FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Over the past few years, I have received many positive comments about the new lighting fixtures installed throughout the Cathedral. These fixtures provide improved illumination in the nave and beautifully highlight the mosaics throughout the Basilica. Also, I've received excellent feedback about the newly installed restrooms on the main level and the renovated restrooms on the lower level.

The great Cathedral organ is currently undergoing a major restoration project. When it's complete in 2026, the organ will sound better than ever. Additionally, we are nearing completion of the tuck-pointing work on the Cathedral's exterior.

Preservation and restoration are ongoing tasks, made possible through the generosity of the Friends of the Cathedral Basilica, an organization that sponsors our annual Gala. More than 120 members of the Friends of the Cathedral Basilica make contributions annually in support of this important work. These preservation and restoration efforts cannot be sustained through our regular operating budget alone.

The John L. May Society is the highest level of giving in the Friends organization. The Society has more than 60 members—dedicated men and women who pledge at least $1,000 annually to help preserve the art and architecture of the Cathedral Basilica. I invite you to join the Friends of the Cathedral Basilica by contacting Jennifer Stanard in the rectory office. Also, mark your calendar for the Cathedral Basilica Gala on Saturday, August 23, 2025—our largest annual fundraiser, directly supporting the preservation and restoration of the Cathedral Basilica.

We encounter the disciples on the lake, while everything seemed to be sadly ending, Jesus came close to those seven tired and depressed disciples. Jesus, whom they had not yet recognized, invited them to look elsewhere: "Cast the net on the right side of the boat and you will find some." The seven accepted the invitation and obeyed: the fishing was great and miraculous. It was the advice Jesus had given them at the beginning of their friendship on the shores of that same lake. From those words and that catch they recognized him: "It is the Lord!" And when they reached the shore, they found a fire with bread and fish prepared by Jesus. They were speechless, as when one is overcome by love and tenderness.

Jesus then asks, "Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these?" Jesus asked Peter about love. Jesus did not ask him only once about love, but three times: that is, always. Every day the Lord questions us about love. Every day he entrusts us with the care of others.

ARCHBISHOP'S COLUMN

Appreciating the Gift of Pope Francis to the Church

As we pray for Pope Francis and the Church, let's keep in mind the many things to appreciate about him

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

The world is rushing forward to consider the upcoming conclave and the election of a new pope. Can you and I pause for just a moment to appreciate the gift that Pope Francis was to the Church and to pray in the light of that appreciation?

I was appointed auxiliary bishop of Baltimore by Pope John Paul II, served most of my time as an auxiliary under Pope Benedict XVI, and was transferred to Springfield, Massachusetts, and then St. Louis, by Pope Francis. Suffice it to say this gives me a deep appreciation for each of the last three popes!

Let me name a few things I appreciated about Pope Francis and his leadership.

Pope Francis' notion that the Church is first a field hospital was very helpful. Yes, the notion could be misunderstood. But it's true and it's a powerful image that shapes our first step and focuses our energies.

Pope Francis' notion that we are living in a change of the ages was very helpful. The world has made, and we need to make, the shift from a "Christendom" mindset to a "new Apostolic age" mindset. That doesn't mean the Church should change her teachings. It does mean we should reconsider the strategies we use to present the Gospel to the world. We can no longer suppose that our institutions will evangelize; we need to form individuals who can evangelize.

Pope Francis' sense of mercy as the primary attribute of God was a powerful balm for an anxious world. The way he let mercy shape his interactions with the ill — being drawn to them almost magnetically — provided powerful images of how God's mercy reaches out to the misery of humankind.

The way Pope Francis, right from the start, built on Pope Benedict's theme of "encounter" was a beautiful point of continuity, and shaped our sense of how to carry out the new evangelization. When we allow Jesus to encounter us daily, we become better at helping others encounter Jesus.

The way Pope Francis built on Pope John Paul II's "law of gradualness" was important in shaping how we think of the Church's pastoral strategy. We've become more aware of imperfect progress in salvation history and more patient with imperfect progress in pastoral life.

There are so many things to appreciate in the life and ministry of Pope Francis! But rather than go on and on with my own list, I invite each of us to consider something we appreciated about Pope Francis, and then to pray for the repose of his soul and for the next steps for the Church in the glow of that appreciation.

Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him!

A Thought on The Sanctity Of Life

“The Lord says to us, ‘Do not fear: I am with you’ (Isaiah 41:10). He speaks these words not as one who merely observes our pain, but as one who experienced immense suffering. And the very wounds that bear witness to his suffering indicate the essence of our identity and worth: we are loved by God. Reflecting on the healed wounds of the Risen Christ, we see that even our most difficult trials can be the place where God manifests his victory. He makes all things beautiful. He makes all things new.”

Stewardship Reflection

“...Peter was distressed that Jesus had said to him a third time, ‘Do you love me?’ and he said to him, ‘Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you.’ Jesus said to him, ‘Feed my sheep.’” (John 21:17)

How often do you actually say the words “I love you” to Jesus, to family members, or to friends? We are made to be in relationship with God and each other. Sincerely telling someone that you love them is the best gift you can give them because it comes from your heart. You are giving them the gift of yourself. We all were made by love and for love. Tell someone you love them every day.

Challenge Coin

As part of the Archdiocese of St. Louis’ Year of Hope, Catholic Charities is excited to introduce the Pilgrims of Hope Challenge Coin. This coin is a symbol of hope, meant to be passed on as a reminder of the good happening around us.

Each coin features the message, “Spread Hope,” and a QR code linking to our Coins of Hope webpage. Here’s how you can participate:

1. Receive a Coin: If you receive a coin, it means someone noticed your act of kindness and compassion. Now, it’s your turn to pay it forward!
2. Pass on a Coin: When you witness someone spreading hope, give them your coin and scan the QR code. This will allow you to log the story of hope and share it with others.

3. Share Your Story: We want to hear your story of Hope, so don’t forget to share your story on our landing page. And, if you want, tag us on social media using the hashtag #PILGRIMSOFHOPES

Visit our website www.spreadhopeatl.com for more information and to share your story. Together, we can spread hope across the Archdiocese of St. Louis during this Jubilee Year of Hope!
