WELCOME TO OUR VISITORS

Archbishop Mitchell T. Rozanski and the people of the Archdiocese of St. Louis welcome you and hope that your time in our Mother Church may be an opportunity to share our faith and joy in Jesus Christ.

Please enjoy the beauty of this building dedicated to the glory of God and built for the inspiration of all who enter. Public tours of the Cathedral led by volunteer guides are available by appointment.

All visitors who are not of the Catholic faith are welcome to join us in prayer, but not to receive Holy Communion. Reception of Holy Communion is a sign of unity of faith and full membership in the Catholic community. Together let us pray for the eventual unity of all believers.

If you desire to become a member of the Catholic Church or to become a member of the Cathedral Basilica Parish, please complete a registration card, available at the entrances the church.

All contributions to the Cathedral Basilica parish, ministries, and maintenance are sincerely appreciated.

FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

As you enter the Cathedral Basilica this week, you will notice that the Christmas decorations have all been removed and are now placed in storage until next year. I would like to take this opportunity to express gratitude to our staff and many volunteers who assisted in the long process of decorating the Basilica. It truly looked stunning this year and many of our visitors to the Cathedral commented how beautiful it looked.

Things will look darker in the Cathedral Basilica this week as we progress through our interior lighting project's Phase One. Electricians on Tuesday disconnected the power and control lines to the Main Dome so that new lines could be run through the same conduit. The hope is that the new fixtures will arrive in about seven weeks and be installed. Of course, this is all dependent on the supply chain working as expected. Thank you, in advance, for your patience, as we work to improve the lighting of the interior of the Cathedral.

With the celebration of the Baptism of the Lord, we have entered into the season of Ordinary Time. Our attention is now drawn away from the Christ child lying in the manger to Christ alive in the world. There is a biblical theme that I would like to propose to you as we enter into the new year: "Pray without ceasing" (1 Thes 5: 17). St. Paul addressed the community of Thessalonica, which was experiencing inner disputes and conflicts in order to appeal forcefully for certain fundamental attitudes among which stands out ceaseless prayer.

With this invitation, He wanted to make people understand that the capacity to overcome all selfishness, to live together in peace and fraternal union, and for each one to bear the burdens and suffering of others comes from new life in Christ and in the Holy Spirit. We must never tire of praying for unity and peace in our world! When Jesus prayed at the Last Supper that "they may all be one," he had a precise goal in mind: "so that the world may believe" (Jn 17: 21).

This message is particularly apropos as we celebrate the Annual Archdiocesan Mass for Preservation of Peace and Justice which seeks to commemorate the legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Archbishop Rozanski will be the main celebrant and homilist for the Mass. The gathering this year will be much smaller than in previous years but the Cathedral will be filled with songs and prayers praying for peace.

"All that I am saying is simply this, that all life is inter-related. We are caught in an inescapable network of mutuality, tied in a single garment of destiny. So that whatever affects one directly, will affect all indirectly."

Abortion illustrates the battle in our hearts between two tendencies

Our culture lives out of both the tendency of Jesus' life and the tendency of sin

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

This week I will join pilgrims from the Archdiocese of St. Louis at the March for Life in Washington, D.C. As we do, the question on many people's minds is: Will this be the year? Is this the last March for Life before Roe v. Wade is overturned by the U.S. Supreme Court?

If not, then I say these two things: that it will be a great loss, but only a temporary setback.

A great loss, because over 62 million children have lost their lives to abortion since the landmark 1973 case. The deaths of those children and the corresponding hurt inflicted on mothers, fathers, families, siblings and society is staggering.

But it would only be a temporary setback because, as St. John Paul II once asked: "Can history swim against the tide of conscience?" His own life experience told him, for a time, yes, but not permanently! Good wins out in the end. But he knew, and we know, that victory often comes only after terrible losses.

If this is the year that Roe v. Wade is overturned by the Supreme Court, then I say these two things: that it will be a great victory, but only a partial one.

A great victory, because we will have recognized a massive legal and cultural error.

But it would be only a partial victory for three reasons. First, because the real victory is when we walk with moms in need, help them bring their babies into the world and care for moms and babies alike. That's an ongoing task, not the result of a legal decision.

Second, because the Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches us a moral methodology. In its treatment of the Ten Commandments, the Catechism begins with the direct matter of each commandment and then expands to a consideration of other things that are included by implication. The same holds true here. If we establish, in law, that innocent lives ought not to be taken by abortion, we have to go on to ask: what else is included in that judgment by implication? The victory will not be complete until all innocent lives are protected — and that is a long road.

Third and last and most deeply, because there are two perennial tendencies in the human heart, and our culture lives out of both of them. The first is: "This is your body, taken for me." That tendency is the way of all sin — abortion, lust, stealing and so on. The other is: "This is my body, given for you." This is the pattern of Jesus' life, summed up in the Eucharist but also embodied in the Incarnation, the Passion, and His every word and deed. This tendency is meant to be the heart of marriage. It's one of the ways that human motherhood is meant to make the life of God visible.

These two tendencies are both written in the human heart — one by sin, and the other by God. As long as the battle between these two tendencies continues in each of our hearts, it will continue in our culture as a whole, no matter what the Supreme Court decides.

We certainly go to the March for Life this year with a keen sense of hope! But let's make sure it's a realistic sense of hope. Whatever the Supreme Court may decide between this January and next, we will find ourselves with much work to do.

A Thought on The Sanctity Of Life

“There is such a wide spectrum of issues involving the protection of human life and the promotion of human dignity. Good people frequently disagree on which problems to address, which policies to adopt and how best to apply them. But for citizens and elected officials alike, the basic principle is simple: We must begin with a commitment never to intentionally kill, or collude in the killing, of any innocent human life, no matter how broken, unformed, disabled or desperate that life may seem. In other words, the choice of certain ways of acting is always and radically incompatible with the love of God and the dignity of the human person created in His image.”

Weekly Thoughts on Giving

"To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit." (1 CORINTHIANS 12:7)

St. Paul tells us that God has blessed each of us for a reason. How has God blessed you? Are you using your gifts according to God's plan? How are you helping to build God's kingdom here on earth? Remember that if you don't do the work God planned for you, no one else can do it. Live the life God has intended for you. Take time to discern your charisms (gifts from the Holy Spirit). Experience the supernatural Peace and Joy God desires for each of us.

St. Vincent de Paul Membership

Members of the Cathedral St. Vincent de Paul Society meet weekly. Members are committed to aiding fellow parishioners and neighbors with necessities such as food, clothing, utilities, and rent—all in the context of the Christian imperative. If interested in becoming a member or in learning more about the Society and our Conference, please leave a message on the SVDP HotLine at 314-373-8288.

Men of the Cathedral

JANUARY ADORATION

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament is a joy beyond words, as we can come close to our Lord in a very special and personal way. That joy and fulfillment is greatly enhanced when you share the experience of Adoration with others.

Understanding this, the MEN OF THE CATHEDRAL cordially invite all parishioners and visitors to join them in the January Adoration scheduled for January 25th at 6 PM in the nave of the Cathedral.

Confessions will be heard during Adoration.

Please plan to attend and invite your friends and family, as it is a tremendous way to come closer to Christ!

Following Adoration, all men are invited in Bolland Hall for fellowship and dinner. An offering of $20 is suggested. Please RSVP by Monday, January 24th to Michael Weisbrod at michael.weisbrod@rcfstl.org to reserve your dinner spot!
