WELCOME TO OUR VISITORS

Archbishop Mitchell T. Rozanski and the people of the Archdiocese of St. Louis welcome you and hope that your time in our Mother Church may be an opportunity to share our faith and joy in Jesus Christ.

Please enjoy the beauty of this building dedicated to the glory of God and built for the inspiration of all who enter. Public tours of the Cathedral led by volunteer guides are available by appointment.

All visitors who are not of the Catholic faith are welcome to join us in prayer, but not to receive Holy Communion. Reception of Holy Communion is a sign of unity of faith and full membership in the Catholic community. Together let us pray for the eventual unity of all believers.

If you desire to become a member of the Catholic Church or to become a member of the Cathedral Basilica Parish, please complete a registration card, available at the entrances the church.

All contributions to the Cathedral Basilica parish, ministries, and maintenance are sincerely appreciated.

FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

This week a new staff member joined the Cathedral Basilica team as our Office Manager. His name is Andrew Specht. In this role, he will oversee the publication of our weekly bulletin, weekly giving records, and sacramental records and offer support to the many other functions in the parish. Since I arrived at the Cathedral Basilica, I have been impressed by the team assembled. They support one another and are so dedicated to the parish's mission. Please join me in extending to Andrew a warm Cathedral welcome.

Please mark your calendar for our Annual Blue Mass celebrated on Sunday, September 11, at the 10:00 am Mass. During this Mass, we will honor those employed in the public safety field, including police officers, firefighters, paramedics, and corrections officers. Archbishop Rozanski will be the main celebrant for this Mass, and if you cannot make it to the Cathedral, you can join the live stream of the Mass at Cathedralstl.org/live.

At this time last year, the Cathedral was abuzz with activity as we celebrated the Installation of Archbishop Rozanski. It was not your typical Installation as we had to limit capacity, wear masks, and practice social distancing. We had over 4,000 viewing the Mass on our Livestream and this number does not count the many that watched on EWTN.

During these 2 years, the Archbishop has been busy visiting a parish every weekend. These pastoral visits are instrumental for him in building relationships and getting to know the Archdiocese. Please continue to pray for his ministry as our Chief Shepherd.

ARCHBISHOP'S COLUMN

Dying & Rising with Jesus is the Goal of our Lives as Christians

ARCHBISHOP

SERVE THE LORD
WITH GLADNESS

The organizational dying & rising with Jesus of All Things New is a part of the rhythm of the life of faith.

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

We turn the page from August to September this week. With Labor Day weekend coming up — the unofficial end of summer — we probably all have the turning of the seasons in mind.

It's a beautiful thing, how we give ourselves to each season: celebrating each, then letting go of each and moving on to the next season.

In a similar way, we enter the mysteries of Jesus' life throughout the liturgical year: Advent and Christmas, Lent and Easter, long stretches of Ordinary Time. And it's not just the liturgical year. With baptism we actually enter into the dying and rising of Jesus. Then, really, with our whole lives we enter into that dying and rising as well. (The older we are, the better we know this!)

It's a helpful way to think about what we're going through with All Things New. It's not the sacramental dying and rising with Jesus that happens in baptism — though that's a part of our faith life. It's not the individual spiritual dying and rising with Jesus that takes place in each of our lives — though that's part of our faith life as well. This is more of an organizational dying and rising with Jesus — which is new to many of us, but is equally a part of the rhythm of the life of faith.

Dying and rising with Jesus is the whole goal of our lives as Christians. Every Holy Week, we very deliberately give ourselves to that dying and rising. Well this year is, organizationally, like a long Holy Week.

We know the rhythm of the seasons, which allows us to celebrate each, let go and move on. We know the rhythm of Holy Week, which allows us to enter into the dying of Jesus, because we know it's the passage into his resurrection. I hope we can enter just as deliberately into the organizational dying and rising we'll experience this year.

