WELCOME TO OUR VISITORS

Archbishop Mitchell T. Rozanski and the people of the Archdiocese of St. Louis welcome you and hope that your time in our Mother Church may be an opportunity to share our faith and joy in Jesus Christ.

Please enjoy the beauty of this building dedicated to the glory of God and built for the inspiration of all who enter. Public tours of the Cathedral led by volunteer guides are available by appointment.

All visitors who are not of the Catholic faith are welcome to join us in prayer, but not to receive Holy Communion. Reception of Holy Communion is a sign of unity of faith and full membership in the Catholic community. Together let us pray for the eventual unity of all believers.

If you desire to become a member of the Catholic Church or to become a member of the Cathedral Basilica Parish, please complete a registration card, available at the entrances the church.

All contributions to the Cathedral Basilica parish, ministries, and maintenance are sincerely appreciated.

FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend we welcome a new addition to the Cathedral clergy with the new assignment of Deacon Dean Mandis. For the past several months, Deacon Mandis has been assisting on the first Saturday of the month with Eucharistic Adoration, Evening Prayer, and Benediction. Deacon Mandis was ordained on September 20, 2020, just after the arrival of Archbishop Rozanski. His wife's name is Kitty, and he has two daughters, Alexandria and Grace.

Deacon Mandis' story: Since a very young age, I thought I was being called to the priesthood in the Greek Orthodox Church. God had a different plan. Kitty has always been by my side and has been an inspiration, guide and instrument of God's love. I converted shortly after we were married, but God did not stop there. God is always working, and I felt a calling much later to the permanent diaconate. I am humbled to be a sign, in the heart of the Church, of Christ the Servant. I am very excited about living the Gospel with zeal every day and to serve God and His people.

The Cathedral Basilica is honored to host a first Mass of Thanksgiving for Father John Polce, SJ, who will be ordained at the College church this Saturday. Father John will celebrate the 10am Mass this Sunday and will be joined by several concelebrants from the Society of Jesus, family, and friends.

Jonathon Polce, SJ, was born and raised in Connecticut, the fourth child in a family of five brothers and sisters. "I learned my faith from my mother, manners from my sisters, my love of sports from my brothers, and my love of cooking and literature from my father," he says.

After graduating from the University of Dallas in 2009, Polce went to work for his alma mater's program in Rome. It was this job that introduced him to the first Jesuit he ever met: Fr. David Brown, SJ, a Jesuit of the USA Central and Southern Province assigned to the Vatican Observatory. It was through Fr. Brown that Polce came to know more about the Society of Jesus, learned of the life of St. Ignatius Loyola and Ignatian Spirituality, and discerned a call to the priesthood as a Jesuit.

ARCHBISHOP'S COLUMN

A groaning of spirit can become a place of prayer

ARCHBISHOP
ROZANSKI

SERVE THE LORD
WITH GLADNESS

The experiences that lead to groaning can become pivot points, places where we turn our hearts toward Jesus

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

“Lord, listen to my groaning.” These words from Psalm 5 are the refrain of the psalm for Monday this week. They capture the sense we carry away from the first reading: King Ahab’s wife, Jezebel, conspires to murder Naboth because Ahab wants to take possession of Naboth’s vineyard. We can imagine Naboth groaning at the injustice; so do we when we read about it!

That same kind of groaning is very much our experience of the world these days, isn’t it? Maybe it’s something as simple as the Blues losing their playoff series on a goal with five seconds left in the game. Maybe it’s something much deeper, like the recent murders in Buffalo and Uvalde. Whatever the occasion, it’s a common experience to find ourselves groaning over the state of the world. It’s helpful to know that experience is reflected in the psalms!

It’s also interesting to think about what St. Paul says: “The Spirit, too, comes to the aid of our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but the Spirit intercedes with inexpressible groanings” (Romans 8:26). Could the groaning we experience be a doorway into something deeper?

If we push a little deeper, we’ll find this same thing in Jesus. For example, when Jesus heals the deaf man, the Gospel of Mark says: “Then He looked up to heaven and groaned, and said to him, ‘Ephphatha’ (that is, ‘Be opened!’).” A similar thing happens when Jesus is brought to the tomb of Lazarus. A common translation says that Jesus “became perturbed and deeply troubled.” The literal translation, however, is more startling: “He snorted in spirit.” It’s a variation on the same reality: a groaning too deep for words.

