WELCOME TO OUR VISITORS

Archbishop Mitchell T. Rozanski and the people of the Archdiocese of St. Louis welcome you and hope that your time in our Mother Church may be an opportunity to share our faith and joy in Jesus Christ.

Please enjoy the beauty of this building dedicated to the glory of God and built for the inspiration of all who enter. Public tours of the Cathedral led by volunteer guides are available by appointment.

All visitors who are not of the Catholic faith are welcome to join us in prayer, but not to receive Holy Communion. Reception of Holy Communion is a sign of unity of faith and full membership in the Catholic community. Together let us pray for the eventual unity of all believers.

If you desire to become a member of the Catholic Church or to become a member of the Cathedral Basilica Parish, please complete a registration card, available at the entrances the church.

All contributions to the Cathedral Basilica parish, ministries, and maintenance are sincerely appreciated.

FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

On Saturday, the Cathedral Basilica was at almost full capacity as we welcomed the faithful for the celebration of the Ordination to the Priesthood of two men from the Archdiocese of St. Louis. It was beautiful to see the Cathedral with so many gathered and to hear their strong voices singing the processional hymn "To Jesus Christ, Our Sovereign King". It indeed was a joy-filled day, capped off with the newly ordained receiving their first priestly assignments. Please join me in wishing them all the best as they begin their life as a Priest. Please do remember them and all priests in your daily prayers.

This weekend the Cathedral will again be at capacity as the Archbishop will ordain 18 men to the Permanent Diaconate. Deacons share in the sacrament of Orders with bishops and priests. In the United States, there are more than 13,000 deacons serving primarily in parishes. The work of the deacon is defined as a ministry of Liturgy, Word, and Charity.

I want to take this opportunity to express my gratitude to the small group of Cathedral parishioners that hosted a parish-wide reception following the Masses last Sunday to honor the men and women of our US Armed Forces. It was beautiful to see parishioners gathering and expressing their gratitude to those who serve our country and keep us safe.

Mark your calendars for Sunday, June 19, as we celebrate the Solemnity of Corpus Christi. Following the conclusion of the noon Mass, we will have our traditional Corpus Christi Procession through the parish grounds to Catholic Charities. This will be a wonderful display of our faith in the Real Presence and a great way to demonstrate our faith in the wider Central West End Community and St. Louis. The Feast of the Body and Blood of the Lord and the procession with the Blessed Sacrament will remind us of our pilgrimage to Heaven and is a prayerful edifying act of the entire church.

ARCHBISHOP'S COLUMN

At Pentecost, Mary became the mother of all the living

ARCHBISHOP
ROZANSKI

However, if we refuse to stand at the foot of the cross, we'll miss the opportunity to receive Mary as our mother

SERVE THE LORD WITH GLADNESS

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

This week, as we celebrate the feast of Mary, Mother of the Church, one line from Scripture can focus our attention on what the feast can mean for us: “She became the mother of all the living.”

The first application of that phrase is to Eve. After the Fall of Adam and Eve, we hear: “The man called his wife Eve, because she became the mother of all the living.” There’s a note of hope there: The process that will eventually lead to the birth of the Messiah has begun. But the primary sense is sadness: All humanity will be born into the legacy of sin. And that’s not just some abstract doctrine. It summarizes our experience of brokenness in the world, in human relationships, and within ourselves.

The second application of that phrase, however, is to Mary at Pentecost. Scripture tells us that Mary was praying with the apostles at the time of Pentecost. In most images of the event, we see Mary at the center of the apostles. The reason for that is simple: Mary already received the Holy Spirit into her being at the Annunciation. So, while Pentecost is totally new for the apostles, Mary already knows what it’s like. That means she knows how to pray for it and she knows how to mentor the apostles into saying a complete “Yes” to the Spirit.

We say that the Church was born at Pentecost. But the Church is the mystical body of Christ. It makes sense that Mary, who was the mother of Christ’s physical body, should be there at Pentecost as the mother of Christ’s spiritual body. In that sense, at Pentecost, Mary “became the mother of all the living.”

The final application of that phrase, however, is to Mary at the foot of the Cross. Scripture tells us that Mary and John were standing at the foot of the Cross when Jesus said to Mary “Behold, your son,” and then said to John “Behold, your mother.”

John, at that point, stands for all of us. Like him, we’re all invited to take Mary into our home and receive her as our mother. To receive that gift from Jesus, however, we need to stand where she stands. And she stands, unflinchingly, where her Son suffers. In order to receive her as our mother, we need to stand there with her — where her son suffers again in every member of the human family. If we refuse to stand there, we’ll miss the opportunity to receive Mary as our mother.

The paradox of the Cross is that it becomes the source of life. So of course Mary stands there as the new Eve, because that’s where she becomes the mother of all the living.

Eve became the mother of all the living; through her we receive the inheritance of sin. At the Cross, and at Pentecost, Mary became the new mother of all the living; through her we can receive the inheritance of Jesus’ life. Let’s not be afraid to draw close to her, and take her into our homes.

A Thought on The Sanctity Of Life

“The Catholic Church has a long history of service to those who are most vulnerable and remains the largest private provider of social services in the United States. Through the sacrificial efforts of faithful Catholics, the Church serves millions through diocesan ministries and agencies, Catholic hospitals and healthcare systems, immigration clinics, shelters, and Catholic schools and parishes. From religious communities to pregnancy care centers, from refugee resettlement services to foster care and adoption agencies, and from maternity homes to parish-based ministries, the Church consistently bears witness in word and deed to the beauty and dignity of every human life—including both mother and child.”

Weekly Thoughts on Giving

"The Advocate, the Holy Spirit whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you." (JOHN 14:26)

The materialism of our society lures us to concentrate more on what we want than on what God wants for us. The relativism of our world tells us that we should be tolerant of all things, that there is no absolute truth. Pray to the Holy Spirit to transform our lives and to guide our thoughts, words and actions. What you put in your head, heart and mind affects your actions. Put good things in and good things will come out.
