WELCOME TO OUR VISITORS

Archbishop Mitchell T. Rozanski and the people of the Archdiocese of St. Louis welcome you and hope that your time in our Mother Church may be an opportunity to share our faith and joy in Jesus Christ.

Please enjoy the beauty of this building dedicated to the glory of God and built for the inspiration of all who enter. Public tours of the Cathedral led by volunteer guides are available by appointment.

All visitors who are not of the Catholic faith are welcome to join us in prayer, but not to receive Holy Communion. Reception of Holy Communion is a sign of unity of faith and full membership in the Catholic community. Together let us pray for the eventual unity of all believers.

If you desire to become a member of the Catholic Church or to become a member of the Cathedral Basilica Parish, please complete a registration card, available at the entrances the church.

All contributions to the Cathedral Basilica parish, ministries, and maintenance are sincerely appreciated.

FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Let me begin this week's bulletin article by asserting that the Cathedral Basilica Parish is diverse and vibrant. The Annual Report to the parish included in this week's bulletin shows robust numbers. We are blessed with 642 registered households and approximately 1,600 attendees at weekend Masses, which has consistently grown as we have come out of the pandemic. Andrew Kreigh, our new Director of Sacred Music, is working to rebuild both the parish and Archdiocesan choirs. We have seen an increase in sacramental activity: 42 baptisms, 23 First Eucharists, 29 Confirmations, and 44 Marriages.

Our RCIA program, headed by Father Povis and Dr. Feingold, has also grown. This year we have 29 men and women preparing to come into the church at the 2023 Easter Vigil. I would like to express my gratitude to Fr. Povis for our new continuing education series entitled: "What Catholics Believe." It has already grown to 50 participants.

We constantly seek to be responsible stewards of the financial resources that our parishioners commit to the work of our ministries and the care and maintenance of our parish facilities. The Cathedral receives funding from the Archdiocese for Archdiocesan Ceremonies and some preservation and maintenance expenses. Our primary source of funding for parish operations and ministries comes from your offertory gifts. The funds we raise together as a community support our liturgical worship and pastoral costs, as well as our spiritual and sacramental ministries.

Overall our ordinary parish revenue was $2,321,096, which is about the same as last year FY 2021. Parish expenditures also remained flat and amounted to $2,300,296. These numbers do not reflect the Extraordinary Income raised through our 2021 Annual Gala, which amounted to $2,641,314. I am very grateful for one very generous donor, a Friend of the Cathedral, who learned of our needs and contributed $2 million of this amount. These monies do not go to the normal operation of the parish but are for Extraordinary Expenses, which include but are not limited to the roof and façade preservation, estimated at $2.6 million, and the completion of the interior/exterior lighting.

I would like to express my gratitude to our parish ministries because we cannot be a great parish without everyone working together. As we make our way through this fiscal year, I ask that we commit ourselves to be the disciples Christ calls us to be in our daily lives.

Thank you for your continued generosity to the Cathedral Basilica. As we continue to re-build the life of the parish and address long-term maintenance needs, your support is essential.

ARCHBISHOP'S COLUMN

How well do we bring Christ to others?

ARCHBISHOP MITCHELL
ROZANSKI

SERVE THE LORD
WITH GLADNESS

Like Our Lady of Guadalupe, we're called to bring the Good News of Christ out to the world

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

This week we celebrate the feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe (Dec. 12).

Fittingly, one of the Gospel options for the day is the Visitation (Luke 1:39-47).

Why is it fitting? Because at the Visitation, Mary brought Jesus to the house of Zechariah and Elizabeth, and John the Baptist leapt for joy in his mother's womb — both recognizing and proclaiming the presence of the Savior. In a similar way — but in the dimension of history, rather than physically — Our Lady of Guadalupe brought Christ to the Americas, and the people of Mexico leapt for joy. Millions converted to the faith within a decade of the apparition.

In light of our celebration of the feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe, this would be a good question for us: How do we bring Christ to others in a way that makes them leap for joy?

There's a simple liturgical gesture that often goes unnoticed but deserves some reflection: The Book of Gospels is carried in procession into Mass, and then at the end of Mass, it's not carried back out. The omission is deliberate. Why is that?

One of the reasons that the Book of Gospels isn't carried out is that the people, having received Christ in word and sacrament, are supposed to carry the Gospel out in themselves.

The question is, are we doing that as deliberately as we could?

I'm not going to propose that there's only one way to do it. Think about the different charisms that people have; those charisms show that there are different ways to carry Christ's life within ourselves. Think about different religious orders; those orders show that there are different ways to carry Christ into the world. Read the Nativity stories of Matthew and Luke; in God's plan Joseph and Mary each have crucial — but very different — roles to play in providing a home for Christ in the world. All of that teaches a lesson: In God's plan there's tremendous freedom in how each of us can carry the Gospel into the world.

But if I'm not going to propose that there's only one way to do it, I will propose that we haven't been as deliberate as we might be in actually doing it. We haven't done a good job carrying the Gospel out into the world — into our friendships, families, neighborhoods and workplaces. Ask yourself this question: When is the last time I had a real conversation with someone about their relationship with God or my relationship with God, outside of Church?

One of our goals with All Things New is to become more deliberate about completing our part in the deliberate liturgical omission when the Book of Gospels is not carried out of the Church. May we all become more like Our Lady of Guadalupe, bringing the Good News of Christ out to the world in ourselves.

A Thought on The Sanctity Of Life

“Jesus calls each of us to ‘care for the other as a person for whom God has made us responsible’ (EV 87). ...The encyclical The Gospel of Life recognizes the full range of threats against human life, from poverty and malnutrition to murder and war. Particular emphasis, however, is placed on threats to life at its beginning and end—precisely when it is most in need of protection. In modern times, children in their mothers’ wombs and those approaching the end of their lives are certainly among the ‘least of these’ in our world’s estimation.”
