FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

This coming Wednesday, we enter into the Season of Lent. It is a period that leads us to the celebration of Holy Easter, and is a most valuable and important liturgical time. It is a time in which enter a season of special commitment in the spiritual battle to oppose the evil that is present in the world, in each one of us, and around us. It means looking evil in the face and being ready to fight its effects and especially its causes, even its primary cause which is Satan.

It means not off-loading the problem of evil onto others, onto society, or onto God, but rather recognizing one's own responsibility and assuming it with awareness. In this regard, Jesus' invitation to each one of us Christians to take up our "cross" and follow him with humility and trust (cf. Mt 16: 24) is particularly pressing. Although the "cross" may be heavy, it is not synonymous with misfortune, with disgrace, or to be avoided on all accounts.

This provides for us an opportunity to follow Jesus and thereby to acquire strength in the fight against sin and evil. Thus, entering Lent means renewing the personal and community decision to face evil together with Christ. The way of the Cross is in fact the only way that leads to the victory of love over hatred, of sharing over selfishness, of peace over violence. Seen in this light, Lent is truly an opportunity for a strong ascetic and spiritual commitment based on Christ's grace.

Make plans during this Lenten Season to join your fellow parishioners for the Stations of the Cross on Fridays of Lent at 7:00 p.m. We will also have virtual Stations of the Cross available on our website. Father Povis will offer a weekly column, which will include a reflection on a work of Sacred Art that we will feature in our All Saints Chapel. You are invited to come by each week to use this image for your prayer and meditation.

Also, perhaps God is calling you to spend time with him in private prayer in adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. Every Saturday, following the at 3:30 pm until 4:30 pm when we conclude with Evening Prayer and Benediction. Even if you can't make it to Eucharistic Adoration if have only 5 minutes, stop by and pray with our Lord.

Thus, we embark on a journey of a personal encounter with our Redeemer through prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. In this journey, let us follow Christ more authentically. Let us entrust ourselves to the Virgin Mary, who generated the Word of God in faith and in the flesh so that we might immerse ourselves—just as she did—in the death and resurrection of Jesus and possess eternal life.

ARCHBISHOP'S COLUMN

If we love someone, we need to open the door to heaven for them

The world is going a different direction than the Church when it comes to love

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Well, it's finally happened: Ash Wednesday and Valentine's Day fall on the same day this year.

On one level, that's funny! On another, it's symbolic: The Church and the world are going in different directions when it comes to love.

The world proposes that all our desires are basically good. If that's true, then promoting love means following our desires unreservedly. Honestly, that hasn't led to greater happiness.

The Gospel proposes that sin also dwells in us. If that's true, then promoting love includes disciplining our desires. Honestly, that leads to the Cross.

God is love. And Jesus is God in the flesh. That means Jesus is love incarnate. And love incarnate says: "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me." We hear that reading this week! Jesus shows us what love looks like and tells us what love requires.

Does the Gospel promote love? Yes! And therefore, so does the Church. But it's becoming increasingly clear that what the world means by love and what the Gospel means by love are on different tracks. This year, that difference comes to a symbolic head. So, Feb. 14 is a great time to ask ourselves: What do we mean by love, and what does love entail?

Speaking of Ash Wednesday, are you looking for something more creative to do this Lent? Let me suggest something that builds on the "Disciples Make Disciples" document that I recently released.

We can take our lead from Psalm 119, which we read on Monday of this week. Psalm 119 is the longest psalm because it devotes eight verses to every letter of the Hebrew alphabet. But here's the key: Every one of those verses, in one way or another, finds a way to mention and praise God's law.

ARCHBISHOP MITCHELL ROZANSKI

SERVE THE LORD
WITH GLADNESS

What if we were that deliberate? What if, on each of the 40 days of Lent, we found at least one occasion to mention and praise God, or Jesus, or the Bible, or Church, or something connected with the life of faith?

The Boy Scout slogan is "Do a good turn daily." What if we set ourselves a task for Lent: Open the door for someone every day — the door of faith!

