FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

In scripture, as Jesus was about to die, he speaks to Mary and his beloved disciple John: “Woman, behold your son.” Then he says to John, “Behold your Mother.” And from that hour the disciple took her into his home. (John 19:26-27). St. John takes Mary into his home, or into his care, as some translations put it, and from this time Jesus gives Mary to us as our mother and us to her as her children.

Mary is a great model and example for us and especially for parents who are watched by their children as their behavior is observed. Certainly, through her “yes” to the angel consenting God’s plan, Mary is a great model of faith and trust in God. She believed and allowed God to work through her to change the course of human history. Mary said “yes” to the unknown and opened her very being to God’s work in her life.

This was a life not free of pain and sorrow, as the seven sorrows of Mary attest. Woman of faith and courage that she was, she was able to face and persevere through these trials. Fr. Bertran Buby, SM, refers to Mary’s “listening heart” in his writings. This is a great description of Mary’s openness to God and how she reflected on the challenges of life in the context of discerning God’s will.

So often in our lives, we feel the need to respond and react immediately without following the model Mary has given us through her “listening heart.” All we have to do is take a look at various social media postings that display negative and destructive use of language, and we see us at our worst.

As we continue through the month of May and celebrate and honor Mary and her role in our faith history, we can also take time to reflect on how she is a model for us. Mary gives us a great example and witness of how to reflect upon and act on the movement of God in our lives.

ARCHBISHOP'S COLUMN

Placing ourselves fully into God's hands

Surrendering parish life to God may not seem easy, but it's beautiful

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

When St. Paul first traveled to Ephesus, he asked the people there if they had received the Holy Spirit. They answered: "We have never even heard that there is a Holy Spirit." The reaction of many people to our recent Evangelization 101 workshops was similar: "We've never heard this before!"

Part of people's surprise is rooted in disappointment: "This isn't complicated. Why have we never heard it before?" Part of their surprise is rooted in delight: "We can do this!" Part of their surprise is rooted in hope: "This could be a game changer for parish life."

That's exactly my hope as we prepare to celebrate Pentecost: that this Pentecost — including the announcement of the parish plans for All Things New — will be the beginning of a renewal of parish life in the Archdiocese of St. Louis.

Here's another thing about Paul's visit to Ephesus: The Acts of the Apostles tells us that, when Paul prayed for them and the Holy Spirit fell upon them, "altogether there were about 12 men." In other words, it's OK for things to start small! We held 18 Evangelization 101 workshops, which were attended by more than 2,000 people. I pray that this is just a small beginning to something that will blossom in the coming years — as it did for the early Church in Ephesus. In addition to hearing about the beginning of Paul's visit to Ephesus this week, we also hear about his departure three months later. He left Ephesus for Jerusalem and would eventually leave Jerusalem for Rome, where he would win the martyr's crown.

Two features of Paul's departure can be helpful for us this week as we prepare for the announcement of the final plan for parishes.

First is a simple human fact: Saying goodbye is a regular feature of our lives. People graduate. People come and go from work. People die. To grow in wisdom requires that we become skillful at saying goodbye. The Christian conviction that life doesn't end with death, but changes, can help us acquire this wisdom — not only for individual life, but for parish life.

Second is the pattern of surrender. As St. Paul departed Ephesus for Jerusalem and Rome, he surrendered himself totally to God. He could move on with peace because he knew he was following the pattern of Jesus' dying and rising.

Many of us, in our individual lives, know what that surrender is like. In one way or another, we've placed our lives totally in the hands of God and have experienced some dying and rising ourselves.

But, again, this pattern of surrender is just as applicable to parish life as it is to any individual life. It's a beautiful thing to follow Jesus and surrender our parish life to God — not easy, but beautiful!

Can we learn to die and rise in parish life, just as many of us have learned to do in our individual lives? That will be a crucial question for us in the coming months.

The Gospel of the Lord

The eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had ordered them. When they saw him they worshipped, but they doubted. Then Jesus approached and said to them, "All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of age."

Matthew 28:16-20

Sacrament of Baptism

Congratulations to Kyrill Aleksandrovich Pshichenko son of Aleksandr & Briana Pshichenko baptized in Christ on Sunday, May 14, 2023 here at the Cathedral Basilica.

May the blessing of the Lord be always upon him, and may God watch over and cherish all children whom He has blessed with the grace of Baptism.

Women of the Cathedral

Women of the Cathedral– June 10, 2023 (Second Saturday in June)

Dear Ladies of the Cathedral Parish,

Come grow in faith and fellowship with other ladies in the parish at the monthly gatherings of the Women of the Cathedral.

Our next gathering is on Saturday, June 10, 2023. Note: This is the week after our usual first Saturday gathering date due to a scheduling conflict. We will begin with 8am Mass in the Cathedral, and then go to Boland Hall for light breakfast. After brief introductions and social time, an informative program is led by Msgr. Mikesch, our spiritual director, with closing prayer at 10am. An ongoing highlight is “Ask Msgr. Mikesch Time.”

To learn more and RSVP for breakfast, contact Barbara Murray at 314-974-6900 or email murraybj@swbell.net by June 7, 2023. Please send your questions for “Ask Msgr. Time” when you RSVP.

The Great Commission

Go, therefore, and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church, states that the Sacrament of Confirmation: “gives us a special strength of the Holy Spirit to spread and defend the faith by word and action as true witnesses of Christ, to confess the name of Christ boldly, and never be ashamed of the Cross” (CCC 1303).

The Great Commission is not restricted to the eleven disciples who were present at Jesus’ Ascension, rather we are all called to share the news of Christ and continue His ministry on earth. In other words, keep the faith but not to yourself!

A Thought on The Sanctity Of Life

“The Lord says to us, ‘Do not fear: I am with you’ (Isaiah 41:10). He speaks these words not as one who merely observes our pain, but as one who experienced immense suffering. And the very wounds that bear witness to his suffering indicate the essence of our identity and worth: we are loved by God. Reflecting on the healed wounds of the Risen Christ, we see that even our most difficult trials can be the place where God manifests his victory. He makes all things beautiful. He makes all things new.”

Weekly Thoughts on Giving

"I am praying for them..." JOHN 17:9

Prayer is the foundation of our Faith and the foundation of Stewardship. Prayer is always the first best option in any situation - not just our last resort. Pray for friends and family, and especially for those that don't treat you very well. Pray to give praise, to thank, and to ask God for help. Pray to see what God wants you to do with the gifts He has given you. Teach others how to pray. It has been said that teaching someone how to pray is the best gift you can give someone.
