WELCOME TO OUR VISITORS

Archbishop Mitchell T. Rozanski and the people of the Archdiocese of St. Louis welcome you and hope that your time in our Mother Church may be an opportunity to share our faith and joy in Jesus Christ.

Please enjoy the beauty of this building dedicated to the glory of God and built for the inspiration of all who enter. Public tours of the Cathedral led by volunteer guides are available by appointment.

All visitors who are not of the Catholic faith are welcome to join us in prayer, but not to receive Holy Communion. Reception of Holy Communion is a sign of unity of faith and full membership in the Catholic community. Together let us pray for the eventual unity of all believers.

If you desire to become a member of the Catholic Church or to become a member of the Cathedral Basilica Parish, please complete a registration card, available at the entrances the church.

All contributions to the Cathedral Basilica parish, ministries, and maintenance are sincerely appreciated.

FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Part of the ministry of the priests of the Cathedral Parish is to provide Last Rites for sacramental emergencies at Barnes Hospital when their priest on duty is unavailable. On average, we receive a call, on our sacramental emergency line, about 2-3 times per week. This past Sunday, I received a call to visit a patient who underwent bypass surgery and whom I had anointed the week prior. Every visit with a patient is different, and I am never sure what I will discuss.

On this particular day, we chatted for a bit, and after we prayed together, she wanted to share with me a specific prayer she prayed each morning. This prayer was from a tattered old prayer book from the 1950s, and you could tell from the wear and tear it had seen a lot of use. But, for whatever reason, this particular prayer struck me, and I would like to share it with you.

The morning light is breaking, Lord,
Another day is here,
Life's problems must again be met,
With heart and vision clear.

Strength for today I ask, dear Lord,
Strength only for today;
Renew my faith, my hope revive,
Illume my skies of gray.

For yesterday is past, dear Lord,
tomorrow I may never see,
Today alone lies in my grasp
To use or lose - eternally.

Help me lend a helping hand,
To dry the falling tear,
To give to all whose lives touch mine
Some comfort or good cheer.

Help to sink my poor weak self
with its longing, hopes and fears,
In service to my fellow-man,
As I pass through this vale of tears.

Just for today, Lord - day by day
Courage and strength I pray;
Garnering the good, forgiving the wrong,
till I've lived my last today

Just a quick reminder to sign up for a Listening Session for the All Things New strategic planning initiative. You will find more information in this week's bulletin.

Diversity that is rooted in the Body of Christ contributes to growth

ARCHBISHOP

SERVE THE LORD
WITH GLADNESS

The examples of saints this week challenge us to ask questions in more fruitful ways

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

What a lineup of saints we have this week!

We celebrate the feast of St. Vincent De Paul on September 27 — one of the great patron saints of charitable works. (He's also one of the patron saints of the archdiocese: the chapel at the Curia is named in his honor, the seminary was run and staffed for over 170 years by Vincentians!)

We celebrate the feast of St. Wenceslaus on September 28 — known as a great Christian ruler.
We celebrate the feast of St. Jerome on September 30 — one of the Church's great Scripture scholars.
We celebrate the feast of St. Therese of Lisieux on October 1 — one of the great patron saints of prayer.
Charity (St. Vincent), implementation of Christian faith in policy (St. Wenceslaus), Bible study (St. Jerome), and prayer (St. Therese) — it sounds like the blueprint of a vibrant parish life!

There are three lessons I'd like to consider from the saints we celebrate this week.

First, in relation to diversity.

The world presents diversity as an absolute value: "all diversity is good." The Church, however, thinks of diversity in relation to the Body of Christ. There's a diversity that is rooted in the Body of Christ, and contributes to the growth of the Body of Christ. That's the diversity we see in this week's saints. But there's also a diversity of sin in the world — a diversity that separates us from the Body of Christ. We have only to watch the news to see this kind of diversity! The saints this week challenge us to think of diversity in a deeper way.

Second, in relation to suffering.

We're reading from the book of Job all week, and Job represents all the suffering of humanity. What does it take to address that suffering? Charity. Policies that reflect Christian values. A deeper relationship with the Bible. Prayer. Precisely the things we see in this week's saints! This week's saints provide a template for responding to the needs of the world, especially the suffering of the world.

Finally, in relation to All Things New.

As we begin to consider changes in our parishes and schools, we can ask ourselves this question: can we foster that kind of diversity for the sake of mission, the kind of diversity we see in the saints? If we ask that question — rather than simply "can we keep this building open?" — then we'll be asking a more fruitful question to guide our change.

SEPTEMBER 25, 2022

register for a LISTENING SESSION

allthingsnew.archstl.org

Thanks to all of you who have participated in the All Things New surveys and provided data and feedback over the past few months. The information has been enlightening, educational and fruitful as we continue to ask ourselves what our parishes, ministries and institutions need to look like in order to effectively share our Catholic faith in a way that is suitable and sustainable for our children and generations to come.

