WELCOME TO OUR VISITORS

Archbishop Mitchell T. Rozanski and the people of the Archdiocese of St. Louis welcome you and hope that your time in our Mother Church may be an opportunity to share our faith and joy in Jesus Christ.

Please enjoy the beauty of this building dedicated to the glory of God and built for the inspiration of all who enter. Public tours of the Cathedral led by volunteer guides are available most weekdays, call for availability.

All visitors who are not of the Catholic faith are welcome to join us in prayer, but not to receive Holy Communion. Reception of Holy Communion is a sign of unity of faith and full membership in the Catholic community. Together let us pray for the eventual unity of all believers.

If you desire to become a member of the Catholic Church or to become a member of the Cathedral Basilica Parish please go register at <https://cathedralstl.org/new-parishioner-registration>

All contributions to the Cathedral Basilica parish, ministries, and maintenance are sincerely appreciated.

FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

This coming Wednesday, we enter into the Season of Lent. But what does "entering Lent" mean? It means we enter a season of special commitment in the spiritual battle to oppose the evil present in the world, in each one of us and around us. It means looking evil in the face and being ready to fight its effects and especially its causes, even its primary cause which is Satan. It means not off-loading the problem of evil onto others, onto society or onto God, but rather recognizing one's own responsibility and assuming it with awareness. In this regard, Jesus' invitation to each one of us Christians to take up our "cross" and follow him with humility and trust (cf. Mt 16: 24) is particularly pressing. Although the "cross" may be heavy, it is not synonymous with misfortune, with disgrace or to be avoided on all accounts.

Masses on Ash Wednesday will be at 7:00 am, 8:00 am, 12:05 pm and 5:30 pm. Make plans during this Lenten Season to join your fellow parishioners for the Stations of the Cross on the Friday's of Lent at 7:00 pm. Perhaps God is calling you to attend daily Mass at 7:00 am, 8:00 am or 12:05 pm. Don't forget that even if you only 5 minutes, stop by and pray with our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel.

To help you enter more fully into the Lenten Season, we are providing to our parishioners The Magnificat Lenten Companion, which is designed in a convenient, easy-to-use format with inspiring daily reflections, prayers, and faith-filled essays. By taking a few moments each day to meditate on the daily reflections and short prayers that follow, you will accompany Jesus through his Passion and Death, emerging on Easter Sunday to the overflowing joy of His Resurrection. You will find these companions located at the main entrance to the Basilica.

Besides prayer and fasting, our refocusing efforts for a good Lent calls us to go outside ourselves. That means using our time, talent and treasure for others. While "almsgiving" is the traditional term used for this component of Lent, what is behind this is our concerns for our brothers and sisters, especially those who are in need and less fortunate than we are.

Recently, I came across this quote: "A comfort zone is a beautiful place, but nothing ever grows there." I think that's an appropriate description for a good Lent - to get out of our comfort zone and grow closer to the Lord. May this Lent be that special time for us.

ARCHBISHOP'S COLUMN

Lent is a Time to Reserve Time, Energy and Space to Receive the Lord

God is more concerned with the trajectory of our hearts than with the ledger of our sins and good deeds

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Here are three ways to think about Lent.

First, when we receive a guest into our home, we prepare some room — reserving some time, space and energy to receive them.

Well, Jesus says to us: “Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him.” (John 14:23)

That’s one way to think of Lent. God — Father, Son, and Holy Spirit — wants to come into our home. What time, space, and energy needs to be tidied up in preparation to receive this guest?

Second, the Bible calls David “a man after the Lord’s own heart.” (1 Samuel 13:14; Acts 13:22)

Of course, we know it was not always so — after all, he committed adultery and murder! But the trajectory of David’s heart was from sin to repentance.

Solomon, on the other hand, started off spectacularly — asking for wisdom when he could have asked for anything! (1 Kings 3) But then, later in life, Solomon was building temples for foreign gods. The trajectory of his heart was from wisdom to folly.

The prophet Ezekiel brings this lesson to a fine point for ancient Israel: If the wicked turn and repent, none of their sins will be remembered against them; and if the righteous turn to sin, none of their good deeds will be remembered. (See Ezekiel 18: 21-24) This raised howls of protest in ancient Israel, as it does today: “That’s not fair!”

But the point is this: The Lord is more interested in the trajectory of our heart than in our moral ledger of credits and debits. There can be no coasting for the good; there need be no despair for the sinner.

As if to drive this point home, we hear the story of the calling of Levi (Matthew) this week. Here was a tax collector — that’s just about as bad as it gets. But Jesus called him and offered him a chance to change the trajectory of his life.

So, trajectory becomes the key question for us during Lent. Not: “what did I accomplish yesterday?” Rather: What is the Lord asking of me today?

Third, the Lord takes us seriously — our choices, our intentions and our attitudes.

Deuteronomy 30, and Psalm 1 and Isaiah 58 all tell us that the Lord sets a choice before us. If we choose to serve the Lord, then we will live in the light; if we choose to reject the Lord, then we will live in the darkness. God’s judgment ratifies our choice: He will make our external reality match our internal reality.

Matthew 6 tells us that the Lord sees the intentions of the heart. If we pray, fast and give alms in order to be seen by people, then being seen by people will be the sum total of our reward. If, however, we pray, fast and give alms solely in order to please God, then pleasing God will be our reward. God honors our intentions: As we intend, so He will give.

Joel 6 and James 1 tell us that the Lord will take our attitude seriously. If we are steady or flighty, if we are repentant or hardened, He will measure the same measure back to us.

Wouldn’t it be nice to have 40 days to prepare the trajectory of our hearts and to prepare our choices, intentions and attitudes to receive so great a guest at Easter?

Welcome to Lent!

Men of the Cathedral

Winter doldrums can be easily alleviated by joining the Men of the Cathedral for Adoration and Dinner. Join the Men of the Cathedral in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel on February 26th to find your inner joy and comfort through your ability to visit with our Lord.

The evening begins at 6pm with Adoration. Confessions will be heard during this time. After Adoration, we will move to Boland Hall for fellowship and dinner. The cost is $20 and reservations can be made by contacting Michael Weisbrod at michael.weisbrod@rcfstl.org before February 20th.

Cathedral Ushers

Cathedral Ushers are needed at all the weekend Masses, special Masses throughout the year, Confirmations, Chrism Mass, Ordinations and an occasional large funeral.

Ushers are responsible for:

- * Greeting everyone who enters the church
- * Pass out worship aids/programs
- * Assist in helping to seat people
- * Help with the collection
- * Help usher people during communion
- * Pass out bulletins as people leave following Mass
- * Do a sweep of the pews following the Mass to collect any materials left in the pews

Interested? Meet us after Mass in the vestibule!

Anima Christi Young Adults

Anyone between the ages of 18 and 39 is invited to join in prayer and fellowship with the young adult community of the Cathedral Basilica. Our next meeting will be February 19, 2026. We will begin with Holy Hour at 6:30 pm followed by dinner in Boland Hall.

Please enter the Cathedral across the parking lot from the playground on the west side of the Church. Email AnimaChristiStL@gmail.com or see the Anima Christi Facebook page for more details.
