WELCOME TO OUR VISITORS

Archbishop Mitchell T. Rozanski and the people of the Archdiocese of St. Louis welcome you and hope that your time in our Mother Church may be an opportunity to share our faith and joy in Jesus Christ.

Please enjoy the beauty of this building dedicated to the glory of God and built for the inspiration of all who enter. Public tours of the Cathedral led by volunteer guides are available most weekdays, call for availability.

All visitors who are not of the Catholic faith are welcome to join us in prayer, but not to receive Holy Communion. Reception of Holy Communion is a sign of unity of faith and full membership in the Catholic community. Together let us pray for the eventual unity of all believers.

If you desire to become a member of the Catholic Church or to become a member of the Cathedral Basilica Parish, please complete a registration card, available at the entrances the church.

All contributions to the Cathedral Basilica parish, ministries, and maintenance are sincerely appreciated.

FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

One of our long-time parishioners, Ann Skiba, passed away on December 30th at the age of 106. It was the death of one of her daughters in 1988, when she was 72 that brought her to St. Louis with her husband to assist in caring for her two young grandchildren. At the same time, Ann and her husband, Paul, became parishioners of the Cathedral and would be seen assisting in the decoration for Easter and Christmas and volunteering for the Cathedral Fete.

She enjoyed gifting boxes of intricate homemade Christmas cookies to family and friends. She remained fit throughout her life and was often seen walking through the Central West End or swimming laps in the pool at her condo. With her gregarious personality, she played a significant role in the lives of her family members. A Memorial Mass will be celebrated at the Cathedral on Saturday, January 20th at 10:00 am. I kindly ask you to pray for the repose of her soul and for the family that mourns this loss.

On this Monday that follows the Solemnity of the Epiphany, we are celebrating the Baptism of the Lord. This was the first act of his public life, recounted in all four Gospels. Having reached the age of about 30, Jesus left Nazareth, went to the River Jordan and, in the midst of a great crowd of people, had himself baptized by John.

Mark the Evangelist writes: "And when he came up out of the water, immediately he saw the heavens opened and the Spirit descending upon him like a dove; and a voice came down from heaven, "You are my beloved Son; in you I am well pleased"" (Mk 1: 10-11). These words, "You are my beloved Son" reveal what eternal life is: it is the filial relationship with God, just as Jesus lived it and gave it to us.

Now our celebration of Christmas concludes. The Child, who the Magi came to adore at Bethlehem offering their gifts, and our attention now will be drawn away from this scene to discover Christ among us. The eternal truth of Christmas we take with us: That God so loved the world that he gave us his only begotten Son.

ARCHBISHOP'S COLUMN

Working to show a better version of freedom

The efforts to enshrine abortion in the state's constitution are calling for a cheap form of freedom

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

This week marks the first week of Ordinary Time in the Church's calendar. As we look ahead to the coming year — a year in which it seems we will be asked whether we want to make abortion part of the state constitution — how fitting it is that the readings begin by focusing on the conception of a child! (The conception of Samuel in 1 Samuel 1.)

In the spirit of St. Mark, whose Gospel we read this year, let's get right to the point: We're going to be asked whether we as a society want to protect the "right" to kill our children. And by raising the issue to the level of the state constitution we would be saying: "This is essential to our state — this is what makes us who we are."

In response to that prospect, I simply want to say two things.

First, this is going to be presented to us under the guise of defending freedom. But we need to ask: Freedom for what? Freedom for parents to kill their children, rather than help them grow. Freedom for the powerful to eliminate the vulnerable, rather than lift them up. Freedom to offer women a short-term solution and ask them to bear the long-term physical, psychological and spiritual consequences alone, rather than supporting women as the ones through whom all life flows into our communities. My friends, that's a cheap freedom. Is that the freedom the "Show Me State" wants to show to the world?

Second, if we enshrine that version of freedom into our constitution, we will not be able to object to anything — not in principle. Our calls that women, children and the vulnerable deserve better from society will all ring hollow. I say: Women and children and the vulnerable deserve a better version of freedom, and a better version of freedom is what Missouri wants to show the world. I ask you to consider joining me in saying that, too.

ARCHBISHOP MITCHELL ROZANSKI

SERVE THE LORD
WITH GLADNESS

This week we also hear about the call of Samuel to serve the Lord. In the midst of Samuel's vocation story we hear this curious point: "At that time Samuel was not familiar with the Lord." It's curious because Samuel was living in the Temple, sleeping next to the Ark of the Covenant! But the point is this: While Samuel knew many things about the Lord, he did not know the living voice of God in his life.

I think we could all join Samuel in coming to a deeper knowledge of the living voice of God in our lives!

In the Gospel this week we hear: "When Jesus returned to Capernaum ... it became known that He was at home." We sometimes miss the personalization and intimacy of that: Jesus had a home!

I want to encourage all of us to grow in the personalization and intimacy hidden in that passage. Read the Scriptures, especially the New Testament. Read a chapter a day. If possible, find a place where you can read it out loud!

When the words of the Bible find a place in our minds and on our lips, the Word of God increasingly finds a home in our hearts. He will come to be "at home" in us spiritually, as He was once at home in Capernaum physically. Then, as the manger held Christ at Christmas, we can carry Him in our hearts through the whole year.