Whether it’s an email, phone call, family situation or something in the news, the world often brings us to that place of groaning. But often, we don’t know what to do with that experience or where to go with it. So we groan, and that’s the end.

We can learn something from the fact that we see the same experience in Jesus, and St. Paul tells us that the same thing can be a gift from the Spirit.

What do we learn? That that experience of groaning can become a place of prayer. Left to itself, the groaning is simply the experience of having the wind knocked out of your sails. But that experience can also become a pivot point, a place where we turn our hearts toward Jesus.

If we turn our hearts toward Jesus in that moment, we’ll find a remarkable thing: When we open our hearts to Him, He opens His heart to us. Then, rather than finding ourselves alone in the groaning, we’ll find that we can draw strength from Him to bear it — not because we have the strength ourselves, but because He lends us His strength.

To be able to draw on the strength of Jesus in the midst of all the things that make us groan — what a gift that would be! And what a gift it would be if we, having experienced it ourselves, could turn around and offer that strength to the world!

Youth Faith Formation Programs

Families with children preschool through eighth grade can register for the 2022-2023 St. Francis Xavier College Church Youth Faith Formation Programs. The College Church offers both a traditional religious education (RE) program and a Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS) program. The RE program is available for children second through eighth grade. The CGS program is offered for children from preschool through sixth grade. You may be put on a waiting list for the CGS program.

Classes meet at 9:15 on Sunday morning in the College Church and in Davis-Shaughnessy Hall, just west of the Pius XII Library. RE classes conclude at 10:20, GCS classes go until 11:15 with children brought to their parents during the 10:30 Mass.

Both programs are based on Ignatian Spirituality, with an emphasis on God's unconditional love, and on the importance of service. The programs use the Examen to reflect on each day's opportunity to be Christ-like in daily activities.

RE classes are organized by grade level and operate in a more traditional classroom setting. CGS classes are Montessori-based, with multi-aged groupings, and they encourage children to grow in their faith life through individual experience. Children in both programs receive sacraments in second and eighth grade.

For more information about these programs contact Julie Kilian at julie.kilian4@gmail.com or Terry Edlmann at terry@sfxstl.org.

A Thought on The Sanctity Of Life

"In modern times, children in their mothers' wombs and those approaching the end of their lives are certainly among the 'least of these' in our world's estimation. Practices such as abortion and assisted suicide tragically reject the truth that human life is always to be cherished and defended with loving concern. ... Through the intercession of Our Lady of Guadalupe, may Our Lord grant us the grace to truly and courageously live his Gospel of life."

Men of the Cathedral

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

Men of the Cathedral invite all men and women of the parishioners and all visitors to join in the Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament on June 28th in the Cathedral. Adoration will begin sharply at 6 PM.

Monsignor Breier will be away on a much-deserved holiday and we will be blessed to have Fr. Joseph Jiang, the founder of the Men of the Cathedral, with us to officiate our evening of Adoration.

For those who have shared this amazing evening, please invite your friends and family. For those of you who have hesitated as you may not be a registered parishioner or you do not know others in the parish, this is your invitation to engage with our Lord and your fellow Catholics.

Our numbers are growing and there is plenty of room in the Cathedral, so let's fill all the kneelers to thank Him giving us eternal life as well as all of our personal causes.

After Adoration, all men are invited to move to Boland Hall for dinner and fellowship.

Please RSVP to Michael Weisbrod at 314.918.2893 or michael.weisbrod@rcfstl.org by Monday, June 27th. The suggested offering for the evening is $ 20 per attendee payable at the dinner.

Weekly Thoughts on Giving

"But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth..." (JOHN 16:13)

It has been said that the best gift we can give someone is to teach them how to pray. If you don't talk and more importantly, listen, to God every day, how else will you know what He is calling you to do? Just as you talk to family and friends every day, get in the habit of talking with God every day. Develop a daily prayer routine. Keep your prayers simple and sincere. This is best done in silence, when you can hear His response.
