WELCOME TO OUR VISITORS

Archbishop Mitchell T. Rozanski and the people of the Archdiocese of St. Louis welcome you and hope that your time in our Mother Church may be an opportunity to share our faith and joy in Jesus Christ.

Please enjoy the beauty of this building dedicated to the glory of God and built for the inspiration of all who enter. Public tours of the Cathedral led by volunteer guides are available most weekdays, call for availability.

All visitors who are not of the Catholic faith are welcome to join us in prayer, but not to receive Holy Communion. Reception of Holy Communion is a sign of unity of faith and full membership in the Catholic community. Together let us pray for the eventual unity of all believers.

If you desire to become a member of the Catholic Church or to become a member of the Cathedral Basilica Parish, please complete a registration card, available at the entrances the church.

All contributions to the Cathedral Basilica parish, ministries, and maintenance are sincerely appreciated.

FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

As we celebrate the Feast of Pentecost, we recognize the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon us. As Archbishop Rozanski shares the future structure of the Archdiocese of St. Louis, we are struck by the constant need for Pentecost to happen in our Church each and every day. It is the Spirit that allowed the early Church to move from fear to courage - from silence to a bold proclamation of the Gospel. As we have arrived at this moment in the Archdiocese of St. Louis, this indeed is a new Pentecost for us.

After nearly two years of gathering data and feedback, Archbishop Rozanski announces his decision regarding All Things New on Saturday, May 27, the day before Pentecost. Pastors will be sharing information regarding the announcement as it pertains to their parish at all Masses Pentecost weekend, as well as through their usual communication outlets. On Saturday evening, May 27, information regarding all parishes and priest assignments will be posted on allthingsnew.archstl.org.

On Saturday, May 27th the Cathedral Basilica hosted the Ordination to the Priesthood of two men for the Archdiocese of St. Louis. Please join me in wishing them all the best as they begin the life of priestly ministry. I would ask you as well to pray for them and for all priests.

O Jesus,
 I pray for Your faithful and fervent priests;
 for Your unfaithful and tepid priests;
 for Your priests labouring at home or abroad in distant mission fields;
 for Your tempted priests;
 for Your lonely and desolate priests;
 for Your young priests;
 for Your dying priests;
 for the souls of Your priests in purgatory.
 But above all I recommend to You the priests dearest to me;
 the priest who baptized me;
 the priests who absolved me from my sins;
 the priests at whose Masses I assisted and who gave me Your Body and Blood in Holy communion;
 the priests who taught and instructed me;
 all the priests to whom I am indebted in any other way.
 O Jesus, keep them all close to Your heart,
 and bless them abundantly in time and in eternity. Amen

Please mark your calendar for Saturday, June 10, for a Parish Picnic. The Parish Council is planning a casual evening for parishioners to gather following the 5pm Mass for some hamburgers, brats, hot dogs, and traditional BBQ fare. This year the event will be held in Boland Hall. Please check the bulletin for more details and to RSVP.

ARCHBISHOP'S COLUMN

Being attentive to the creativity of the Holy Spirit in a deeper way

The Holy Spirit plays a big role in the process of speaking and listening that's at the heart of human relations

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

I spend a lot of time in meetings! So I know that something can happen in the process of a meeting, in the live-and-take of speaking and listening. When there's a genuine openness to each other, a deeper creativity opens up. People see possibilities that they didn't see before.

That kind of creativity seems to be rooted in the Holy Spirit. (It's why we sing "Veni Creator Spiritus"—Come, Creator Spirit.) We don't think often enough, or deeply enough, about the creative role of the Holy Spirit in guiding processes. We should!

I think we've needed and experienced the creativity of the Holy Spirit in the All Things New pastoral planning process. We could have focused only on outcomes; and we could have reached outcomes quickly, without engaging in a deliberate and community-wide process of listening. But we didn't. We tried to make room for the creativity of the Holy Spirit by engaging in a deliberate process that was open to change.

The process wasn't perfect; no human process is! But we spoke, listened and revised repeatedly over almost two years, and I believe that allowed us to be attentive to the creativity of the Holy Spirit in a deeper way.

That's important because I believe we're going to need that same openness to the Holy Spirit as we move forward! We're going to need to allow the Holy Spirit to work in the speaking, listening and revising of parish plans in the coming years.

That deliberate focus — on the role of the Holy Spirit in the process of speaking and listening that's at the heart of human relations — is a big part of the "synodality" that Pope Francis is focused on these days. We've been living that kind of synodality for the past two years! We're going to continue to need it in the coming years.

This week we celebrate the relatively new feast of Mary, Mother of the Church (May 29) as well as the feast of the Visitation (May 31).

It's interesting to think about the contrast between Eve and Mary in biblical terms. Eve became "the mother of all the living," but she brought her children into the realm of sin. Mary became the new mother of all the living at the foot of the Cross, and at Pentecost; she brought her children into the realm of Jesus' redemption.

