WELCOME TO OUR VISITORS

Archbishop Mitchell T. Rozanski and the people of the Archdiocese of St. Louis welcome you and hope that your time in our Mother Church may be an opportunity to share our faith and joy in Jesus Christ.

Please enjoy the beauty of this building dedicated to the glory of God and built for the inspiration of all who enter. Public tours of the Cathedral led by volunteer guides are available by appointment.

All visitors who are not of the Catholic faith are welcome to join us in prayer, but not to receive Holy Communion. Reception of Holy Communion is a sign of unity of faith and full membership in the Catholic community. Together let us pray for the eventual unity of all believers.

If you desire to become a member of the Catholic Church or to become a member of the Cathedral Basilica Parish, please complete a registration card, available at the entrances the church.

All contributions to the Cathedral Basilica parish, ministries, and maintenance are sincerely appreciated.

FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

After the solemn celebrations of Easter, we are still imbued with spiritual joy, as we carry in our hearts that Easter joy. My deepest thanks to everyone who helped to make these liturgies so beautiful this past week. Most importantly I would like to extend a word of thanks to the staff of the Cathedral for their hard work and to the volunteers who helped in many ways. In addition, there are many others who gave so much of their time including our ushers, servers, Eucharistic ministers, and those who helped to clean our church, arrange flowers, and work with those in our RCIA program.

We welcomed parishioners and visitors to the Cathedral Basilica in numbers we have not seen since before the pandemic began. It was so wonderful to see the Cathedral full with people coming to worship together on Easter.

Many of you should have received a letter from me regarding the Annual Catholic Appeal, which is one way we proclaim our Faith. Whether it's feeding the hungry, sheltering the homeless, or providing a family the resources to help fund a Catholic education for their children, your Faith has helped the Church grow stronger, lighting up the world with faith, hope, and love.

Our parishioners have pledged so far $92,000, which surpasses our parish goal of $81,800. We are well on our way to meeting the challenge goal of $172,000. Through the Appeal, we join together and make possible the Church's mission of evangelization, education, and many ministries of charity. For now, I ask you to prayerfully consider your gift to this effort of the Archdiocese of Saint Louis.

What the Gospel says to us today on the 2nd Sunday of Easter is very important: namely, that Jesus, in his two appearances to the Apostles gathered in the Upper Room, repeats several times the greeting: "Peace be with you." The traditional greeting used by people at the time of Jesus with which people would greet one another was shalom, peace. This greeting becomes something new: it becomes the gift of the peace that Jesus alone can give because it is the fruit of his radical victory over evil. The "peace" that Jesus gives to his friends is the fruit of the love of God which led him to die on the cross, to pour out all his blood, as a meek and humble lamb "full of grace and truth."

For this reason Saint John Paul II chose to call this Sunday after Easter, Divine Mercy, with a very specific image: that of Jesus' pierced side from which blood and water flowed, according to the account of an eyewitness, the Apostle John. However Jesus is now risen and the paschal Sacraments of Baptism and the Eucharist flow from him, who is alive: those who receive them with faith receive the gift of eternal life.

ARCHBISHOP'S COLUMN

True humility means recognizing the source of our gifts and putting them to use

Pride and false humility are opposed to the notion of humility, as illustrated by Jesus and others

ARCHBISHOP

SERVE THE LORD
WITH GLADNESS

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Many elements of the readings this week, and many elements of the Christian life, converge on the notion of humility. So it's important to understand what humility means, and what it doesn't mean.

Most people know that humility is opposed to pride; few realize that it's also opposed to false humility, and what that means for being a disciple of Jesus.

Pride claims that the talents we have come from ourselves; humility knows that we have them as gifts from God. False humility claims that we don't have any gifts at all; true humility knows that we have been given gifts, and we put them to use in the service of God and neighbor. Someone filled with pride becomes pompous; the gifts are there, but everyone suffers from how they carry those gifts. Someone filled with false humility denies the existence of their gifts; the gifts are there, but everyone suffers from their failure to put them to use.

We celebrate the feast of St. Mark on April 25, and he's a good example of humility. He was a companion of St. Paul and St. Barnabas in the early missionary travels of the Church. He was a disciple of St. Peter in Rome at the Church's very beginnings — tradition tells us that St. Mark's Gospel was based on the preaching of Peter in Rome. St. Mark wasn't puffed up with pride because of his position in the early Church, and he didn't hide his gifts in false humility. Rather, he honed his gifts and let God put them to work. Then his gifts became a gift to the Church in his action-packed Gospel.

Jesus is a great example of humility in this sense, too. Everything Jesus has is something He received from the Father. Jesus constantly confesses that! And He puts all that He has at the service of others — all His gifts, His very life. There's no pride in Jesus — as if He were, Himself, the source of the gifts. There's no false humility in Jesus, either — as though He didn't have the gifts. Jesus constantly gives thanks to the Father for His gifts, and constantly and completely puts them to work for our salvation. His gifts become a gift to us.

In Acts chapter 4 we hear about the life of the early Church. Community members put all their possessions at the service of the Church: "No one claimed that any of his possessions was his own." Barnabas, for example, "sold a piece of property that he owned, then brought the money and put it at the feet of the apostles."

It's easy for us to apply this lesson to money. But what if we also apply it to our talents and charisms? Our talents and charisms are God's gift to us. But they're not only God's gift to us. They were also meant to be a gift God gives to others through us. So it's important that we hold them with the right attitude — with humility — not claiming them as our own, and not hiding them, either, but putting them to work to build up God's kingdom. Our gifts, too, were meant to be a gift to the Church.

May we all be clothed in humility that helps us recognize our gifts and put them to use.

HOW TO PRAY THE CHAPLET OF DIVINE MERCY

1. Sign of the Cross

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

2. Our Father

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.

3. Hail Mary

Hail Mary, full of grace. The Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou amongst women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death, Amen.

4. Apostle's Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; He descended into hell; on the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there He will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

5. On each of the Large Beads

Eternal Father, I offer you the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Your Dearly Beloved Son, Our Lord, Jesus Christ, in atonement for our sins and those of the whole world.

6. On each of the Small Beads

For the sake of His sorrowful Passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world.

After Praying All 5 Decades

7. Concluding Doxology (Repeat 3x)

Holy God, Holy Mighty One, Holy Immortal One, have mercy on us and on the whole world.

8. Closing Prayer (optional)

Eternal God, in whom mercy is endless and the treasury of compassion — inexhaustible, look kindly upon us and increase Your mercy in us, that in difficult moments we might not despair nor become despondent, but with great confidence submit ourselves to Your holy will, which is Love and Mercy itself.

Weekly Thoughts on Giving

"Jesus said to them again, 'Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.'" (JOHN 20:21)

Peace – the first gift of the risen Lord. Just as Jesus sent the apostles out into the world, so too, He sends us. As disciples of Jesus, we are called to be compassionate and merciful; and not with just those who are our friends, but also with our "enemies." Think of someone in your life who you need to reconcile with. Call them right now or better yet, go visit them.
