FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Catholic Charities USA, the official disaster relief agency of the Catholic Church in the United States, has launched a dedicated Helene disaster relief campaign. Archbishop Rozanski is asking all parishes in the Archdiocese of St. Louis to participate by having a special collection. All donations received for disaster aid will be allocated to the Catholic Charities agencies that provide critical relief — including shelter, food, and other humanitarian aid — to those most in need. There will be a second collection at the Cathedral Parish next weekend, October 12 and 13, for these efforts.

Please know that your support helps people through the immediate aftermath and continues helping them as they work through the long process of recovery.

100% of funds raised are forwarded to Catholic Charities agencies that serve affected communities. Thank you for your generosity.

The Red Mass will be celebrated this Sunday at the 10 am Mass with Archbishop Rozanski presiding. This Mass is celebrated annually for judges, prosecutors, attorneys, law school professors and students, and government officials. Through the Mass, the Church asks the guidance of the Holy Spirit for all who are servants of justice. The Mass was established by King Louis IX, our Archdiocesan patron saint, in France in the 1300's. The Red Mass enjoys a long tradition in our country.

Don't forget about our All Souls Novena. You are invited to send us the names of the deceased loved ones you wish included in the Novena, and they will be remembered collectively in a Mass each day for nine days. In addition to our prayer, the name and image of your loved one will be displayed in our chapel. You will receive a Mass card with the name of your departed loved one inscribed inside. To enroll a loved one or for more information, please visit cathedralstl.org/all-souls.

ARCHBISHOP'S COLUMN

We Need to Convert the Basic Categories of Our Political Discourse

Looking at how we treat vulnerable people can help us reframe categories more appropriately.

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

One of the key themes in this week's readings is "the conversion of basic categories." Let me give three examples of what this means.

First: We read all week from St. Paul's letter to the Galatians. There's some debate over whether the letter was written between 48-50 A.D. or 54-55 A.D. Either way, it's written very early in Church history! St. Paul is trying to help the Galatians see that we become children of Abraham — and therefore heirs to God's promises — through faith in Jesus rather than through observance of the ceremonial law. Paul tells the story of his conversion, which came through faith, not through observance of the law. He then draws the Galatians to reflect on their experience of receiving the Holy Spirit, which also came through faith in Jesus, not through observance of the law. The letter to the Galatians shows that the conversion of basic categories has been a need in the Church from very early in our history!

Second: We hear Jesus tell the parable of the Good Samaritan (Luke 10) this week. Remember what kicks off the story: a Pharisee who, "wishing to justify himself," asked: "and who is my neighbor?" The punch line of the parable is when Jesus turns the perspective around: "who am I neighbor to?" The parable challenges the Pharisee, and all of us, to a conversion of basic categories.

Third and last: We hear the very short episode in Luke 11 where a woman shouts to Jesus: "Blessed is the womb that carried you and the breasts at which you nursed." There's truth to that! But the woman is treating physical relationship as the basic category, and Jesus wants to challenge that. So He replies: "Rather, blessed are those who hear the word of God and observe it." He's saying two things there. The first is about the deepest reason His mother is blessed! The second is opening up that same relationship to the rest of us. In both cases, Jesus is calling for the conversion of basic categories, from the physical to the spiritual.

SERVE THE LORD

Here in St. Louis, we know that the need for "the conversion of basic categories" isn't confined to the pages of the Gospel, but is also written on the pages of history. When Dred and Harriet Scott sued for freedom, they were instigating a basic conversion of categories: Was a slave a property or a person? Today we've codified that change in basic categories by switching — and rightly so — from speaking of "slaves" to speaking of "enslaved persons." That conversion of categories wasn't easy, but it was necessary.

Friends, that same need for the conversion of basic categories continues today in political discourse. Here are three of the major conversions I think we need:

1) The category of "reproductive choice" needs to be converted — what we're talking about is how we treat small and vulnerable persons. 2) The category of "illegal immigrant" needs to be converted — what we're talking about, again, is how we receive vulnerable persons. 3) The assumption that the fundamental purpose of politics is to secure economic prosperity needs to be converted — human dignity is the foundation of a healthy culture, not money.

The need for the conversion of basic categories is written into the Gospel, Church history and our nation's history. It's worth thinking about how we carry that heritage into our political and daily decisions.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS TOOTSIE ROLL WEEKEND OCTOBER 12 & 13 AFTER ALL MASSES

ALL SOULS NOVENA AT THE CATHEDRAL BASILICA

As the seasons change and we anticipate the beginning of November, our thoughts turn to our deceased loved ones as we prepare for the liturgical feasts of All Saints and All Souls. We remember them in life and we pray that “perpetual light will shine on them” and God will welcome them into eternal joy.

You are invited to remember deceased loved ones in prayer during the Cathedral Basilica’s All Souls Novena, nine days of prayer for the departed, beginning on November 2. Please send us the names of the deceased loved ones you wish included in the Novena, and they will be remembered collectively in a Mass each day for nine days.

In addition to our prayer, the name and image of your loved one will be displayed in our chapel, and you will receive a lovely Mass card with the name of your departed loved one inscribed inside.

Let us remember our departed loved ones by storming the gates of heaven with prayers on their behalf, praying with confidence the words: “Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord. May perpetual light shine upon them.”

Enrollment for the All Souls Remembrance is available for purchase on our website at <https://cathedralstl.org/all-souls>.

Weekly Thoughts on Giving

"So out of the ground the Lord God formed every beast of the field and every bird of the air, and brought them to the man to see what he would call them; and whatever the man called every living creature, that was its name." (GENESIS 2:19)

The creation story reminds us of two important points. First, since the start, God has put the entire world into our care. Second, stewardship has been around since the beginning of mankind, it isn't something recently invented by the Church. Just as past generations built our Church, it is now our responsibility to continue to nurture and develop these gifts for future generations.