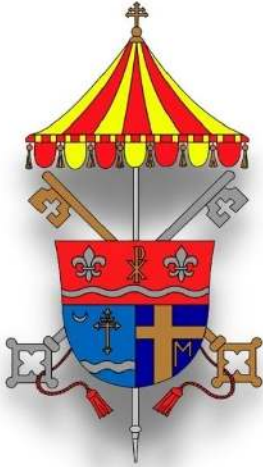

"When the days for His being taken up were fulfilled, He resolutely determined to journey to Jerusalem." (Luke 9:51) We begin reading the Gospel of Luke this week, and we'll be reading in right up until Advent starts in late November. Much of Luke — chapters 9 through 19 — is taken up with Jesus' journey to Jerusalem. In other words, the better part of the Gospel is concerned with building the momentum that carries Jesus into Jerusalem, and the dying and rising that take place there.

I believe that same kind of momentum can carry us through this year. But it will only work if we determine, resolutely, to make the journey. Our resolution can be strengthened by knowing that dying and rising is the history of Jesus' mystical body (the Church) just as sure as it was the history of His physical body.

RCIA

Have you ever thought about becoming a Catholic?
Do you know someone who might be interested in becoming Catholic?
Are you interested in finding out more about the Catholic Church?
Is your spouse, fiancé, neighbor, or friend interested?

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (or RCIA) enables those who are interested in the Catholic faith to “find out what it is all about”.

Most often, people come because they are invited.

Be the voice of Christ and offer the first invitation to someone you know who might be interested in the Catholic faith!

RCIA is for persons who have never been baptized, were baptized in another Christian tradition, or were baptized Catholic but have never celebrated Confirmation or received First Communion.

Anyone who is interested in deepening their understanding of the Catholic faith is also invited to attend!

The 2022-23 RCIA session will begin on Sunday, September 11.

STEWARDSHIP ALIVE!

Men of the Cathedral

August Adoration

The Men of the Cathedral cordially invite all parishioners and visitors to join them with Adoration of the Holy Eucharist on Tuesday, Aug 30 at 6 PM. We will meet in the Nave of the Cathedral Basilica.

We are gratified to see more people joining us for Adoration, both men and women; parishioners and visitors who have heard of the evening and seek a closer relationship with Christ.

So many among us are suffering silently. If this is you, or you are praying for someone with a special intention, please join us in personal prayer at Adoration to ask God to intercede and aid those who may feel along and without hope.

Adoration will begin promptly at 6 PM. Confessions will be heard during Adoration.

All men are invited to drinks, dinner, and fellowship in Boland Hall immediately after the conclusion of Adoration. A suggested donation of $20 is appreciated.

For dinner reservations, please contact Michael Weisbrod at 314.918.2893 or michael.weisbrod@rcfstl.org by Monday, Aug 29th.

Women of the Cathedral

Dear Cathedral Parish Ladies,

Come grow in faith and fellowship together with other parish ladies at the monthly gatherings of the Women of the Cathedral.

On Saturday, September 3, 2022, Labor Day weekend, we will begin with 8am Mass in the Cathedral, and then go to Boland Hall for a light breakfast hosted by two gracious hosting ladies ("the coffee pot never goes empty"). After brief introductions, an informative program will be led by Msgr. Mikesch, our spiritual director, with closing prayer at 10am.

Our August gathering was a delight with many new voices around the table, and Eckert's bakery goods from one of our generous ladies on our plates. There was light-hearted sharing how and why many of us text (too funny), and seriously, why we may leave a vacant chair at for Elijah when we meet next, the depth of prayer in our hearts when praying to each Person of the Trinity, and more from the spiritual masters for our own spiritual journeys.

For more information and to RSVP for the breakfast, please text or phone Barbara Murray at 314-974-6900 or email murraybj@swbell.net by August 31, 2022. We also collect questions for "Ask Msgr Time" when you RSVP.

Anima Christi Young Adults

This week there will be a meeting on Thursday, September 1st. We will meet in the church at 6:30pm for Holy Hour followed by dinner in Boland Hall.

Weekly Thoughts on Giving

"Rather, when you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you." Luke 14:13-14

One of the main principles of living a stewardship life-style is to give without expecting anything in return. This is difficult for some to comprehend in our "consumerist" culture that we live in. This is even difficult for many parish communities that have become heavily dependent on parish fundraising events to support the mission and ministry of their local parish. Generally speaking, at a parish fundraiser, you pay money and receive something in return, it's just a financial transaction. This is opposed to our parish offertory at Holy Mass, where you unite your sacrifice with Jesus', renewing our covenant relationship with Him.
