WELCOME TO OUR VISITORS

Archbishop Mitchell T. Rozanski and the people of the Archdiocese of St. Louis welcome you and hope that your time in our Mother Church may be an opportunity to share our faith and joy in Jesus Christ.

Please enjoy the beauty of this building dedicated to the glory of God and built for the inspiration of all who enter. Public tours of the Cathedral led by volunteer guides are available most weekdays, call for availability.

All visitors who are not of the Catholic faith are welcome to join us in prayer, but not to receive Holy Communion. Reception of Holy Communion is a sign of unity of faith and full membership in the Catholic community. Together let us pray for the eventual unity of all believers.

If you desire to become a member of the Catholic Church or to become a member of the Cathedral Basilica Parish, please complete a registration card, available at the entrances the church.

All contributions to the Cathedral Basilica parish, ministries, and maintenance are sincerely appreciated.

FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Today's readings are indeed a call to war: not a war against other people but a war against sin and corruption; not a war against people we perceive as evil, but a war against the evil one, the devil. Let us listen to these words of Jesus:

Do you think that I have come to establish peace on the earth?
No, I tell you, but rather division.
From now on a household of five will be divided,
three against two and two against three;
a father will be divided against his son
and a son against his father, a mother against her daughter and a daughter against her mother, a mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law. (Luke 12:51-53)

Scholars tell us that Jesus is speaking here not about the purpose of His coming, but about the inevitable consequence of His coming. Jesus came to reveal the true sons and daughters of God who listen to God's word, and those of this world who oppose God's design. This divides all humankind into two camps: the camp of the godly and the camp of the ungodly. There is perpetual conflict—a state of war—between these two groups, as one strives to raise the world up to God and the other seeks to pull it down to hell.

These two groups do not live in separate corners of the world; they live side by side in the same neighborhood, under the same roof, and, in fact, the forces of good and evil often exist together in the same person.

The holy war to which Christ calls us, therefore, is not a war against people of certain nationalities or cultures, creeds or ideologies, but a war in which we must first identify the forces of evil within our own hearts and in the hearts of those dear to us, and then declare an uncompromising war against those forces.

What are some of these evil forces we are called to fight? We begin with the Seven Deadly Sins: Pride (superiority complex), Covetousness (greed, seeking material prosperity at the expense of one's soul), Lust (sexual abuse of minors, pornography, treating women as objects of pleasure), Anger (bitterness, hatred, bearing grudges), Gluttony (excessive eating and drinking), Envy (self-hatred, rivalry), and Sloth (seeking success without working for it). If we declare war against these, then we are fighting a holy war.

ARCHBISHOP'S COLUMN

Mary's Life Also Provides the Pattern for Us to Grow in Discipleship & Holiness

Like Mary, we can receive nurture and bring forth Christ for others in our daily lives

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

We celebrate the feasts of the Assumption (Aug. 15) and the Queenship of Mary (Aug. 22) in these late summer days.

The Assumption and the Queenship of Mary are not just facts of the faith, they're facts that also present a hope and a challenge for us. Where does God dwell? God came to dwell in Mary. Where does Mary dwell? Because she let God dwell in her, she now dwells with Him. Those truths are meant to be the pattern of our own lives. As the Catechism of the Catholic Church states: "The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin is a singular participation in her Son's Resurrection and an anticipation of the resurrection of other Christians" (CCC 966).

Now, how do we get there? If that's the goal, what's the path?

Let me suggest that Mary's life also provides the pattern for every one of us to grow in discipleship and holiness. The pattern is simple: receive, nurture and bring forth.

By a singular grace, Mary received the Word of God into her body. By the sacramental graces of baptism and the Eucharist and by the daily graces given by God, we can receive the life of Jesus in our souls.

Having received the life of Jesus, Mary nurtured that life in her womb. By regular attendance at the sacraments and by a regular life of prayer, we can nurture the life of Christ in our souls.

Mary brought forth Jesus from her body, that He might be seen and known by others. We can bring forth Jesus through our words and deeds, that His truth and love might be known by all those with whom we come in contact, so that they can encounter and accept His saving love. We don't all have to do that the same way, but we do all have to do it!

Consider the Gospel episode of the rich young man. I think it contains two key lessons for all of us as we follow this Marian pattern of living.

In response to the man's initial question — "What must I do to inherit eternal life?" — Jesus first tells him something simple: Follow the second tablet of the law. Jesus knows there's more! (What about the first tablet?!) He wants to see: Does the young man persist beyond the simple? There's the first lesson: That's a good question for us, too!

Second, when the young man does persist, Jesus raises the bar. He asks for something hard! There's the second lesson: Where does Jesus press in with each of us and ask for something that's hard? Here, again: He doesn't necessarily ask the same thing from each of us. He asks because there's something unique that each of us needs to give up in order to make room for Him in our lives. And when He asks, we can walk away or follow Him.

Mary gave up something in order to make room for the King of Heaven to dwell in her, and now she dwells with Him in heaven. Let's lean into the pattern of Mary's life — both as a goal and as a challenge — as we celebrate the Assumption and the Queenship of Mary.

Sacrament of Marriage

Congratulations to Steven & Taylor Pawlow (pictured left) who were united in the Sacrament of Marriage at the Cathedral Basilica on Saturday, August 9, 2025 at 1:30 in the afternoon

Love is patient, love is kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice in wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth.

OCIA

Have you ever thought about becoming Catholic?

Do you know someone who might be interested in the Catholic faith?
Are you Catholic, but have not received First Communion or Confirmation?

The Order of Christian Initiation for Adults (or OCIA) enables those who are interested in the Catholic faith to “see what it is all about”.

Most often, people come because they are invited.

For Catholic parishioners: Pause and consider moments of grace you have experienced in your life – whether in prayer, in the sacraments, in moments of community and family life – these are gifts given by the Lord.

Consider: Is there anyone you know whom the Lord may want to invite receive these same gifts?

OCIA is for persons who have never been baptized, were baptized in another Christian tradition, or were baptized Catholic but have never celebrated Confirmation or received First Communion. It is also open to anyone who is interested in learning more about what Catholics believe and why we believe it. You are welcome if you have been Catholic all your life, if you have a passing interest in the Catholic faith, or if you are anywhere in between!

The 2025–2026 OCIA session will begin September 7th.

To register or for additional information, contact
Fr. Charlie Archer at 314-373-8204 or archer@cathedralstl.org

Prayer for the School Year

Dear Lord,

As our students begin a new school year, we pray that you will keep them in your care. Send your Spirit to open their minds to all that is true and beautiful and good Help them to see the gifts and talents you have given them and to use them well. Help them to grow in knowledge and wisdom. Help them to be kind to others and lead others to be kind to them.

Give our educators patience and understanding and help them teach what is just and true. Send your angels to guide and guard our children and educators to keep them from all harm. Open their hearts to your presence and keep them in your peace and protection. Hold them in the palm of your hand and bring them home safely at day's end.

Amen.