It's also interesting to think about Eve and Mary in spiritual terms. St. Paul says we know the works of the flesh (envy, dissension, factions, outbursts of fury, etc.) and the fruit of the Spirit (love, joy, patience, gentleness, etc.) from within our own experience (see Galatians 5). I think we could say that we also know what it means to be children of Eve and what it means to be children of Mary in our own experience. As children of Eve, we're prone to selfishness, grasping, suspicion and resentment. As children of Mary, we're invited to trust rather than suspicion, to forgiveness rather than resentment, to gentleness rather than harshness (even in disagreement) and to steadfastness and surrender rather than despair at the foot of our crosses.

As we move forward with our All Things New plans, I think it will be good to reflect on the ways in which we're behaving as children of Eve, and the ways in which we can "honor our Mother" by behaving more like children of Mary.

Sacrament of Confirmation

Through the Sacrament of Confirmation, the baptized person is “sealed with the gift of the Holy Spirit” and is strengthened for service to the Body of Christ.

The Gospel of the Lord

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, “Peace be with you.”

When he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.”

And when he said this, he breathed on them and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained.

John 20:19-23

Pentecost Mosaic

Due to the great emphasis in contemporary theology on the place of the Holy Spirit in the life of the Church and in the lives of the people of God, it was thought appropriate that the scene of Pentecost be represented in a mosaic. Thus the Pentecost mosaic was commissioned and is located in the West Transept of the Cathedral Basilica.

This is a rare work of art devoted to the subject of The Descent of the Holy Spirit on Pentecost. The central composition is made up of a gigantic flame symbolizing the operation of the Holy Spirit. It frames the figures of the Blessed Virgin and the Apostles as the Holy Spirit descends on them.

The large general caption at the base of the apse reads:

I WILL POUR OUT MY SPIRIT ON ALL FLESH

Men of the Cathedral May Adoration

The MEN OF THE CATHEDRAL cordially invite all parishioners and visitors to join them with Adoration of the Holy Eucharist on Tuesday, May 30th at 6 PM.

What a great way to draw ourselves closer to Christ and our Eternal Home in Heaven as we prepare for our summer activities. Please consider taking this opportunity for personal prayer and meditation.

Adoration will begin promptly at 6 PM. Confessions will be heard during Adoration.

All men are invited to drinks, dinner and fellowship in Boland Hall immediately after the conclusion of Holy Hour.

Please consider making this prayerful evening a family event. Invite your family and friends to celebrate Christ through Adoration.

For dinner reservations, please contact Michael Weisbrod at 314-918-2893 or michael.weisbrod@rcfstl.org by Monday, May 29th.

Women of the Cathedral

Women of the Cathedral– June 10, 2023
(Second Saturday in June)

Dear Ladies of the Cathedral Parish,

Come grow in faith and fellowship with other ladies in the parish at the monthly gatherings of the Women of the Cathedral.

At our last gathering we reflected on particular scripture texts and invited the ladies to share their reflections.

Our next gathering is on Saturday, June 10, 2023. Note: This is the week after our usual first Saturday gathering date due to a scheduling conflict. We will begin with 8am Mass in the Cathedral, and then go to Boland Hall for light breakfast. After brief introductions and social time, an informative program is led by Msgr. Mikesch, our spiritual director, with closing prayer at 10am. An ongoing highlight is “Ask Msgr. Mikesch Time.”

To learn more and RSVP for breakfast, contact Barbara Murray at 314-974-6900 or email murraybj@swbell.net by June 7, 2023. Please send your questions for “Ask Msgr. Time” when you RSVP.

Pentecost Sunday

In the Gospel reading for Pentecost Sunday, Jesus breathes on his disciples giving them the gift of the Holy Spirit and commissioning them to continue his work of forgiveness and reconciliation in the world.

Through the Holy Spirit, believers are empowered to do the work of Christ and to spread the gospel message to all nations.

A Thought on The Sanctity Of Life

“Even the weakest and most vulnerable, the sick, the old, the unborn and the poor, are masterpieces of God’s creation, made in his own image, destined to live forever, and deserving of the utmost reverence and respect.”

Weekday Mass in St. Cecilia Chapel

Beginning on June 5, 2023, all weekday Masses will be celebrated in the St. Cecilia Chapel due to the cleaning of the baldachino.

The Cathedral Basilica will remain open for private prayer; however your caution, while in the space, is requested.

Anima Christi Young Adults

Anyone between the ages of 18 and 39 is invited to join in prayer and fellowship with the young adult community of the Cathedral Basilica on Thursday, June 1st. Our gathering begins with Holy Hour at 5:30pm (enter through the west door, by the playground). Followed by Mass and then dinner in Boland Hall. Please join us, in full or in part, to deepen your relationship with Christ and with one another.

Weekly Thoughts on Giving

"To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good." 1 CORINTHIANS 12:7

To receive the gifts of the Holy Spirit you must open your heart and invite Him in! Ask the Holy Spirit to guide your thoughts, words and actions every day! Be grateful for all the gifts God has given you! Regardless of our individual circumstances, God has given all of us many blessings. What we do with those gifts is our gift back to God! By generously sharing everything we have and everything we are, we become more "God-centered" and less "self-centered" and our lives truly reflect God's light, love and mercy.