God bless you this coming year.

Les Miracles de Notre Dame

Medieval Paris was not only a center of learning, debate, art, and architecture: it was also a capital of musical creation and innovation, the most important in Europe. You will hear the magnificent vocal music sung within the walls of the great cathedral, as well as miracle tales, student songs, and minstrel turns performed in Notre Dame's shadow, on either bank of the steadily flowing Seine. A feast!

A commission of the French Consulate in Boston and premiered a few months after the 2019 fire which destroyed in part the Notre Dame cathedral, it was again performed in 2022, to public and critical acclaim.

Announcement of Easter and the Moveable Feasts

The proclamation of the date of Easter and the other moveable feasts on Epiphany dates from a time when calendars were not readily available. It was necessary to make known the date of Easter in advance, since many celebrations of the liturgical year depend on its date. The number of Sundays that follow Epiphany, the date of Ash Wednesday, and the number of Sundays that follow Pentecost are all computed in relation to Easter.

Although calendars now give the date of Easter and the other feasts in the liturgical year for many years in advance, the Epiphany proclamation still has value. It is a reminder of the centrality of the resurrection of the Lord in the liturgical year and the importance of the great mysteries of faith which are celebrated each year.

Each year the proper dates for Ash Wednesday, Easter, Ascension, Pentecost, the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, and the First Sunday of Advent must be inserted into the text. Those dates are found in the table which is included with the introductory documents of the Roman Missal. The form to be used for announcing each date is: the date of month, e.g., "the seventh day of April."

On the Epiphany of the Lord, after the singing of the Gospel, a Deacon or cantor, in keeping with an ancient practice of Holy Church, announces from the ambo the moveable feasts of the current year according to the following text.

Know, dear brethren (brothers and sisters), that, as we have rejoiced at the Nativity of our Lord Jesus Christ,
so by leave of God's mercy
we announce to you also the joy of his Resurrection, who is our Savior.

On the fourteenth day of February will fall Ash Wednesday, and the beginning of the fast of the most sacred Lenten season.

On the thirty-first day of March you will celebrate with joy Easter Day, the Paschal feast of our Lord Jesus Christ.

On the ninth day of May will be the Ascension of our Lord Jesus Christ.

On the nineteenth day of May, the feast of Pentecost.

On the second day of June, the feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ.

On the first day of December, the First Sunday of the Advent of our Lord Jesus Christ, to whom is honor and glory for ever and ever.

Amen.

The Revelation of God's Son

Today, we celebrate The Epiphany of the Lord. A significant feast day in which we celebrate the revelation of God in His Son as human in Jesus Christ. The Epiphany not only signifies the calling of the chosen few, like the Wise Men, but it also serves as an open invitation to everyone around the entire world to open their hearts and follow Jesus Christ. For the first time in history, God became physically present to the people on earth in human form through His Son, He was no longer just a voice calling out in the wilderness.

The Wise Men were taking a risk in following the star to Bethlehem, but they trusted God and knew that He was leading them to something far greater than they could ever imagine. The three Wise Men are a wonderful example of how we as Christians are called to live our own lives. Trusting that God knows what is best for us and that His plan, no matter how random and difficult it might seem on the journey, will lead us to exactly where we need to be. The Wise Men recognized God in an unexpected form, through the baby Jesus, and we too must find the strength to see Jesus in our lives in unexpected ways. And when we do, we can worship and adore Him.

Women of the Cathedral

The Women of the Cathedral (WOC) meet monthly and invite the ladies of the parish to join them. Nursing babies are always welcome. Coming this month is a Bible study to enrich and grow our faith, and a service project to feed the homeless. For more information on these upcoming activities or to be added to the email list, please contact Sarah Schimpf at sarah.schimpf@icloud.com

Men of the Cathedral

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament is a joy beyond words, as we can come close to our Lord in a very special and personal way. That joy and fulfillment is greatly enhanced when you share the experience of Adoration with others.

Begin your 2024 spiritual life by joining Men of the Cathedral for the January Adoration scheduled for January 30th at 6 PM. All (men, women, parishioners and visitors) are welcome for Adoration! Invite your friends and family. Several MOC include their sons (or fathers) and find it to be a great way to come closer to one-another and to Christ!

Confessions will be heard during Adoration.

Following Adoration, all men are invited to Boland Hall for fellowship and dinners. An offering of $20 is suggested. Please RSVP by Monday, January 29th to Michael Weisbrod at michael.weisbrod@rcfstl.org to reserve your dinner spot!

A Thought on The Sanctity Of Life

“Through the Incarnation and birth of Christ, God reveals to us the dignity of all human life. Human life, as a gift of God, is sacred and inviolable. The Son of God has united himself with every human being and desires for us to share eternal life with him... Each of us is made in the image and likeness of God, and we reflect his glory in the world.”

Weekly Thoughts on Giving

"They fell down and worshipped him. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh." - Matthew 2:11

Notice the order of events in the Magi's visit. First, they knelt before Jesus and prayed to Him. Then they presented Him with their gifts. We, too, must take time to pray before we present our gifts to the Lord. We never know what God may be asking us to share!
