WELCOME TO OUR VISITORS

Archbishop Mitchell T. Rozanski and the people of the Archdiocese of St. Louis welcome you and hope that your time in our Mother Church may be an opportunity to share our faith and joy in Jesus Christ.

Please enjoy the beauty of this building dedicated to the glory of God and built for the inspiration of all who enter. Public tours of the Cathedral led by volunteer guides are available most weekdays, call for availability.

All visitors who are not of the Catholic faith are welcome to join us in prayer, but not to receive Holy Communion. Reception of Holy Communion is a sign of unity of faith and full membership in the Catholic community. Together let us pray for the eventual unity of all believers.

If you desire to become a member of the Catholic Church or to become a member of the Cathedral Basilica Parish, please complete a registration card, available at the entrances the church.

All contributions to the Cathedral Basilica parish, ministries, and maintenance are sincerely appreciated.

FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

In comparison to other kings throughout history, Jesus is far different. He is not controlling or domineering or cruel or even a political figure. Jesus as King is a shepherd and a servant leader. He tells us that He has not come to be served but to serve. He humbles Himself by washing the feet of His disciples, the role of a servant. He truly cares for us like a good shepherd tending to his flock. He is willing to leave the 99 to find the one who has gone astray. Jesus is not a king who, like a judge or tyrant, sits on a throne demanding to be feared. He came to be the model of Christian living.

The Gospel message is simple: we will be judged by how we treat others, by how much we offer for the least among us, and by how closely we follow the example of Jesus, the Good Shepherd. This is Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. The lesson from the Gospel is that we should never allow the world to convince us that small acts of kindness are not important. Jesus reminds us that as often as we do these things for the least among us, we do unto Him. By doing these small and seemingly insignificant acts of kindness, we help to build the Kingdom of heaven on earth. The preface for the Mass today describes the Kingdom as, “An Eternal and Universal Kingdom, a Kingdom of Truth and Life, a Kingdom of Holiness and Grace a Kingdom of Justice, Love, and Peace.” Each time we say the Our Father we pray for the coming of that kingdom. Thy Kingdom come.

Next Sunday, December 3, we begin the Season of Advent. The word “Advent” is from the Latin “Adventus,” which means “coming.” Advent is the beginning of a new liturgical year (in the Western churches), and encompasses the span of time from the fourth Sunday before Christmas until the Nativity of Our Lord is celebrated.

Like Lent, Advent is a preparatory season. It has significance because it is a season of looking forward and waiting for something greater — both for the annual celebration of the event of Christ's birth, and for the time when Christ will come again.

Mark your calendar for Saturday, December 9, when we will welcome Archbishop Rozanski to the Cathedral for a Advent afternoon of recollection. It will begin at 1:00 pm and include a reflection by the Archbishop, which will be followed by a reflection by Father Patrick Hough, SJ. There will be time for prayer, Sacrament of Penance and Eucharistic Adoration. If you are unable to be present, please be with us via our livestream at cathedralstl.org/live.

The Gospel of the Lord

Jesus said to his disciples:

“When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, he will sit upon his glorious throne, and all the nations will be assembled before him. And he will separate them from one another, as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. He will place the sheep on his right and the goats on his left.

Then the king will say to those on his right, ‘Come, you are blessed by my Father. Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me, naked and you clothed me, in prison and you visited me.’

Then the righteous will answer him and say, ‘Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you drink? When did we see you a stranger and welcome you, or naked and clothe you? When did we see you ill or in prison and visit you?’

And the King will say to them in reply, ‘Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for the least brothers of mine, you did for me.’

Then he will say to those on his left, ‘Depart from me, you accursed, into the eternal fire prepared by the devil and his angels. For I was hungry and you gave me no food, I was thirsty and you gave me no drink, a stranger and you gave me no welcome, naked and you gave me no clothing, ill and in prison, and you did not care for me.’

Then they will answer and say, ‘Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or ill or in prison, and not minister to your needs?’

He will answer them, ‘Amen, I say to you, what you did not do for one of these least ones, you did not do for me.’

And these will go off to eternal punishment, but the righteous to.”

Matthew 25:31-46

The Caring Kingship of Christ

The readings for today tell us that the kingship of Jesus Christ is one of a caring and nurturing master who longs for us to live together in the joy of His kingdom. The first reading tells of the Lord gathering in His flock and tending to them. The Lord promises to act as a shepherd to his scattered flock. He will rescue, pasture, and give them rest. He will seek the lost, return the strayed, heal the sick, and bind the injured. The Psalm for today echoes that the Lord is our shepherd who will always meet all of our needs, He will guide us and sustain us all the days of our lives. We will dwell in His house forever, surrounded by His goodness and kindness. The second reading reminds us that everything is subject to Jesus Christ, including death itself. However, death should not be feared because Christ has risen, which initiates the resurrection for all. He will reign for eternity, even after all enemies including death are defeated. The Gospel reading from Matthew tells the reader of the Judgement of the Nations, where those who served Him in this life will be separated from those who did not.

In the Gospel Jesus is telling his disciples about the return of the Son of Man in which during the final judgement people will be separated like sheep and goats. Those who helped the needy will inherit eternal life, being told that their good deeds were done unto Jesus himself. However, those who neglected the needy will face eternal punishment. The Gospel described the Corporal Works of Mercy which are feeding the hungry, visiting the sick, and clothing the naked. This highlight the importance of compassion for our neighbors. Jesus identifies suffering when he states that acts done to “the least of these” are being done to Him, which suggests that there is a very real and deep connection between God and those who suffer.

A Thought on The Sanctity Of Life

“Having received the gift of the Gospel of Life, we are the people of life and a people for life. It is our duty to proclaim the Gospel of Life to the world. To proclaim Jesus is to proclaim life itself. Gratitude and joy at the incomparable dignity of the human person impel us to bring the Gospel of life to the hearts of all people and make it penetrate every part of society.”

Weekly Thoughts on Giving

"...whatever you did for one of the least of my brothers, you did for me." – MATTHEW 25:40

Most of us are generous when it's convenient for us. We are generous when we have the time or the money. But, real generosity is the opposite of that. It means giving of one's time, money, compassion, forgiveness or mercy when it's not convenient to us, when it's not on our schedule, but on the other person's timeline.
