FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

December 12th, we celebrated the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe, the Mother of America and the Star of the New Evangelization. This feast takes us back to 1531 when a "Lady from Heaven" appeared to a humble Native American, Juan Diego, at Tepeyac, a hill northwest of what is now Mexico City. She identified herself as the ever virgin Holy Mary, Mother of the True God for whom we live, the Creator of all things, the Lord of heaven and the earth. She made a request for a church to be built on the site, and submitted her wish to the local bishop.

When the bishop hesitated and requested a sign, the Mother of God obeyed without delay or question and sent her native messenger to the top of the hill in mid-December to gather an assortment of roses for the bishop. After complying with the bishop's request for a sign, she also left for us an image of herself imprinted miraculously on the native's tilma or cloak, a poor quality cactus-cloth, which should have deteriorated in 20 years but shows no sign of decay 480 years later and still defies all scientific explanations of its origin. Thus, Our Lady of Guadalupe has never ceased to appear to pilgrims who look upon the tilma which is truly alive with her image.

The continuing message of Advent is preparation. How do we prepare ourselves for the coming of Christ at the end of time and at Christmas? One of those ways to prepare is to cleanse ourselves of sin through the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Just a reminder that confessions at the Cathedral Basilica are Monday—Friday 7:30-8:00 am, Saturdays 3:30-4:50 pm and Sundays 9-9:50 and 11-11:50 am

Very soon we will be setting up our manger scenes, as we prepare for Christmas. The Crib helps us contemplate the mystery of God's love that was revealed in the poverty and simplicity of the Bethlehem Grotto. St Francis of Assisi was so taken by the mystery of the Incarnation that he wanted to present it anew at Greccio in the living Nativity scene, thus beginning an old, popular tradition that still retains its value for evangelization today. Indeed, the Crib can help us understand the secret of the true Christmas because it speaks of the humility and merciful goodness of Christ, who "though he was rich he made himself poor" for us (II Cor 8: 9).

ARCHBISHOP'S COLUMN

End of Advent is a reminder to organize everything around Jesus

We hear in the readings how God asks for our daily “yes,” so that He might shape history through us

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

How do you treat time?

I ask because the Church makes an important shift this week, and it’s meant to be instructive. Most people know there are four weeks of Advent. Not everyone realizes that no matter where we are in those four weeks, the Church shifts gears starting on Dec. 17. The final seven days before Christmas Eve are a special time of spiritual preparation.

The same is true of Lent. Easter is not based on the secular calendar. If it were, Easter would be at the same time every year! Easter is set based on the spring equinox and the full moon. Then Lent is set as a time of preparation before that.

What’s the lesson? For the Church, everything is organized around the life of Jesus. Whatever else may be happening, the Church sets the rhythms of time on the basis of Jesus’ place in her life. And that’s the challenge for each of us: to make our year, our week, our weekend and our day something that’s organized around Jesus.

Faith challenges us — don’t merely fit Jesus into your calendar. Rather, put Jesus first and organize everything else around Him. This week we make that shift in the liturgical calendar. Let’s strive to make that shift in our lives.

Do you believe God acts in history?

The prophets Jeremiah and Isaiah speak to us this week about the Exodus, the return from the Exile and the Incarnation as points of God’s intervention in history.

But various other readings this week speak about small personal acts through which God worked in history. The “yes” of Joseph; the “yes” of the mother of Samson; the “yes” of Zechariah and Elizabeth (more on that later!); the “yes” of Mary; the “yes” of Hannah when she dedicated Samuel to the Lord. Psalm 24 captures the spiritual posture of these people: “Let the Lord enter; He is the king of glory.” Each of these people let the Lord enter their lives and shape history through their individual “yes.” Now, the Lord asks for our daily “yes,” so that He might shape history again through us.

Can the same word mean different things?

“How?” That word is uttered three times by three people in three different ways in this week’s readings.

The angel Gabriel tells Zechariah that Elizabeth will bear the forerunner of the Lord. Zechariah asks: “How can this be?” But his “how” is rooted in skepticism. The angel, as a pure spirit, not only hears the word but also sees the attitude behind it and responds accordingly.

Les Miracles de Notre Dame

Medieval Paris was not only a center of learning, debate, art, and architecture; it was also a capital of musical creation and innovation, the most important in Europe. You will hear the magnificent vocal music sung within the walls of the great cathedral, as well as miracle tales, student songs, and minstrel turns performed in Notre Dame's shadow, on either bank of the steadily flowing Seine. A feast!

A commission of the French Consulate in Boston and premiered a few months after the 2019 fire which destroyed in part the Notre Dame cathedral, it was again performed in 2022, to public and critical acclaim.

Love is patient, love is kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice in wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth.

Weekly Thoughts on Giving

"Rejoice always. Pray without ceasing. Give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God for you in Christ Jesus." – 1 thessalonians 5:16 - 18

This scripture reading sums up Stewardship. "Rejoice always" means place your trust in God; He will provide all that you need. "Pray constantly" means prayer should be a running conversation with God throughout the whole day, every day. "Give thanks in all circumstances" means even in bad situations, thank God. Suffering a little bit helps build empathy for others in similar situations and shows our dependence on God.
