FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

During this past week, we celebrated Thanksgiving. Some of us were able to gather with our families, many of us were not. But in either case, the holiday still gave us pause to recall the many blessings that God has bestowed on us. While this celebration is a secular feast, it reminds us all of the importance of giving thanks to Our Heavenly Father for all He does for us and to thank all those in our lives we take for granted. Saying our thanks indicates how important they are to us and confirms our love for them.

We have now entered into the Advent Season. It is, above all, a season of preparation by means of purification. The words of Saint John the Baptist, which express his mission in the world, uncover the meaning of our Advent observance: "Prepare the way of the Lord, make His paths straight." (Mt 3:3) Even as Saint John the Baptist prepared the way of our Lord's coming into the world in time, so too we get ready to welcome our Lord more completely into our lives now. We may then be ready to welcome Him finally and fully on the day of His coming in glory at the end of time.

How do we prepare ourselves for the coming of the Lord? Over the next four weeks, we will be spending much of our time decorating our homes, writing Christmas cards, and purchasing gifts for our loved ones. These are all things we do to prepare to celebrate Christmas day with great joy. To experience even greater joy, you and I must prepare ourselves. As we prepare our homes, so we prepare our souls.

Here are a few simple suggestions for Advent:

Time for Silent Prayer each day – (perhaps Eucharistic Adoration)
 Receive Holy Communion – Daily if possible
 Time for Spiritual Reading
 Pray the Rosary
 Examine your Conscience
 Go to Confession

These are only suggestions and you can employ all or just one of them. Increasing your prayer life will help each one of us make the promises and prayers of the Advent Season more intense. Thus, we will become more ready to welcome the Child of Bethlehem. It is He who shows us the truth of a God who reveals Himself in weakness and humility.

ARCHBISHOP'S COLUMN

Advent offers us anticipation amid the darkness

ARCHBISHOP
ROZANSKI

SERVE THE LORD WITH GLADNESS

We may not know what the next steps will hold, but we can approach them with hope

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Welcome to Advent!

We all know what it's like to walk into a darkness that's filled with fear.

Advent, however, offers us a different experience: darkness that's filled with anticipation.

I'd like to pause there and reflect on the combination of darkness and anticipation, because our readings from Isaiah all week reflect this theme.

Isaiah's context was certainly one of darkness! Moral and religious corruption characterized the internal situation of Israel; political and military threats characterized the external situation. And yet, at this very moment of darkness, Isaiah's message was filled with hope. Some of the most beautiful prophecies of the Messiah were spoken in this context.

Almost 50 times this week, we hear Isaiah say "will" or "shall" with respect to the blessings the Lord will bestow on Israel. Six times he gives a picture of what will happen "on that day." For example: "On that day ... there shall be no harm or ruin on all my holy mountain, for the earth shall be filled with knowledge of the Lord." He fills us with anticipation when he announces: "But a very little while, and Lebanon shall be changed into an orchard, and the orchard regarded as a forest."

We see something similar in the feast of St. Andrew, which we celebrate this week (Nov. 30). When Jesus called Peter and Andrew, and then James and John, they left everything and followed Him. There was a certain kind of darkness there: they certainly didn't know all the contours of what they were signing up for! Still, they were drawn, and drawn with joy. It strikes me that this very combination characterizes the couple who approaches the altar to be married, or the couple who is about to give birth to their first child. The darkness of not knowing is filled with anticipation.

I think all of these things offer us a paradigm for approaching All Things New in the coming months. We've finished our listening sessions. Now, we continue the work of planning. And there's a certain kind of darkness: We don't know what the next steps will hold.

How will we approach that darkness?

We can approach it with fear and anxiety. We know how to do that! But it will make the coming months long and counter-productive.

Instead, I propose that we approach the coming months with an attitude shaped by Advent, Isaiah and St. Andrew. I think we know how to do that, too! This week, as Advent starts, let's build our habit of approaching darkness with hope and anticipation.

Women of the Cathedral

Women of the Cathedral– December 3, 2022

Dear Ladies of the Cathedral Parish,

Come grow in faith and fellowship together with other ladies in the parish at the monthly gatherings of the Women of the Cathedral.

We will gather next on Saturday, December 3, 2022. We begin with 8am Mass in the Cathedral, and then move to Boland Hall for a light breakfast. After brief introductions and social time, an informative program is led by Msgr. Mikesch, our spiritual director, with closing prayer at 10am. A popular highlight is “Ask Msgr. Mikesch Time.”

At our last gathering the ladies shared with each other a male and female they feel close to and pray to, this being part of a living tradition linking many faithful men and women who have gone before us.

To learn more and RSVP for breakfast, contact Barbara Murray at 314-974-6900 or email murraybj@swbell.net by November 30, 2022. Please send your questions for “Ask Msgr. Time” when you

"Having received the gift of the Gospel of Life, we are the people of life and a people for life. It is our duty to proclaim the Gospel of Life to the world. To proclaim Jesus is to proclaim life itself. Gratitude and joy at the incomparable dignity of the human person impel us to bring the Gospel of life to the hearts of all people and make it penetrate every part of society."

Weekly Thoughts on Giving

"Therefore, stay awake! For you do not know on which day your Lord will come." Matthew 24:42

People who have had health issues or near-death experiences generally have a greater appreciation for each day being a gift from God. The rest of us usually take for granted that we will be around tomorrow. But when you start to look at each day as a gift, you realize all the little miracles that happen daily and you begin to see God's active presence in your life. You grow in gratitude, each day, for all that we have been given.
