FROM OUR RECTOR

Dear Parishioners,

On Saturday, May 23, the same day as the Ordination to the Priesthood at our Cathedral Basilica, Father Koby Nguyen was ordained a priest. Father Nguyen served as a deacon at Cathedral Parish from September through December. I am personally grateful for the wonderful service he provided to our parish and wish him every blessing as he begins his priestly ministry. Having come to know Father Nguyen over these past several months, I am confident that he will be a faithful priest, compassionate confessor, and inspiring homilist.

This Sunday, June 7, we celebrate the Solemnity of Corpus Christi. Following the conclusion of the 12:00 p.m. Mass, we will have our traditional Corpus Christi Procession through the parish grounds. Along the route, we will stop for Benediction at two altars before returning to the main altar for a final Benediction. The origins of this feast can be traced to St. Thomas Aquinas, who, at the request of Pope Urban IV, helped establish a feast dedicated exclusively to honoring the Holy Eucharist. Our procession is a beautiful public witness to our faith in the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist and a profound way to share that faith with the Central West End community and the City of St. Louis.

Please mark your calendars for the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, which will be celebrated on Friday, June 12. Devotion to the Sacred Heart has roots in the writings of the early Fathers of the Church, including Origen, St. Ambrose, St. Jerome, St. Augustine of Hippo, and St. Hippolytus of Rome. In the twelfth century, St. Bernard of Clairvaux further deepened this devotion through his reflections on the wounded side of Christ. The Feast of the Sacred Heart reminds us of the boundless and burning love of God for each one of us, symbolized in the Heart of Jesus.

This celebration is followed on Saturday by the Memorial of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. This memorial honors the interior life of the Blessed Virgin Mary—her joys and sorrows, her virtues and hidden holiness, and above all, her perfect love for God. It celebrates her maternal love for her Son, Jesus, and her compassionate love for all people. As we honor the Immaculate Heart of Mary, we are invited to imitate her faith, trust, and complete devotion to the will of God

ARCHBISHOP'S COLUMN

The Problem with Misplaced Kindness

The Gospel calls us to something deeper — allowing our hearts to be conformed to Christ

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

“I beg you not to show me a misplaced kindness.” These words, spoken by St. Ignatius of Antioch on his way to martyrdom, offer a critique and a challenge to us today.

“Misplaced kindness” is a good description of contemporary culture, which tells us: “You’re basically good. So, if you follow your desires, everything will turn out OK.” Even if we grant that the point is kindly meant, we can know that the kindness is misplaced for several reasons.

First, because we know — in our heart of hearts — that our desires are a mix of good and evil.

Second, because culture has been encouraging this pattern for decades, and “following our desires” is not turning out all right.

Third, because this isn’t what Jesus told us. He didn’t have to take on flesh and go to the cross because we’re basically OK. He did so because we need to be rescued. And He told us: You need to die to self and be configured to me. That will be glorious, but sometimes it’s going to hurt.

There are two questions all of us need to ask.

- 1) Is this (whatever “this” is) consistent with my desires?
- 2) Is it consistent with the Gospels? We won’t live a whole-hearted discipleship without asking both of those questions. But we also have to get their order right!

Contemporary culture proposes that if something is consistent with our desires but inconsistent with the Gospels, the Gospels need to be set aside. Whole-hearted discipleship reverses the order. If something is inconsistent with the Gospel, but we want it — something like adultery or stealing or excessive drinking — then our actions can’t bow to our desires. Note: That doesn’t erase the desires! We have to acknowledge them. But then we take them to the cross and let our hearts be conformed to Christ — and that’s where discipleship sometimes hurts. Only when something is consistent with the Gospels — like marriage or priesthood, or being a doctor or a teacher — do we ask the next question: Do I want it? That’s when discernment comes into play.

ARCHBISHOP MITCHELL ROZANSKI

SERVE THE LORD WITH GLADNESS

Good coaching takes us beyond our comfort zone to bring us into excellence. Discipleship does the same. Over and over in the Gospels, Jesus says to us what great coaches say to us: “I want more from you, because I want more for you.”

On Mount Carmel, the prophet Elijah set up a test with the prophets of Baal. Elijah was massively outnumbered 450 to 1! But he set up two altars with a sacrifice and challenged the prophets of Baal: Let’s both call upon our gods. The God who answers with fire and consumes the sacrifice is the true God.

We might perform a similar test in our own lives. If we take the proposal of contemporary culture — following our desires and setting aside the Gospel — how does it go? Is it really satisfying? I think not. In fact, this is basically Dante’s description of Hell in The Divine Comedy: We’re consumed by our own desires.

By contrast, St. Lawrence Justinian holds up the example of Mary: “She was not led by her own senses, nor by her own will; thus she accomplished outwardly, through her body, what wisdom from within gave her faith ... Imitate her, O faithful soul.” If we try living like that — allowing our hearts to be configured to Christ’s Sacred Heart — God will answer by placing His fire in our lives.

The Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi) - The Blessed Sacrament

The Solemnity of Corpus Christi is celebrated on the first Sunday after the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. As we try to live according to God's word and as we share the Gospel with others, we can often feel alone. Living as a witness of Christ is radical and it is countercultural. However, we are never alone.

Jesus promised that He would be with us until the end of time. We can experience His presence in others, in creation, in Scripture, etc. Most importantly, we can experience Christ's presence in the Eucharist and we can adore Him in the Blessed Sacrament. We can experience the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Jesus Christ!

This week let us meditate on the presence of Jesus in our lives and take some time to pray in front of the Blessed Sacrament. Jesus wants to hear what is in our hearts and minds. He wants to embrace us with His love, and He wants us to spend quality time with Him. We can all use practice listening to Jesus with our hearts.

Today (Sunday), June 7 we will celebrate the feast of Corpus Christi. We will have our Corpus Christi procession following the noon Mass.

Parish Ambassador News

Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Saint Louis ministry of Saint Martha's, serves women and their children impacted by domestic violence by providing shelter and many supportive services. Saint Martha's offers a residential emergency shelter as well as a drop-in resource center that offers information and referrals with compassionate support.

Bridge of Hope, in partnership with Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of St. Louis, is the first emergency shelter and community resource center in Lincoln County. Bridge of Hope provides short-term shelter, meals, and structured case management for men, women, and families experiencing homelessness. The program is goal-oriented and focused on helping individuals stabilize and move into permanent housing. We fill a critical gap by offering both immediate safety and a clear path forward.

In 2025 alone, Bridge of Hope served 143 individuals through our shelter program. Of those, 51 individuals successfully moved into housing and have sustained that housing for more than 90 days, demonstrating long-term stability and program effectiveness.

Stewardship Reflection

"Because there is one bread, we, who are many, are one body, for we all partake of the one bread."

1 CORINTHIANS 10:17

As disciples of Jesus, we are called to lead holy lives and invite others to join us. We are called to be fed and to feed others. Living a stewardship lifestyle, being grateful and generous with our gifts, serves a twofold purpose. One, it helps build God's kingdom here on earth. Two, it helps us strengthen each other's relationship with God the Father, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit. It becomes our roadmap to Heaven. Let's help each other get there!

A Thought on the Sanctity of Life

"Christ's blood reveals to man that his greatness, and therefore his vocation, consists in the sincere gift of self. ...It is from the blood of Christ that all draw the strength to commit themselves to promoting life. It is precisely this blood that is the most powerful source of hope, indeed it is the foundation of the absolute certitude that in God's plan life will be victorious."
