WELCOME TO OUR VISITORS

Archbishop Mitchell T. Rozanski and the people of the Archdiocese of St. Louis welcome you and hope that your time in our Mother Church may be an opportunity to share our faith and joy in Jesus Christ.

Please enjoy the beauty of this building dedicated to the glory of God and built for the inspiration of all who enter. Public tours of the Cathedral led by volunteer guides are available most weekdays, call for availability.

All visitors who are not of the Catholic faith are welcome to join us in prayer, but not to receive Holy Communion. Reception of Holy Communion is a sign of unity of faith and full membership in the Catholic community. Together let us pray for the eventual unity of all believers.

If you desire to become a member of the Catholic Church or to become a member of the Cathedral Basilica Parish please go register at <https://cathedralstl.org/new-parishioner-registration>

All contributions to the Cathedral Basilica parish, ministries, and maintenance are sincerely appreciated.

FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

As we enter the liturgical season following Pentecost, the Church immediately turns our attention to the great mystery at the very heart of our faith: the Most Holy Trinity. Every prayer we offer begins “In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.” These familiar words are much more than a formula; they are a profession of faith in the God who is one in three divine Persons — Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

The Solemnity of the Holy Trinity reminds us that everything in the Christian life begins with God’s love. The Father, out of limitless love for the world, sent His Son for our salvation. As Jesus tells Nicodemus in the Gospel of John: “For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life.” The mystery of the Trinity is therefore not distant or abstract. It is the mystery of divine love poured out for humanity.

The Church herself is born from this love. Pentecost marked the beginning of the Church’s public mission, and now, in the light of the Trinity, we see more clearly what that mission is: to bring the Gospel of Jesus Christ to all peoples and to gather humanity into communion with God and with one another.

Saint Paul reminds us in the Letter to the Romans that through the Holy Spirit we are no longer slaves to fear, but adopted sons and daughters who can cry out to God as “Abba, Father.” The Holy Spirit unites believers into one people — not divided by language, nation, or status, but united in Christ.

This message is especially important in our world today. We live in a time marked by conflict, fear, division, and uncertainty. Too often people are tempted to look only to their own interests while forgetting the poor, the weak, and those who suffer most. Yet the Holy Spirit continues to call the Church to speak the language of love, peace, reconciliation, and hope.

The Feast of the Holy Trinity reminds us that the Church’s mission remains urgent. The Spirit of God continues to renew hearts, restore dignity to the forgotten, and bring peace where hatred and violence threaten to prevail. As Christians, we are called not only to believe in the Trinity, but to reflect the life of the Trinity through unity, charity, and self-giving love.

May this season after Pentecost renew in all of us a deeper awareness that we are called to live as children of God, united in the love of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

ARCHBISHOP'S COLUMN

Priests bring Christ Into the World in a Special Way

For the members of their flock, priests lift the veil on the supernatural world to help prepare us for heaven

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Of course, Jesus Christ Himself is the great high priest and all priesthood is only a share in His. And: Of course, there are two priesthoods — the baptized and the ordained. And: Of course, the ordained priesthood is in service of the unfolding of baptismal grace.

Still, within that framework, let's pause for a few minutes to ponder the great gift of the ordained priesthood.

St. John Paul II once said: "If we take a close look at what contemporary men and women expect from priests, we will see that, in the end, they have but one great expectation: they are thirsting for Christ. Everything else — their economic, social and political needs — can be met by any number of other people. From the priest they ask for Christ!"

Now, on a day-to-day level, that's not 100% true, is it? We do ask for many things from our parish priests: organizational leadership, social skills, financial savvy, strategic planning and so on. But, most fundamentally, he's right: The priest brings Christ into the world in a special way — most especially in the Eucharist and in the confessional. In the end, that mediation of Christ's presence is the most important thing.

On one level, contemporary Americans don't like this. Part of our heart harbors a doubt and a resentment: Why should God come to me through intermediaries — why not directly?

But that question has two good answers.

First: God — who made us! — knows our nature. As body and soul, we need outward signs of spiritual realities. So God gives us outward signs through priests. For example: In the Eucharist we can taste and see that God really gives Himself to us; and in confession we can hear that God really forgives us.

ARCHBISHOP MITCHELL ROZANSKI

SERVE THE LORD WITH GLADNESS

Second: God — who has watched us hide since Adam and Eve! — knows our weakness. We're not yet ready to meet God without intermediaries. In heaven, it's true, there is no temple (see Revelation 21) and there are no sacraments — there is the immediate vision of God. But in heaven, the saints also don't hide themselves from God. Here on earth, where we still hide in shame, God gives us intermediaries — to draw us out of hiding and prepare us for the transformation we need before we're ready for heaven.

Here's one more thing St. John Paul II said about the priesthood: "As a steward of God's mysteries, the priest is a special witness to the invisible in the world. For he is a steward of invisible and priceless treasures belonging to the spiritual and supernatural order." Great writers like G.K. Chesterton and C.S. Lewis and J.R.R. Tolkien talked about the need to "re-enchant" the world — to make it more and more clear that the material world is shot through with spiritual realities. The priest is meant to do that: Both in what he does and in who he is, the priest lifts the veil on the supernatural world over and over for all of us. We need that witness, because we're meant to live in that supernatural world for eternity!

After 42 years as a priest and 22 years as a bishop, I know that priesthood demands sacrifice and strength. Of course, so does every Christian life! But, for a moment, let's pause, and give thanks to God — for the priesthood itself and for the good priests we have known.

Eucharistic Exposition

The Blessed Sacrament, the very presence of Christ's body and blood in the Eucharist, is reserved in the tabernacle of the Blessed Sacrament Chapel to the east of the main sanctuary. At all hours the Cathedral is open, people may be found praying there before the Lord "face to face." Each Saturday afternoon, beginning at 3:30 p.m., the Eucharist is displayed for prayer and adoration in public exposition in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel for a holy hour. Following this holy hour, the Evening Prayer of the Church with Benediction is celebrated.

Additionally, the Blessed Sacrament is displayed for public adoration and prayer on the First Friday of the month. First Friday Adoration begins at approximately 8:30 a.m., following the completion of the 8:00 a.m. Mass, and concludes with Benediction at 11:45 a.m. Our next First Friday Adoration will be held Friday, June 5.

Sacrament of Baptism

Congratulations and God's continued blessings on Sorren Leyla and the Wilson Family (pictured below) She was baptized on April 26, 2026.

"And now why do you wait? Rise and be baptized, and wash away your sins, calling on his name." Acts 22:16

The Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi) - The Blessed Sacrament

The Solemnity of Corpus Christi is celebrated on the first Sunday after the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. As we try to live according to God's word and as we share the Gospel with others, we can often feel alone. Living as a witness of Christ is radical and it is countercultural. However, we are never alone.

Jesus promised that He would be with us until the end of time. We can experience His presence in others, in creation, in Scripture, etc. Most importantly, we can experience Christ's presence in the Eucharist and we can adore Him in the Blessed Sacrament. We can experience the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Jesus Christ!

This week let us meditate on the presence of Jesus in our lives and take some time to pray in front of the Blessed Sacrament. Jesus wants to hear what is in our hearts and minds. He wants to embrace us with His love, and He wants us to spend quality time with Him. We can all use practice listening to Jesus with our hearts.

Next Sunday, June 7 we will celebrate the feast of Corpus Christi. We will have our Corpus Christi procession following the noon Mass.