The next step in this multi-year process is to hear more robustly from you, our parishioners, about our parish. The Archdiocese of St. Louis will host over 350 listening sessions throughout our 178 parishes between October 8 - November 19, 2022. Our Parish Listening Sessions, for the Cathedral Basilica of St. Louis, will be Saturday, November 5, 2022 from 9:00 a.m. - 11:00 a.m. and Wednesday, November 7, 2022 from 6:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m. You are invited to register for our listening sessions beginning mid-September at <https://allthingsnew.archstl.org/>.

Parishioners must register in order to attend a Listening Session. Registration will close once the designated room's seating capacity is reached. There will not be additional opportunities for Listening Sessions other than the ones scheduled for each parish.

Each listening session, including ours, will be facilitated by volunteer parishioners from a different parish. These trained facilitators will share pre-recorded messages from Archbishop Rozanski and Fr. Chris Martin, Vicar for Strategic Planning, with an overview of All Things New, a planning area overview and multiple DRAFT model options to consider for our respective planning area. A brief time will be allowed for small group discussion and facilitated large group feedback.

The goals of the listening sessions are to engage as many of you as possible in understanding the current state of our parish and diocese and to solicit feedback from as many of you as possible about the DRAFT models options for their planning area.

After the final listening session in each planning area, the Archdiocese of St. Louis will make public the content presented at all the parish's Listening Sessions in that planning area and will offer an additional opportunity for parishioners to provide open-ended feedback through an online survey. The survey will remain open until December 31, 2022. Parishioner feedback to the models is critical, as it will be used to help shape the future of the Archdiocese of St. Louis.

In order for you to be fully prepared with accurate information before our parish listening sessions, you will receive access to our Parish Workbook.

The Archdiocese of St. Louis has created Parish Workbooks as a supplementary resource to help us prepare for the listening sessions. The workbooks are meant to equip us with data about the Archdiocese of St. Louis, our local planning area, and our specific parish. Our Parish Workbook is posted on allthingsnew.archstl.org for anyone to view.

Please continue to pray for the gift of true discernment so that we may continue to do the Will of God in all things.

Women of the Cathedral

Dear Cathedral Parish Ladies,

Come grow in faith and fellowship together with other parish ladies at monthly gatherings of the Women of the Cathedral.

On Saturday, October 1, 2022 we will begin with 8:00 a.m. Mass in the Cathedral, and then go to Boland Hall for a light breakfast hosted by our gracious ladies. After brief introductions and social time, an informative program will be led by Msgr. Mikesch, our spiritual director, with closing prayer at 10:00 a.m. A popular highlight is "Ask Msgr. Mikesch Time."

At our September gathering the concerns about Limbo and Purgatory were on our minds. We reflected on the promise and wideness of God's mercy to calm our anxious hearts. God's mercy can touch anyone's heart if a person is open to receive.

To learn more and to RSVP for the breakfast, please text or phone Barbara Murray at 314-974-6900 or email murraybj@swbell.net by September 28, 2022. Send questions for "Ask Msgr. Time" when you RSVP.

P.S. Many thanks to the ladies (Latonja, Louise, Marie, Nicki, Pat, Suzanne, and Trish) who hosted at the Parish "Donut Sunday" in September! Fourteen dozen donuts were served to all. We were delighted by the young children choosing their favorites. Jelly, custard, glazed, and cinnamon twist donuts were among our favorites.

Men of the Cathedral

September Adoration

The Men of the Cathedral cordially invite all parishioners and visitors to join them with Adoration of the Holy Eucharist on Tuesday, September 27th at 6 PM. We will meet in the Nave of the Cathedral Basilica.

We are gratified to have the opportunity to share the joy of Adoration with everyone...men and women, parishioners and visitors!

Summer is now behind us so we should turn ourselves toward self-improvement in anticipation of the upcoming Christmas season. Adoration will begin promptly at 6 PM.

Confessions will be heard during Adoration. All are welcome for Adoration! All men are invited to drinks and dinner in Boland Hall immediately after the conclusion of Adoration. A suggested donation of $20 is appreciated.

We will have a guest speaker, Deacon Keating speaking on "Deepening our Prayer Life"

For dinner reservations, please contact Michael Weisbrod at 314.918.2893 or michael.weisbrod@rcfstl.org by Monday, September 26th.

Weekly Thoughts on Giving

"My child, remember that you received what was good during your lifetime while Lazarus likewise received what was bad; but now he is comforted here, whereas you are tormented. Moreover, between us and you a great chasm is established..." Luke 16:25-26

When God created the world He declared that it was good and He gave it to all mankind for us to enjoy. However, over the years we have created a chasm between those who have great gifts and those who do not. In today's Gospel we see that with our own generosity we must bridge that gap between those who have much and those who have little or we may find ourselves on the wrong side of the chasm in the next life.
