WELCOME TO OUR VISITORS

Archbishop Mitchell T. Rozanski and the people of the Archdiocese of St. Louis welcome you and hope that your time in our Mother Church may be an opportunity to share our faith and joy in Jesus Christ.

Please enjoy the beauty of this building dedicated to the glory of God and built for the inspiration of all who enter. Public tours of the Cathedral led by volunteer guides are available by appointment.

All visitors who are not of the Catholic faith are welcome to join us in prayer, but not to receive Holy Communion. Reception of Holy Communion is a sign of unity of faith and full membership in the Catholic community. Together let us pray for the eventual unity of all believers.

If you desire to become a member of the Catholic Church or to become a member of the Cathedral Basilica Parish, please complete a registration card, available at the entrances the church.

All contributions to the Cathedral Basilica parish, ministries, and maintenance are sincerely appreciated.

FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Many thanks to you all for the very warm welcome you extended to our missionary priest, Fr. Anthony Bautista, this past weekend. Father is very grateful for your generosity to support the work of his order and the missions.

I love the words of Jesus to the man in our Gospel who desired eternal life. They form a question, "And who is my neighbor?" which then occasions Jesus to tell the man a parable that is one of the more famous parables, the Good Samaritan.

It is one that is familiar to us and contains four individuals that each have a differing response to the person in need. A Jewish priest, a man of deep religious convictions who served in the Temple at Jerusalem. A Levite, also a religious person with connections to the Temple. A Samaritan, a traveler who is apparently on business. Samaritans were regarded by devout Jews as outsiders, heretics and people not to be seen in the company. Lastly, an unknown man, beaten up by robbers on the roadside was presumably a Jew but not necessarily. All that matters is that he is a human being in great need of help.

In such a situation, the response that is expected/demanded by the Gospel is clear. Forget about your status in society. Forget about what people might say about you. Forget about your personal fears and desires that turn you in on yourself.

The Gospel also tells us to forget about the moral condition of the person to be helped. It is totally irrelevant how the man got into the situation. Maybe he was stupid to be traveling alone with money on a notoriously dangerous road. Think of the person today that you have dismissed leaving him or her on the roadside.

For Jesus, none of this counts. In the story, the need of the injured man, a complete stranger, has a higher priority than the needs of the other three. What they fail to realize is that a child of God and their brother is lying there on the road and in need. "As often as you do it to one of these the least of my brothers and sisters you did it to ME" says Jesus.

This parable touches all our lives deeply. In honestly answering the question, "Who is my neighbor?", I can learn a great deal about the kind of person I am, the kind of neighbor I am.

A Thought on The Sanctity Of Life

“Because of our belief and hope in the Resurrection, we can face death not with fear, but with preparation.... We prepare for eternal life by choosing to love and follow God now, in our daily lives and decisions.”

Infant Baptism

According to the mind of the Church, parents are obliged to see that infants are baptized within the first weeks after birth. As soon as possible after the birth, or even before it, parents should request the sacrament for their child and are to be properly instructed in preparation for it. Godparents are also encouraged to have baptismal preparation before the child is born. If you are a registered parishioner who is or is about to become a parent or godparent, contact the parish office at 314-373-8202 to schedule a baptism.

Weekly Thoughts on Giving

"...I am a minister in accordance with God's stewardship given to me to bring to completion for you the word of God." COLOSSIANS 1:25

We are all called to evangelize – to convert individuals and society by the divine power of the Gospel. Our faith is more attractive to others by our actions than by our words alone. We may not be called to evangelize like St. Paul, but we should look for opportunities to share our faith through our actions and words, especially with those closest to us, like our family, friends and neighbors. Pray for the courage to joyfully express your faith the next time the opportunity arises.