Disciples make disciples by opening the door of faith for people over and over. We aren't forcing anyone through that door — that would be contrary to the nature of faith, which is always free. But we need to open the door.

Jesus says: "I am the way and the truth and the life; no one comes to the Father except through me." In other words, He is the door to heaven. If we love people, we need to open that door for them.

Les Miracles de Notre Dame

Medieval Paris was not only a center of learning, debate, art, and architecture: it was also a capital of musical creation and innovation, the most important in Europe. You will hear the magnificent vocal music sung within the walls of the great cathedral, as well as miracle tales, student songs, and minstrel turns performed in Notre Dame's shadow, on either bank of the steadily flowing Seine. A feast!

A Lenten Retreat with Sacred Art

Sacred art is meant to assist in the raising of the mind and heart to God. As Pope Benedict XVI wrote, “Images of beauty, in which the mystery of the invisible God becomes visible, are an essential part of Christian worship... The image of Christ and the images of the saints are not photographs. Their whole point is to lead us beyond what can be apprehended at the merely material level, to awaken new senses in us, and to teach us a new kind of seeing, which perceives the Invisible in the visible.” (The Spirit of the Liturgy).

To assist in our Lenten journey, a different piece of sacred art will be displayed each week in the All Saints chapel of the Cathedral Basilica. Please feel free to visit and pray with these images along with the reflections provided in the bulletin as we journey toward the celebration of our Lord’s Resurrection.

Found in the Cathedral Basilica

A good vantage point for viewing the south rose window (pictured to the right) is the main aisle beneath the central dome. Notice the Greek cross design in the window. Notice also the fine mosaics that surround it with the beautiful gold motif. The window rises above the rear gallery. This gallery, or triforium, runs completely around the entire Cathedral except for the north end, where the gallery space is occupied by the organ pipes.

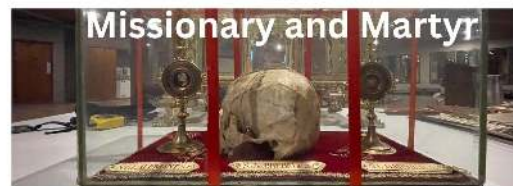

Such a continuous gallery was custom in Byzantine churches, and since men and women were separated in the eastern liturgies, women participated in the liturgy from the gallery.

From this central vantage point, the beautiful majolica border (decorative terra cotta) that extends around the whole interior just above the striped marble can be best observed.

The south rose window was designed by Hildreth Meiere of New York.

Men of the Cathedral

Lent begins on Wednesday, February 14th. As we each begin our Lenten journey, we may wish to consider spending some quality time with Our Lord.

The MEN OF THE CATHEDRAL cordially invite all men and women (parishioners and visitors) to join them for the February Adoration scheduled on February 27th at 6 PM.

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament is a joy beyond words, as we can come close to our Lord in a very special way. That joy and fulfillment is greatly enhanced when you share the experience of Adoration with others. We are blessed to have two Adorations during this Lenten season.

Confessions will be heard during Adoration.

Please plan to attend and invite your friends and family, as it is a tremendous way to come closer to Christ!

Following Adoration, all men are invited to Boland Hall for fellowship and dinners. An offering of $20 is suggested. Please RSVP by Monday, February 26th to Michael Weisbrod at michael.weisbrod@rcfstl.org to reserve your dinner spot!

Weekly Thoughts on Giving

"Brothers and sisters, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God."
- 1 Corinthians 10:31

Do a quick check of your priorities. Where does God rank in that list? If He's not first, you have some work to do. Putting God first in everything helps us from putting other "gods" (like our pride, ego, money and possessions) before God. Before making a decision, ask yourself, "I'm I going this for the glory of God or for the glory of me?"

What Catholics Believe

Join us at the Cathedral Basilica two Wednesdays a month, when Fr. Povis will present an in-depth theological reflection on the articles of the Apostles' Creed.

-6:30pm in Boland Hall

-50 minute presentation followed by social

-Feel free to bring food and drink

-Designed for adults, but all are welcome!
