WELCOME TO OUR VISITORS

Archbishop Mitchell T. Rozanski and the people of the Archdiocese of St. Louis welcome you and hope that your time in our Mother Church may be an opportunity to share our faith and joy in Jesus Christ.

Please enjoy the beauty of this building dedicated to the glory of God and built for the inspiration of all who enter. Public tours of the Cathedral led by volunteer guides are available most weekdays, call for availability.

All visitors who are not of the Catholic faith are welcome to join us in prayer, but not to receive Holy Communion. Reception of Holy Communion is a sign of unity of faith and full membership in the Catholic community. Together let us pray for the eventual unity of all believers.

If you desire to become a member of the Catholic Church or to become a member of the Cathedral Basilica Parish, please complete a registration card, available at the entrances the church.

All contributions to the Cathedral Basilica parish, ministries, and maintenance are sincerely appreciated.

FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

This week, we welcomed Jonathan Klimpel to the staff of the Cathedral Basilica of St. Louis. He is stepping into the role of Director of Finance and Operations—a position that has been vacant for several months following the passing of Tom Fasl, who served us faithfully for many years. Jonathan brings a wealth of experience from his time in the corporate world, and most recently, from his work at the Provincial Office for the Jesuits of the Central Province. Please join me in extending a warm welcome to Jonathan.

Vigilance is a virtue that seems seldom practiced in our time, yet it remains essential for living a meaningful life. We often find ourselves weighed down by daily worries and burdens. But as Jesus reminds us: “For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.” This is the challenge for every Christian—the treasure is the Lord, and our lives are meant to be lived in anticipation of his coming.

The reward Jesus speaks of is extraordinary. For those he finds alert and ready, the Master will reverse roles—he will fasten his belt, invite his servants to recline, and serve them himself. This astonishing image reveals the fullness of life that awaits those who remain watchful—not for their own sake, but in expectation and welcome of the Lord.

It is hard to believe that nearly three months have passed since the EF-3 tornado tore through the St. Louis area, stretching a mile wide with winds reaching up to 152 mph. Approximately 5,000 structures were damaged, leaving many with severely damaged or destroyed homes. Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of St. Louis continues to assist in recovery efforts and still needs our support.

I invite you to participate in “Response to Recovery” by donating non-perishable food items, toiletries, and cleaning supplies. Donations can be dropped off at Catholic Charities, 4445 Lindell Boulevard, St. Louis, MO 63108, Monday through Friday, from 8:30 AM to 4:30 PM. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

ARCHBISHOP'S COLUMN

Mary's Life Also Provides the Pattern for Us to Grow in Discipleship & Holiness

Like Mary, we can receive nurture and bring forth Christ for others in our daily lives

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

We celebrate the feasts of the Assumption (Aug. 15) and the Queenship of Mary (Aug. 22) in these late summer days.

The Assumption and the Queenship of Mary are not just facts of the faith, they're facts that also present a hope and a challenge for us. Where does God dwell? God came to dwell in Mary. Where does Mary dwell? Because she let God dwell in her, she now dwells with Him. Those truths are meant to be the pattern of our own lives. As the Catechism of the Catholic Church states: "The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin is a singular participation in her Son's Resurrection and an anticipation of the resurrection of other Christians" (CCC 966).

Now, how do we get there? If that's the goal, what's the path?

Let me suggest that Mary's life also provides the pattern for every one of us to grow in discipleship and holiness. The pattern is simple: receive, nurture and bring forth.

By a singular grace, Mary received the Word of God into her body. By the sacramental graces of baptism and the Eucharist and by the daily graces given by God, we can receive the life of Jesus in our souls.

Having received the life of Jesus, Mary nurtured that life in her womb. By regular attendance at the sacraments and by a regular life of prayer, we can nurture the life of Christ in our souls.

Mary brought forth Jesus from her body, that He might be seen and known by others. We can bring forth Jesus through our words and deeds, that His truth and love might be known by all those with whom we come in contact, so that they can encounter and accept His saving love. We don't all have to do that the same way, but we do all have to do it!

Consider the Gospel episode of the rich young man. I think it contains two key lessons for all of us as we follow this Marian pattern of living.

In response to the man's initial question — "What must I do to inherit eternal life?" — Jesus first tells him something simple: Follow the second tablet of the law. Jesus knows there's more! (What about the first tablet?!) He wants to see: Does the young man persist beyond the simple? There's the first lesson: That's a good question for us, too!

Second, when the young man does persist, Jesus raises the bar. He asks for something hard! There's the second lesson: Where does Jesus press in with each of us and ask for something that's hard? Here, again: He doesn't necessarily ask the same thing from each of us. He asks because there's something unique that each of us needs to give up in order to make room for Him in our lives. And when He asks, we can walk away or follow Him.

Mary gave up something in order to make room for the King of Heaven to dwell in her, and now she dwells with Him in heaven. Let's lean into the pattern of Mary's life — both as a goal and as a challenge — as we celebrate the Assumption and the Queenship of Mary.

A Thought on The Sanctity Of Life

“Although we may feel unsure how best to comfort those who mourn, we must stand with them in their time of suffering. Miscarriage touches the lives of many people, yet all too often this tragedy remains unaddressed. This lack of response not only often leads to unresolved grief but also fails to clearly manifest our belief that each person, from conception onward, is precious and unique.”

Stewardship Reflection

“For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be.” LUKE 12:34

Jesus encourages us to build up our treasure in heaven. The world encourages us to build up our treasure in real estate, investments, and material goods. How much time are you investing in building up a worldly treasure? How much time are you investing in building up a heavenly treasure? To invest more in the things of heaven, you must let go of some of the things of this world.

OCIA

Have you ever thought about becoming Catholic?

Do you know someone who might be interested in the Catholic faith?
Are you Catholic, but have not received First Communion or Confirmation?

The Order of Christian Initiation for Adults (or OCIA) enables those who are interested in the Catholic faith to “see what it is all about”.

Most often, people come because they are invited.

For Catholic parishioners: Pause and consider moments of grace you have experienced in your life – whether in prayer, in the sacraments, in moments of community and family life – these are gifts given by the Lord.

Consider: Is there anyone you know whom the Lord may want to invite receive these same gifts?

OCIA is for persons who have never been baptized, were baptized in another Christian tradition, or were baptized Catholic but have never celebrated Confirmation or received First Communion. It is also open to anyone who is interested in learning more about what Catholics believe and why we believe it. You are welcome if you have been Catholic all your life, if you have a passing interest in the Catholic faith, or if you are anywhere in between!

The 2025–2026 OCIA session will begin September 7th.

To register or for additional information, contact
Fr. Charlie Archer at 314-373-8204 or archer@cathedralstl.org

Catholic Charities

As our neighbors continue to rebuild following the May 16 tornado and other recent storms, Catholic Charities is shifting from immediate response to long-term recovery. You can help bring comfort and relief to those affected. The need continues to persist and our work is still in its early stages for these storm victims.

They are collecting the following items at Catholic Charities 4445 Lindell Blvd from 8:30am to 4pm Monday-Friday. This will be an ongoing project as this recovery will be long term. Thank you for continuous generosity!

The top 3 items needed are:

1. Non-perishable food items
2. Toiletries
3. Cleaning items

For questions or concerns, please contact your Parish Ambassador Pat at playhousehf@yahoo.com
