tours of the Cathedral led by volunteer guides are available by appointment, as is access to the Cathedral Gift Shop.

All visitors who are not of the Catholic faith are welcome to join us in prayer, but not to receive Holy Communion. Reception of Holy Communion is a sign of unity of faith and full membership in the Catholic community. Together let us pray for the eventual unity of all believers.

If you desire to become a member of the Catholic Church or to become a member of the Cathedral Basilica Parish, please complete a registration card, available at the entrances the church.

All contributions to the Cathedral Basilica parish, ministries, and maintenance are sincerely appreciated.

FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

This week Dr. Horst Buchholz announced that he would be leaving us in August to take a position with the Archdiocese of Detroit. Throughout his ten years at the Cathedral Basilica, Dr. Buchholz has dedicated himself to providing high-quality liturgical music that genuinely helps lift our hearts and minds in the worship of our heavenly Father.

As the date of his departure draws near, I will let keep you informed as to a going-away gathering/party for him. For now, please place on your calendar the date of Wednesday, August 4th at 4:00 pm for our MidWeek Music Series. It will be Dr. Buchholz's last event with us.

We had a few more things change at the Rectory this past week as Father Ed Godefroid left for his first priestly assignment at Saint Charles Borromeo parish in St. Charles. While he was only in residence at the Cathedral as he awaited his priestly assignment, he will be greatly missed. I would kindly ask you to keep him in your prayers as he begins the first chapter of his priestly ministry.

In addition to that change, Father Joseph Jiang has returned to the parish from his studies of Canon Law in Rome. Father will be with us for the next two months and will assist with the celebration of Mass and confessions. Please join me in extending a warm welcome back to him.

This weekend we celebrate the birth of our nation on July 4th. In the Declaration of Independence, we find these words: "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness." Throughout the course of human events, we have experienced men and women who have given their lives to defend and preserve what we hold most dear. Let us not fail in being grateful to the thousands and thousands of men and women who have served us in our Armed Forces.

Weekly Thoughts on Giving

"As the Lord spoke to me, the spirit entered me and set me on my feet, and I heard the one who was speaking say to me, 'Son of man, I am sending you...'" - Ez 2:2-3

God has a plan for each of us. He calls us to do something for Him. But, He doesn't leave us on our own to figure it out. He gives us the resources we need to do His work. Are you listening for God's call? When you hear it, do you get on your feet and do the work He asks of you? Do not be afraid. God doesn't call the equipped, he equips the called. Answer His call.
