WELCOME TO OUR VISITORS

Archbishop Mitchell T. Rozanski and the people of the Archdiocese of St. Louis welcome you and hope that your time in our Mother Church may be an opportunity to share our faith and joy in Jesus Christ.

Please enjoy the beauty of this building dedicated to the glory of God and built for the inspiration of all who enter. Public tours of the Cathedral led by volunteer guides are available most weekdays, call for availability.

All visitors who are not of the Catholic faith are welcome to join us in prayer, but not to receive Holy Communion. Reception of Holy Communion is a sign of unity of faith and full membership in the Catholic community. Together let us pray for the eventual unity of all believers.

If you desire to become a member of the Catholic Church or to become a member of the Cathedral Basilica Parish, please complete a registration card, available at the entrances the church.

All contributions to the Cathedral Basilica parish, ministries, and maintenance are sincerely appreciated.

FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

This past week, we hosted the Annual Christmas Concert sponsored by Cathedral Concerts. It was a huge success as we welcomed a little over 2,500 visitors to the Basilica. I would like to offer a deep amount of gratitude to Andrew Kreigh, Scott Kennebeck, and Ben Blasingame for all their hard work in planning, preparation, and rehearsals leading up to the concert.

It was so wonderful to have our Archdiocesan Choir present along with the newly formed Archdiocesan High School Choir. Many behind the scenes helped with ticketing and ushering at the event. I am so grateful to everyone who made the Christmas Concerts so successful.

This past Friday we celebrated the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of our Blessed Mother. Mary Immaculate helps us to rediscover and defend what lies within people, for in her is a perfect transparency of the soul in the body. She is purity in person, in the sense the spirit, soul and body are fully consistent with one another and with God's will. Our Lady teaches us to be open to God's action and to see others as He sees them, starting with the heart, by looking at them with compassion, love and infinite tenderness, especially those who are lonely, despised or exploited.

This feast finds its origin in a moment in time when Our Lady appeared to Saint Catherine Laboure in the year 1830. The message of the Blessed Mother was to have a medal made with the words: "O Mary conceived without sin pray for us who have recourse to thee." The wearing of this medal quickly spread and led to a great devotion to Our Lady as the Immaculate Conception, which was declared to be a teaching of the church in 1854.

ARCHBISHOP'S COLUMN

Becoming a more evangelizing Church requires creativity in bringing Jesus into the cultural context

Mary addressed Juan Diego in his native language and used symbols that the native people would recognize

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

We celebrate the feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe on Dec. 12. It's one of the great episodes of evangelization in Church history!

We celebrate it on Dec. 12, because according to the accounts, that's the day on which Mary arranged the roses in Juan Diego's tilma and it received the miraculous image. It's amazing to hear that Mary addressed Juan Diego in his native language, left an image of herself as one of the native people and used symbols that they would recognize. Then, within a few years, some nine million people converted to faith in Christ!

It's no accident that one of the Gospel options for the feast day is the episode of the Visitation (Luke 1). The pregnant Mary brought Jesus to her kinswoman Elizabeth; in a similar way, the pregnant Virgin of Guadalupe brought the Christ child to the people of Mexico.

That's a great pattern for us as we think about how to become a more evangelizing Church: How do we bring Jesus to those we meet in a way that they can understand? It requires knowledge of the context — whether cultural or individual — and some creativity in bringing Jesus into that context. Mary knew the hearts of the Mexican people and was very creative in speaking to the needs of their hearts! We need to do the same in our own contexts.

There have been some great examples of that throughout Church history that have had an important impact on the Archdiocese of St. Louis. The founding of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul by Blessed Frederic Ozanam in the mid-1800s is one example. We benefit from that in St. Louis both because the national headquarters of the society is here and because of the many St. Vincent de Paul councils we have in our parishes.

The creation of the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd by Sofia Cavelletti in the mid-1900s is another great example. We benefit from that in St. Louis because of the many parishes that have an "atrium" where the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd is taught.

Another great example is the upcoming SEEK 2024 conference, one of the signature events of the Fellowship of Catholic University Students (FOCUS). FOCUS specializes in bringing Jesus to college campuses. We benefit from that in St. Louis both because the conference brought more than 17,000 young adults here last year for prayer, fellowship and evangelization training, and because the event will happen right here again from Jan. 1-5, just a few short weeks away!

SEEK 2024 comes to St. Louis at a pivotal time for us, as we seek to become a more evangelizing Church. I encourage people to attend or to pray for the conference. The need to learn more about evangelization and the need to receive the energy of the young Church speaks to some of the deepest desires of our own hearts today.

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us!

Veterans Day Mass

Veterans Day Mass was held on November 10th at the Cathedral Basilica of St. Louis.

Veterans Day honors the courage and sacrifice of those who have served in our nation's armed forces. Our military veterans are willing to risk their lives to protect many of the freedoms we enjoy, and through the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass on this day, we are offered the opportunity to express our deepest gratitude for their service.

Weekly Thoughts on Giving

"Prepare the way of the Lord..." - MARK 1:3

We are all called to live a holy life. We are all called to invite others to live holy lives. Living a stewardship lifestyle, being grateful and generous with our gifts, puts us on the path to holiness and is an example for others to be holy, too. We are responsible not only for our own lives, but for the lives of others as well. How are you helping others get to Heaven?
