WELCOME TO OUR VISITORS

Archbishop Mitchell T. Rozanski and the people of the Archdiocese of St. Louis welcome you and hope that your time in our Mother Church may be an opportunity to share our faith and joy in Jesus Christ.

Please enjoy the beauty of this building dedicated to the glory of God and built for the inspiration of all who enter. Public tours of the Cathedral led by volunteer guides are available by appointment, as is access to the Cathedral Gift Shop.

All visitors who are not of the Catholic faith are welcome to join us in prayer, but not to receive Holy Communion. Reception of Holy Communion is a sign of unity of faith and full membership in the Catholic community. Together let us pray for the eventual unity of all believers.

If you desire to become a member of the Catholic Church or to become a member of the Cathedral Basilica Parish, please complete a registration card, available at the entrances the church.

All contributions to the Cathedral Basilica parish, ministries, and maintenance are sincerely appreciated.

FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Many thanks to the Men of the Cathedral for hosting our monthly Donut Sunday. It was once again a huge success and a wonderful sight to see so many parishioners gather to share a donut and conversation. Moments like this are designed to build relationships with each other and build community in our parish. Thanks so much for your support.

Another great joy we celebrated this past Sunday was the first communion for the son of one of our parishioners. At the center of this joyful day is the reality that Jesus enters the heart of this child in an extraordinary way today. It is a gift of love that is truly worth more than all the other things that life can give. I hope that the reception of First Communion will be the beginning of a lifelong friendship with Jesus for all children.

Please mark your calendars for our Annual Blue Mass celebrated on Sunday, September 12, at the 10:00 am Mass. During this Mass, we will honor those employed in the field of public safety, which includes police officers, firefighters, paramedics, and corrections officers. Archbishop Rozanski will be the main celebrant for this Mass, and if you are unable to make it to the Cathedral, you will be able to join us for the live stream of the Mass at cathedralstl.org/live.

At this time last year, the Cathedral was abuzz with activity as we celebrated the Installation of Archbishop Rozanski. It was not your typical Installation as we had to limit capacity, wear masks, and practice social distancing. We had over 4,000 viewing the Mass on our Livestream and this number does not count the many that watched on EWTN.

During his first year, the Archbishop has been busy visiting a parish every weekend. These pastoral visits are instrumental for him in building relationships and getting to know the Archdiocese. Please continue to pray for his ministry as our Chief Shepherd.

ARCHBISHOP'S COLUMN

In exalting the lowly, God turns the world's expectations upside down

No society can ignore its sinful structures; we need to critique and modify them based on God's plan

ARCHBISHOP

SERVE THE LORD
WITH GLADNESS

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

We begin reading from the Gospel of Luke this week and will continue to do so until Advent.

One of the key themes in Luke is how the Lord turns things upside down. For example, in His opening discourse, Jesus says He has come to bring glad tidings to the poor — not the rich — and that He has come for the captives, the blind and the oppressed — not the powerful. We see Him choose fishermen to change the world; we remember that He chose shepherds to hear the good news of the Messiah's birth, and proclaim it to others. He visits His hometown, and we remember that He chose Nazareth. Again and again, God chooses and exalts the lowly, turning the world's expectations upside down.

And, if that's not enough, God takes the slow route to accomplish His plans. He moves people by inviting them to conversion rather than by force. He takes the burden of sin upon Himself on the Cross, rather than making others pay the price.

All of these are important lessons as we consider sins in our own society. It's true enough that, in many ways, turning things upside down is needed. Human beings are sinful. Therefore, as we build culture and society, we build sinful structures into them. Jesus comes to upend sin and, as a consequence, sinful structures. We can't deny that. In fact, Luke draws our attention to it!

But Luke also shows us how Jesus upends things according to God's plan, not human plans. He shows us how Jesus upends things according to God's method of an invitation to conversion, not worldly methods of force. And He shows us how Jesus purifies the world by taking the burden of sin upon Himself, not by inflicting that burden on others. At each point the Gospel plan challenges us to reach deeper.

At the beginning of Jesus' public mission, according to Luke, the demons proclaim that Jesus is the Son of God. Jesus silences them, knowing that the demons' intention is to mislead people. But notice that they use truth to do so!

That's a cautionary tale for us. There are sinful structures in the world. But we can't let that truth mislead us. As Pope Benedict XVI pointed out in his encyclical "Spe Salvi," most utopian projects are doomed to failure because they don't reckon with fallen human nature. They turn everything upside down according to fallen human plans, using worldly methods, and inflicting the price on others. The result is always greater chaos and oppression.

No society can ignore its sinful structures. To do so is to ignore the evidence, and cede the moral high ground to others. The only way to occupy the high ground is to heed this key theme of the Gospel of Luke: to recognize the structural implications of sin, to critique them according to God's plan, and to propose solutions according to God's methods. That's a challenge worth pondering from now until Advent.

A Thought on The Sanctity Of Life

The Blue Mass

On September 29, 1934, a tradition of showing gratitude to emergency responders began when a Catholic priest from the Archdiocese of Baltimore organized the Catholic Police and Firemen’s Society while stationed at St. Patrick Church in Washington, D.C. On that September day, over 1,000 police and firemen, dressed in their blue uniforms, attended a Mass that has since come to be known in churches across the country as the “Blue Mass”.

