FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

The beginning of our week was pretty busy here at the Cathedral Basilica as we celebrated the Feast of All Saints with a little over 140 relics of saints on display for prayer and adoration. Throughout the day, the All Saints chapel was at times full of people praying and a steady stream of people at other times. For myself, it was most moving to see the devotion of the faithful as they prayed before the relics.

I hope that you have the opportunity to visit our All Saints Chapel to view the prayer area set up for our All Souls Novena. Our response to this program has been tremendous, and it is quite moving to read the prayer intentions and view the loved ones we remember in prayer.

In this week's Gospel, we are at the end of Jesus' journey to Jerusalem, and the contrast with the scribes and Pharisees has reached its climax. Scribes and Pharisees are those who dictate what happiness or unhappiness is; they are those who govern consciences. Jesus, with the only proclamation of the Gospel, denounces their behavior: "They devour widows' houses and for the sake of appearance say long prayers."

Today, there are many widows like the one in Zarephath, whose story we heard in the book of Kings. In many houses and lands there is nothing to eat tomorrow. There is no future. Who will look at these widows? Who will take care of them? Jesus looks at and defends them.

He looks at them as he gazed at that widow who made her offering for the temple. Jesus sees her throwing her two coins in the treasure. No one, of course, notices her. She does not come from a noble family and so she does not attract attention; she does not belong to the world of rich and famous people so she is not noticed. However, Jesus looked with affection and admiration at that woman. Only Jesus notices her. Jesus teaches the disciples, who were absentminded or focused only on impressive things, to look with love and care at the smallest things.

It is not by chance that the evangelist locates this episode at the end of Jesus' public life and of his teaching in the temple of Jerusalem. Contrary to the young rich man who "went away grieving" because he had many riches and wanted to keep them for himself (Mk 10:22), this poor widow, by giving everything, teaches us how to love God and the Gospel. She went away happy.

SERVE THE LORD
WITH GLADNESS

Like a mosaic, each person is individually placed to draw others to Jesus Christ

The image of the Temple helps us ask how we can cooperate with God's project

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

We celebrate the feast of the dedication of the Lateran Basilica — the Pope's Cathedral — this week (Nov. 9). Interestingly, the Church's theological reflection for the day focuses on the building as an allegory for the people: "Whenever we come to church, we must prepare our hearts to be as beautiful as we expect this building to be ... Just as you enter this church building, so God wishes to enter into your soul, for He promised: I shall live in them, and I shall walk the corridors of their hearts."

I think it's fair to ponder our beautiful Cathedral Basilica of Saint Louis along the same lines. Each of the mosaic tiles in the cathedral is made individually and placed individually, just as each of us is made individually by God, and placed individually by God in history. No one tile tells the whole story but, all together, they draw people into the life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. Likewise, one word and one action at a time, each of us can tell people about Jesus, and draw others into His life. If we miss the connection between the building and the person, we miss one of the reasons the cathedral was built.

The readings for the feast day all focus on the Temple. But there's a transformation in how the Temple is considered. And that transformation has particular importance for us today.

In the Hebrew Scriptures, the Temple was a particular building: the center of Jewish worship, and the place where God dwelt in a special way. In the Gospels Jesus is the new Temple — the new center of worship, and the new place where God dwells in a special way. After the descent of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost, every baptized Christian becomes a living temple of God. That's why St. Paul can say: "Do you not know that you are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwells in you?" And that's why St. Peter says: "Come to Him, a living stone ... and, like living stones, let yourselves be built into a spiritual house."

At each stage of salvation history God builds a "temple" in a way that's appropriate to that stage, and that draws the people deeper into His life. The question becomes: what is God trying to build in our time, to draw people deeper into His life, and how do we cooperate with that project?

That is exactly the question we're asking in our pastoral planning process.

There can be a tendency to look back and disparage the past and want to throw it out. There can also be a tendency to idolize the past and want to return to it. I think both are mistakes. Instead, we should learn from the past, and apply its lessons moving forward.

From the 1920s to the 1950s we built a lot of buildings and opened a lot of new parishes and schools. And that was appropriate to the needs of the time! The needs of our time are different. I hope we can bring just as much zeal to meeting the needs of our day as our forebears did to meeting the needs of their day. They left behind something beautiful for us. Can we sense the transformation that God is working now, and help to build a new kind of beauty?

Weekly Thoughts on Giving

"I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they all contributed out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, her whole living." (Mark 12:43-44)

Jesus gets right to the point – we are all called to give money to support the mission of the Church, regardless of our circumstance. No gift is too small or insignificant! Giving money to support the mission of our local parish is a matter of our faith, just like praying and participating in parish ministries. When you make a financial offering, is it from your "first fruits" or from what is "left over"?

St. Vincent de Paul Sunday

The St. Louis Council of the St. Vincent de Paul Society will be celebrating the 6th Annual St. Vincent de Paul Sunday today. The Cathedral Basilica Conference will participate by collecting contributions of personal hygiene items (e.g., shampoo, toothpaste, and toothbrushes) as well as cleaning supplies (e.g., paper towels, soap, and detergent). These are essential items not covered by food stamps, and our clients often can't afford to buy them. All items collected will be distributed to the poor in the Archdiocese. Vincentians will be stationed in the Cathedral vestibule at all Masses this weekend, to receive your donations. Please consider participating in this worthy effort! Your ongoing support and generosity remain vital to our mission of reaching out in Christian charity to those in need.

St. Patrick Casserole Program

Casseroles and other offerings collected by volunteers of the St. Patrick Casserole Program provides one week of dinners for the Women's Shelter, and one night of dinners for the Men's Alumni Club.

Cathedral casserole organizers will host our next "touchless" drop-off in the parish parking lot on Thursday, November 11, from 1:00 – 2:00 p.m. Please contact Skip or Nicki Batchelor at 916-834-4843 for additional information.

Infant Baptism

According to the mind of the Church, parents are obliged to see that infants are baptized within the first weeks after birth. As soon as possible after the birth, or even before it, parents should request the sacrament for their child and are to be properly instructed in preparation for it. Godparents are also encouraged to attend baptismal preparation before the child is born. If you are a registered parishioner who is or is about to become a parent or godparent, contact the parish office at 314-373-8202 to schedule a baptism or to register for baptismal preparation class.

All Souls Novena At The Cathedral Basilica

As the seasons change and we anticipate the beginning of November, our thoughts turn to our deceased loved ones as we prepare for the liturgical feasts of All Saints and All Souls. We remember them in life and we pray that "perpetual light will shine on them" and God will welcome them into eternal joy.

You are invited to remember deceased loved ones in prayer during the Cathedral Basilica's All Souls Novena, nine days of prayer for the departed, beginning on November 2. Please send us the names of the deceased loved ones you wish included in the Novena, and they will be remembered collectively in a Mass each day for nine days.

In addition to our prayer, the name and image of your loved one will be displayed in our chapel, and you will receive a lovely Mass card with the name of your departed loved one inscribed inside.

Let us remember our departed loved ones by storming the gates of heaven with prayers on their behalf, praying with confidence the words: "Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord. May perpetual light shine upon them."

Enrollment for the All Souls Remembrance is available for purchase on our website at <https://cathedralstl.org/all-souls>.