The Archdiocese of St. Louis continues that tradition of gratitude as we celebrate the Annual Blue Mass on Sunday, September 12, at 10:00 a.m. Archbishop Mitchell Rozanski and the pastoral staff of the Cathedral Basilica invite all to join us in prayer, seeking God’s blessing upon those who serve and protect.

Daily Readings for the Week...

The readings are included each week so that the parishioners who are unable to join us for daily Mass will be able to consider and pray them in union with the whole Church.

St. Joseph PSR

Religious education is an important component for forming children in the teaching of the Catholic Faith. Consider St. Joseph in Clayton for religious education, sacramental preparation, and family formation. PSR is offered from 9:30-10:45 am each Sunday morning. Online registration is available by emailing ekopff@stjosephclayton.org, or stop by the St. Joseph parish office to receive a paper form. We look forward to helping your children grow in their relationship with Jesus and knowledge of the faith.

PSR Needs You!

St. Joseph’s PSR program is still in need of a 5th grade catechist for the upcoming school year. If you have questions or are interested in serving as a full-time or half-time catechist, please contact Emily Kopff at ekopff@stjosephclayton.org. We offer a $25/per class stipend or tuition waiver for catechists!

Sacrament of Baptism

Congratulations to Kenneth Joseph, son of Kenny & Tricia, baptized in Christ on August 15, 2021, here at the Cathedral Basilica.

May the blessing of the Lord be always upon him, and may God watch over and cherish all children whom He has blessed with the grace of Baptism.

The “What” Versus the “Why”

In Mark’s Gospel reading Jesus says, “This people honors me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me.” Think of your parish community, how many things happen because “that’s the way we’ve always done things.” This is a universal statement in most parishes. Because we are creatures of habit, unintentionally, certain parish customs, activities and events have become engrained in the parish culture. We get more focused on “what” we do instead of “why” we do it. All these “what’s” eventually lead to a lukewarm parish culture and parishioner burn-out, leading people away from God instead of closer to Him (the “why”). Quite frankly, many parishes have become centers of activities and events (what) at the expense of encountering the Lord (why). Of all the gifts that God has given us, the one He wants the most is our heart. Do you want to encourage people back to the parish? Maybe it’s time to rethink your parish mission and emphasize the “why” instead of the “what.”

Weekly Thoughts on Giving

"Be doers of the word and not hearers only..."

Jas 1:22

It's easy to understand the definition of stewardship – living a grateful and generous life. The hard part is doing it! How do your actions reflect God's word? Do you share your time in prayer with God? Do you use your talent to help those in need? Are you generous with your financial resources? If not, what are you waiting for?

Infant Baptism

According to the mind of the Church, parents are obliged to see that infants are baptized within the first weeks after birth. If you are a registered parishioner who is or is about to become a parent, please contact the rectory at 314-373-8202 to schedule your infant's baptism and arrange for your own instruction in preparation for the sacrament.

Anima Christi Young Adults

All young adults interested in growing the fellowship of our young adult community are invited to the next young adult gathering scheduled for Thursday, September 2. Our "First Thursday" gathering begins with a Holy Hour in the church at 5:30 pm (enter through the west door by the playground), followed by Mass at 6:30 pm, and concludes with a dinner at 7:00 pm. Please join us, in full or in part, to deepen your relationship with Christ and with one another. For additional information, please e-mail us at AnimaChristiStL@gmail.com.

St. Vincent de Paul Membership

Members of the Cathedral St. Vincent de Paul Society meet weekly. Members are committed to aiding fellow parishioners and neighbors with necessities such as food, clothing, utilities, and rent—all in the context of the Christian imperative. If interested in becoming a member or in learning more about the Society and our Conference, please leave a message on the SVDP HotLine at 314-373-8288.

Men of the Cathedral

With great joy, the Men of the Cathedral announce their next meeting for monthly Adoration will be on Tuesday, August 30. We convene in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel at 6 PM. Confessions will also be heard during this time. Dinner will be served in Bolland Hall immediately after Adoration. An offering of $20 to offset the cost of dinner is suggested.

We are blessed with a growing group of faithful men, including parishioners and the family and friends of parishioners. We are all looking to come closer to God and to develop strong faith-based friendships. If you haven't yet joined the Men of the Cathedral, please do not let another month go by without experiencing the joy of participating with us! All are welcome and find that, at the end the evening, they are already looking forward to the next month!

To ensure we prepare enough food for all, RSVP to Michael Weisbrod at michael.weisbrod@rcfstl.org or call 314-918-2893 no later than Monday morning, August 29.

Are you interested in finding out more about the Catholic Church?

Be the voice of Christ and offer the first invitation to someone you know who might be interested in the Catholic faith!

RCIA is for persons who have never been baptized, were baptized in another Christian tradition, or were baptized Catholic but have never celebrated Confirmation or received First Communion.
Anyone who is interested in deepening their understanding of the Catholic faith is also invited to attend!

The 2021-22 RCIA session will begin on Sunday, September 12.
